Cagers Annex 44 to 38 Victory

SID HELD
—Lincoln Journalist

Exhibiting a somewhat spotty offense, Nebraska's Cornhuskers got off to a good start in conference cage circles by dropping a Kansas State quintet, 44-38, last night at the coliseum.

Able led by Sid Held, high scoring guard, the Huskers were in the driver's seat thruout. Last night marked the opening of the Big Six conference season which is destined to be one of the hottest in the league's history.

Kansas took the lead with less than a minute of playing time having elapsed when George Mendenhall slipped in a close shot for two points. Johnny Thompson soon evened the count however when he hit from way out with a perfect swisher.

With two minutes gone Johnny Fitzgibbon collected a bucket to set the Scarlet cagers into a lead that they never lost. The Huskers left the floor sporting a 21-11 lead at the halftime.

In the early moments of the second period it looked like the host club was going to run away with the contest as they potted 11 points in the first 3½ minutes to their opponents 2. Jack Horacek kept his team in the running, however as he was finding the mark with his long shots.

Pahl Receives $100 Science Scholarship

Harold L. Pahl, teachers college senior has been awarded the $100 Herbert Brownell scholarship in science education for the current school year.

The scholarship is available annually to a student preparing for a career in the teaching of science. It is provided by the family of the late Prof. Herbert Brownell, for many years professor of technique of science instruction at the university.

Pahl formerly attended Nebraska Wesleyan university and has taught general science for the last four years in the junior high school at Franklin.

Mrs. Herbert Brownell of Lincoln, Dean F. E. Henzlik of Teachers college, and Prof. Harold E. Wise of the secondary education department comprised the committee which selected the scholarship recipient.

Yearbook Sales Deadline Nears Russel Warns

Final deadline for purchasing a 1942 Cornhusker has been set for Jan. 20, according to Shirley Russel, editor. Books may be purchased from Corn Cobs, Tassels, Cornhusker business workers, or in the Cornhusker office.

The editor of the yearbook stated that everyone who does not make the first payment on a book before that time will not be insured of getting a book since the printing order must go in at that time for the number of books. A few extra books will be ordered but there will not be enough for everyone, Miss Russel stated.

Final payment for the book must be made by March 15.

The Weather

It will be cloudy and colder today with light snow in the extreme south. The mercury will rise to about 5 above zero this afternoon.

Pan-Hel Receives Filings For Scholastic Awards

... Beginning Today

Filings for the 6 $25 scholarships awarded by the Pan-Hellenic council to sorority women who meet the requirements of scholarship and need open today in Ellen Smith hall. These are the only scholarships awarded exclusively to sorority women.

Application blanks may be secured from the office of the dean of women, and must be returned by Jan. 14. The scholarships will be awarded at an all-sorority tea

Mulholland, 'Black Art' Magician Appears Sunday ... in Union Ballroom

"The world's greatest authority on magic"—that's the way Webster's Dictionary describes John Mulholland, dealer in the black art, who will present his tricks at a union convocation Sunday at 4 p. m.

Disguised in Oriental attire, Mulholland will stage a two hour performance entitled "Wonders of the World." Through his research in 42 countries, Mulholland has made a thorough study of the art of magic. His library on the subject has been exhibited for a year by the New York Public Library.

The authority on magic for Compton's Encyclopedia, Mulholland has received high praise for his work. Says Eleanor Roosevelt in her column "My Day": "A marvelous magician, Mr. John Mulholland, performed seemingly impossible feats before our eyes."

U. S. Students Approve Bombing Japanese Cities

In National Opinion Survey

By Joe Belden, Editor.

(Student Opinion Surveys of America.)

AUSTIN, Texas, January 7.—The great majority of American college students is ready for the U. S. air force to bomb Japanese cities, the latest national poll of Student Opinion Surveys of America reveals.

Much was said, before World War II earnestly got underway, about the advantages and disadvantages of dropping explosives over civilian population centers, but events of recent months and weeks have shown that bombing of cities has become an integral part of modern war strategy.

A few days before the Japanese bombed Manila after it had been declared an open city Student Opinion Surveys completed a poll in which more than nine out of every ten students interviewed favored retaliation. No doubt feeling has flared still higher since the attack on the Philippine capital.

Only Military Objectives. Of those who answered in the affirmative, it is important to point out, a little less than half specified that although they were in favor of bombing Japanese urban centers, our fliers should make it a point to strike at military objectives only. This is how opinion divides:

"Do you approve or disapprove of the U. S. air force bombing Japanese cities?"
 Approve 63%
 Approve, but military objectives only 29
 Disapprove 6
 Undecided 2

The problems involved in singling out military objectives, of the geographical difficulties of attacking the Japanese Islands from the air, are, of course, not taken up in this survey. All that is reflected is the general attitude of college students, many of whom, since the army and navy air corps prefer college-trained men, are the potential pilots who will participate in the raids already promised the Japanese.

It is of interest to note a slight but significant difference of opinion among college youth in the eastern and western parts of the country. Perhaps it is the propinquity of the Pacific conflict to westerners and realization of their own danger from the sky that makes more of them say, "Bomb Jap cities, but not indiscriminately—only military objectives."

Council Meets This Afternoon

Student Council will meet this afternoon at 5 p. m. in room 313 of the Student Union according to Burton Thiel, council president.

	East U. S.	West U. S.
Approve of bombing cities	65%	56%
Military objectives only	27	35
Disapprove	6	6
Undecided	2	2
