

Pink Rag, Jr.

by Jean Baker

By John Bauermeister Guest Writer

Oh boy, from pledge to president in one easy year, that's the way Jeanie Baker did it. Maybe it's a new system the Pi Phis have in training their pledges, but we think it's mostly Jean. Anyway hats off, an orchid or two, and our congratulations to the official writer of this column for such an outstanding feat.

While we're still on this subject and feeling congenial congrats go to Sam Carroll and Ed Fayingtinger for the Sigma Chi boys just elected them president and McGiester, respectively... But back to the usual stuff, the Max Whittacker, Nancy Haycock affair is the first to hit the ribbon of this machine, for Max of the Delt house got his pin back and placed Nancy of the Pi Phi domicile on probation we hear... probation for what?... Lloyd London also of the Deltas liked the smooth dancing of smooth Jerry Buller, Alpha Chi, his partner out at Kings last weekend so well he busily lined up some future dates including the N club dance and is currently raving about said girl... What happens to the rest of the fleet Lloyd...

Just Dropped In

One army boy who got to come back to his affection was Milo Tassar, ex prexy of Farmhouse, who stopped in today to see Marion Hunt on his way to California and to the defense of our country... Wonder when Bill Rist, ATO will find himself a permanent seat in that English 12 and take himself off a lot of people's lists...

Playboy Tommy Miller of the ATOs is apparently once more in the Toni McQuistan league, a reminder of the little Journal interview way back when... Saturday night will see picnics on a really big scale with the DUs and Sig Alphas leading the parade of woods seekers... That same night will also bring another formal to the fore when the dormites of Carrie Belle will swing out with their annual spring whingding at the Cornhusker... A date to remember, also though far in the future, is May 16, when the N boys will present their own Queen of Queens at their party of all parties...

All Fixed Up

The slight tiff between Betty Krause, Pi Phi, and Jim Bell, Beta, is a thing of the past and the two pins are on their way to being chained again... We feel the plight of Dick Geesaman, DU of past Ann Seacrest fame, should be aired for it seems that a long eight weeks has passed without Richard honoring a single girl with his company. Surely the torch should be about burned down by this time... Speaking of record, Helen Johnson, DG, has broken a long standing one belonging to Jim Weesner, Sig Alpha; namely that of having no more than two dates with one girl. Nice going, Helen... Back to the DUs for just one more item as we say a belated farewell to Wally Munson, who went home the other day and is soon off to the army... and now just a word to the girl, whoever she may be, who loaned the Kosmet Klub cast a girdle. It is lost, but never fear; Max Laughlin, AGR, is planning on buying a new one...

Just one word, in closing, about birthday party of the student Union tonight, where the boys will dance with their dates to the rhythm of Lloyd Hunter, and spend more money at the concessions than they ever dreamed of... oh, well, see you in the Union.
