What we wouldn't give to be back in high school this week, having heard that said small fry have already started their spring vacation lasting till Easter. And here we are still sweating over algebra and history quiz sections with no break in sight. Sech is life!

What better way to start off a week than by congratulating all the new initiates to such famed and worthy frats as Sig Alpha, Phi Gam, Sig Ep, Sig Chi and Beta as well as the new members of Delta Gamma. . . . Emphatic is the denial of any connection, platonic or otherwise, between George Loomis, Beta, and Roberta Zulaaf of the Dorm. On the contrary, it seems that Jane Thomas, DG, is taking up most of George's time these days. . . . Another mistake was the steady twosome involving Joe Sonneland, Beta, and Sally Hamilton, Kappa, for Joe has returned to his tried and true friendship with Nancy Raymond, another DG. . . . What is this affinity that the Betas and Delta Gammas seem to have for each other? . . .

Jewels Appear.

Our daily report as to the appearances of pins and diamonds includes the new sparkler worn by Dorothy Ann Koenig, Kappa, just received from John Weingarten, Beta of last year. . . . Also news is the jeweled sword and shield which once belonged to Bob Cramer, Phi Delt, now shining along with Mary Lou Neil's Theta kite. . . . Faint from shock and delight, Ella Mae Oberlander needed all the assistance of her Gamma Phi sisters to get spruced up for her fiance from the U. S. coast guard who came in town unexpectedly last night. . . .

Several reliable sources volunteered the information that John Anderson, Beta, is still in Omaha, having yet to tear himself away from Nancy Loomis, home for spring vacation from Smith. . . . Advance notice is given of another army wedding, set for April 29, the bride-to-be being Mary Lee Adams of the Alpha Chi's and the groom Jack Scott, Sigma Nu, who will receive his wings in the air corps on that date. . . . No one knows how long it will last including the principals, but Janet Haggart, Pi Phi, and Don Steele, AGR, have decided to try it all over again. . . . Disheartening to her many admirers should be the news that Jane Emery, DG, is quite interested in one golf pro, whose name we think is Paul Wiley. . . . Theta pledges went to York in great number this weekend to visit cute Jeanie Buckley. We imagine York was almost overwhelmed. . . .

Just Tottering Around.

Glad to see that Bob Gillespie, well known Phi Delt, is back in his stride again though a bit pale and haggard after his two weeks of illness. . . . Their respective brothers and sisters are wondering why Bonnie Hinrichs, DG, and Jerry Tubbs, Delta Upsilon, haven't made it official. Or maybe they have and we don't know it. . . . Note the Delt pin back in the possession of Bud West after having so long belonged to Martha Harrison, DG. We would like to think it can be explained by the Delt initiation Monday afternoon, but evidence seems to point to more drastic reasons. . . . All their friends are approving the frequent dating of Mary Huffman, Pi Phi, and Adrian Foe of DU and piano-playing fame. . . . Many a girl is wondering who Alex "Romeo" Mills, Swig Alpha, plans to honor now that Jenny Noyes, DG, is out of circulation for awhile. . . .

And so we close with a reference to that puzzling Steve Davis, who didn't even go to the Beta initiation despite the fact that he was in Lincoln all day. Can it be that a touch of shame held him back? Ah well, see ya tomorrow.

Soft shoulders and dangerous curves. . . . Veronica Lake's got all she deserves. Which means Joel McCrea in SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS currently wovin' the kiddies at the STUART.—Adv.

Dr. Patterson Gives Lecture On Marriage

Dr. Charles Patterson will speak at the third lecture in the marriage series tomorrow at 5 p. m. in parlors X, Y and Z of the union. His subject will be "Religion in marriage."

The series has proved very popular with students and last week parlors X, Y and Z were almost completely filled. These parlors will be used thruout the rest of the series unless the crowd gets too large in which case it will be moved to larger rooms.

Dr. Patterson was speaker in last year's series and was so popular that students requested his return. After a half hour talk the floor will be opened to questions.

Next week's lecture will be given by Father Lisko on interfaith marriages. This will take up Catholic and Protestant marriages in particular.

Miss Ruth Leverton, Miss Margaret Liston and Miss Carolyn Ruby of the home economics department and Miss Rowan Elliff of the vocational education department appeared on the program of the Nebraska Home Economics association convention in Omaha March 27 and 28.

Foundation Sends Bulletin To High School Students

Latest activity of the Student Foundation group is to write and publish a pamphlet to be sent to 15,000 seniors graduating from high schools all over the state this spring.

Aim of the committee putting out the pamphlet, headed by Bob Schlater, is to make the writing and explanations as simple and personalized as possible.

