

Pink Rag, Jr.
by Jean Baker

What with everyone looking forward to such a big weekend, poor little old middle of the week Wednesday is a bit unattractive and dull...

Dates and more dates, the Sig Eps will swing out at their spring formal, Friday, and Chi Os Dorothy Miller and Dorothy Tilton are attending with Barton Baker and Fritz Bean. Bob Henderson is taking Jane Robinson, DG, which is getting to be a pretty frequent combination, and Ted Anderson will be seen with Barbara Harrison...

Well... The Chi Os are demanding that you attend their houseparty according to their invitation and two ATOs glad to comply are Bob Buxton and Bob Olson who will be taking Marion Truhlsen and Dorothy Carnahan. Lois Drake will be with her constant escort lately, one Lyle King, Phi Delt prexy, and the same could be said for Darrell Ludi, Sig Alph, and Dorothy Black...

This all will get under way Saturday night while Friday means the Alpha Phieta where Jean Christie will reign as bartender. Old stand-bys Ed Calhoun, ATO, and Georgia Covey will be there as will Peggy Halstead with Jack Horner, something new we understand. Carolyn Heid and Pete Keast are also planning on a big time that night...

More Hell Week (?)... We don't exactly understand why and we imagine the pledges are wondering about it too, but Farm House is in the midst of another Hell Week... Thursday night will be Corncob initiation and at Penn Woods too, so the story goes... Pat Gilligan, Alpha Phi, ought to really have fun this weekend what with having

Ag Women's Group Honors Seniors at Tea

Home Economics Association gave its annual Senior tea yesterday afternoon in the social parlors of the home economics building, from 3:30 to 5:30. All home economics students expecting to graduate in June or in the following January were invited to attend; carnations were presented to each senior guest.

Chairmen in charge of the affair were Leah Jane Howell and Jean Stewart; subchairmen were Roxanna Brown, hostesses; and Carol Garver, food. Leah Jane Howell presided at the table for the first hour; Marion Hunt, for the second hour.

The luck to attend the Tri-Ad with Bob Jerner, Phi Delt, and then following it up with the FiJi-Tau tussle and Bill Munsen, ATO...

The Sigma Nus are having a formal Friday night also, although they don't seem to want it publicized too much. John Dean is importing one Jane Jordan from Omaha while Bill Stuhrt is taking Lou Ide, Pi Phi.

Then there's Paul Jones with his constant companion, Jean Saeger, Gamma Phi, as well as Les Sorrell and Dorothy Turner and Wally Engdahl with Phyd Hoffman, Kappa. Steve Dewey is of course taking pinmate Carmelita Gantz, but the rest of the boys don't seem to have bothered about it much as yet...

Innocents dined last night with the AGRs all except Burton Thiel who is still ill, as he was even before the election... Tomorrow is "Tussle Day" for all concerned and the Phi Gams and ATOs will collaborate on dishing out the details... See ya, tomorrow...

WAA Awards Scholarships To Six Women

Installation of the new WAA council and Sports Board and scholarship awards were presented at a mass meeting Tuesday night at Grant Memorial. Certificates for participation were also awarded.

Winning $25 scholarships for this semester were Betty Hitchinson, Jean Baker, and Dorothy Martin. Those presented with the scholarships for next semester are Merriam Mann, Ruthann Robertson, and Dorothy Alexander.

Participation certificates were presented to the following girls in order: Ruth Coordes, Gamma Phi Beta; Jeannette Mickey, Delta Delta Delta; Mary Ella McKee, Gamma Phi Beta, and Maryellen Robison, Gamma Phi Beta.

Following installation of the new council and sports board colored movies taken this year on WAA activities were shown. The Wellesley convention was also discussed.

Prospective stars are a dime a dozen in the Glamour-City, and unless a boy or girl is "exactly in the groove," he or she will not be signed for a contract, and then, if the actor is still in school, the contract usually contains the provision that he will be called after he finishes school.

In an impromptu talk with students after the trials, Mr. Balano described his discovery of Lana Turner. He found her behind a lingerie counter during the Christmas rush in Hollywood. (Mr. Balano was buying gifts for his wife.) After an interview with Lana, then Judy, and her mother, and a screen test, she was signed and given a break in movies. And just look at her now...

Counselors Hear Bengtson Speak On Registration

Procedure for freshman registration next fall was explained to the Coed Counselors last night by Dean Bengtson.

"I want to compliment the Coed Counselors," said Dean Bengtson, "for their splendid help the past two years as floor hostesses for incoming freshmen."

The general pattern of the floor system of the Coliseum was discussed and the importance of the Coed Counselors as receptionists and in making the freshmen feel as if they are among friends was stressed.
