· AFTER the 30-16 scoring spree, constituting the spring football wind-up, there were not many that were not pleased with the showing. . . . Those that didn't go all the way in being pleased were extremely hopeful for next fall's team. . . . It gave the veterans a chance to show off and it gave the first year performers their chance to break into print.

· DALE BRADLEY and Wally Hopp, a frosh star, provided the scoring moments for the Army firsts. . . . Both contributed two touchdowns to the cause. . . . Vic Schleich also tallied six points. . He got a 25 yard field goal plus three out of four conversion attempts. . . . Allen Zikmund and Palmer Murphy got the points for the Navy on two long runs with Howard Debus and Roy Long adding the extra points to the total. . . . The Navy line converged on Hopp behind his own goal to collect two points via the safety route.

• "MOOSE" Bradley and Allen "Pat" Zikmund turned in the two outstanding performances of the day from the spectacular standpoint. . . . Bradley couldn't be down to amaze the fans, . . . On another occasion he was trapped well back of the line of scrimmage. . . . Someone had hold of his foot when someone in the vicinity said, "They've got him now. That's a position in which there's no other possibility." We just grinned for we'd seen him ALLEN ZIKMUND

. . At one time he was hemmed in by five enemy tacklers and still managed to get out of their grasp and went on for a touch-

Courtesy Journal, in action a lot of times before, ... As it was he gently but firmly removed the foot with a twisting motion and headed up the field for a 25 yard gain.

· BLOND At Zikmund turned in the longest run of the afternoon. . . . He turned his head just in time to glimpse Howard Debus' bullet pass coming his direction on his own 25. . . . He swerved a bit to his left and gathered it in. . . . By sheer speed and deceptive running tactics he extricated himself from the group of would-be tacklers, surrounding him when he caught the pass. . . . He went on down the field, outrunning Tut McKee, last Army defender who failed in a last chance diving tackle on the 5-yard line. . . . It was a gay reminder of the 1940 Rose Bowl contest.

· WITH these two setting the pace there were several other of the new bunch of gridders that turned in a showing. . . . Ki Eisenhart, 200 pound blasting fullback, overshadowed the others with his driving runs through the middle of the line. . . . His defense work was steady and hard to beat. . . . Wally Hopp turned in a creditable job from his Army fullback post. Palmer Murphy, Tut McKee, Harold Hungerford, Vic Peters and Bill Hewitt also caught our eye in the contest. . . . All of these are first year performers. . . . As for veterans, they turned in their usual steady games.

· CAP Timm, youthful Iowa State baseball coach, can't be the type of coach that the movies feature. . . . That is, the type who between innings walks up and down in front of his performers saying, "Now take it easy, Son, you'll settle down." No he just can't do that and have normal feelings. . . . Willard "Hawpaw" Mylenbusch, regular senior pitcher, is 28 years old. . . . One of his team mates, only a sophomore, is Lee Peterson. . . Peterson is right along with the coach at 29. . . . At least they can talk over grey hairs together.

Bowling.

Finals in bowling are scheduled for Wednesday, that is if everything goes well. The finals were previously scheduled for last Friday, but the Betas protested because two of the Phi Gam keglers rolled earlier in the afternoon. The scores of these two Phi Gams hovered close to the 200 mark, thus the Beta's suspicion was aroused.

The title will be decided by having the Betas, ZBT, Delts, and the Phi Gams bowl at the same time.