Included in the pamphlet will be descriptions of living groups; co-ops, sororities, fraternities, dorms; working conditions of students; defense courses offered by the university; the social life and activities of campus life; explanation of the intra-mural program; and a letter from Burton Thiel.

A simplified explanation of all fees and possible expenses required in attending the university will also be included.

YW Speaking Choir Presents Easter Vespers

Newest of the YW groups, the speaking choir, lead by Margaret Forrey, will present the greater part of the program of today's Vesper service held at 5 p. m. in Ellen Smith. The choir has chosen the selection, "The Glory of the Garden."

Carrying out the theme of Easter, the program will also feature a vocal solo, "The Holy City," by Betty Jo Wagman, and a special arrangement of the well known negro spiritual, "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord," sung by the Vesper choir directed by Virginia Hastings, in charge of the general program is Betty Bonebright.

The student body of Cornell university includes one "genuine American"—an Iroquois Indian—and natives of 46 foreign countries.

Theater Holds Tryouts for Next Play Thursday

Tryouts for the next play, "Seven Sisters" by Edith Ellis will be held Thursday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 5 in room 153 of the Temple. Tryouts will be conducted on an interview basis. All students who are eligible and interested in trying out report to Mrs. Erin either Thursday or Friday.

Dr. Hezleton E. Simmons, president of the University of Akron, is the new president of the Association of Urban universities.

Clark Speaks At Student Council Forum

John D. Clark, dean of the college of Business Administration, will answer questions pertaining to yesterday's lecture on Russia at the second in the series of forums sponsored by the Student Council. The forum will be held in parlor X of the Union at 5 p. m.

The forums are held in connection with the war course. A number of interested students attended the first forum meeting held last Tuesday and the forums will be continued as long as students are interested.

Prof. Holck reads Paper at Meeting

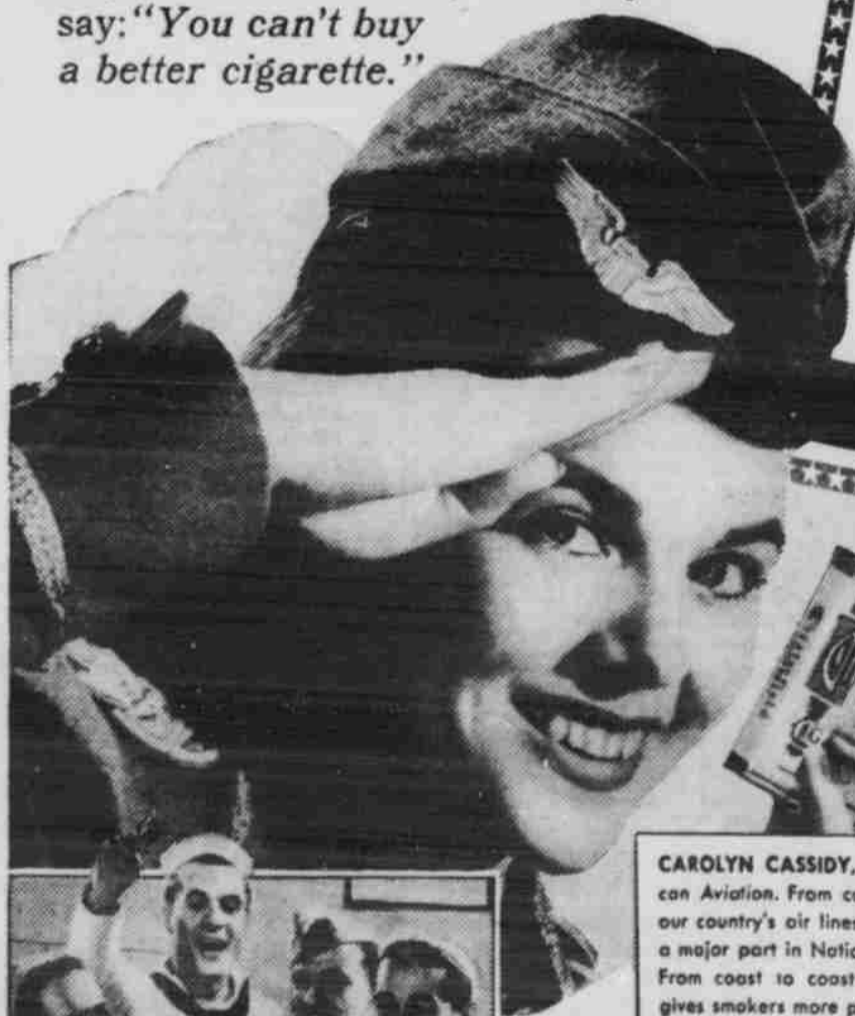

Prof. Harald G. Holck of the College of Pharmacy will read a paper before the pharmacology section of the 29th annual convention of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology meeting in Boston, March 31 to April 4.
