

Bradley, Athey Lead Reds To Victory

Eisenhart Runs, Thompson Passes In 27-21 Conquest

By Gene Sherman.

Coach Glenn Presnell sent his Husker proteges through a hotly contested scrimmage under an equally hot sun yesterday afternoon at Memorial Stadium practice field in preparation for the September 28th invasion of Iowa. After the Husker mentor's final whistle had blown, the Red clad eleven was holding on to a scant lead of 27-21.

The winners struck early when they tallied a touchdown on a 60-yard sustained drive. Dale Bradley and Marv Athey took turns in carrying the pigskin to the six-yard stripe where Bradley then took the ball over for a score. Vic Schleich then place-kicked the extra point.

A few minutes later the "A" team was again on the march, but their threat was stopped when Howard Debus fumbled on the five yard line. Harold Hungerford then punted out of danger to his 38 yard marker. On the first play Fred Matheny passed to Ki Eisenhart, who raced down the sidelines untouched for another marker. Schleich again converted to make the score read 14-0.

Buckley Scores.

The green shirts then found pay dirt for the first time when Newman Buckley intercepted one of Roy Long's passes and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown. The score was then boosted to 14-7 on Ed Murphy's conversion.

A rejuvenated Red shirted team then took over the ball on the midfield stripe and immediately went over for their third score of the afternoon. "Tut" McKee carried the ball from the 45 yard line to the 22 yard marker to put the ball in scoring position.

from the one-yard line to climax a sustained drive of 50 yards.

Thompson Passes.

Dick Thompson, the smallest man on the squad, was then inserted as the tail-back for the green shirts. Thompson then filled the air with passes to bring the seconds into "A" team territory. Thompson then completed a heave to Henry Reichel, who took the ball on the "A" 35 yard line and evaded many red shirts for a touchdown. Bob McNutt, who had previously seen action with the Red shirts, place kicked the 14th point.

With playing time running out, the losers were successful in scoring again when Randall Salisbury plunged over from the one. Bob McNutt again gave the indication that he can be counted on for points after touchdown when he made good his second conversion in a row.

Allen Zikmund did not see action due to an injured rib, but the showing of Marv Athey, who started in Zikmund's position, was very encouraging. The work of Ki Eisenhart and Wally Hopp also brought smiles of satisfaction to the few spectators who witnessed the scrimmage.

The toad which was a mascot for the Las Vegas gunnery school has had its name changed from "Machine Gun Pete" to "Petricia." A mistake was made. Every student is entitled to read the Daily Nebraskan.

Fashion Decrees . . .

Every Well-dressed Frosh Must Wear Cap or Beanie

. . . It's Tradition!

Fashion decrees that every well-dressed freshman man and coed on the campus wear the scarlet and cream cap with the numerals '46. Of long standing tradition is the custom that every frosh lad be adorned with this first-year insignia, but coeds of the class of '46 will be the first group to be generally outfitted with the "beanie" bonnet.

Official freshmen caps will be sold at the coliseum during registration Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday by Mortar Board attired in their black caps and gowns and by Innocents in their scarlet capes.

Await First Snow.

Bob Schlater, Innocent in charge of the cap sale, reports that as usual freshmen will wear the caps every day until the annual freshman-sophomore tug-of-war held at one of the home football games or until the first snowfall if the frosh do not win their contest with the yearlings.

Mortar Board Marge Bruning, head of the distribution of the "beanies" for freshmen girls says that the caps will look fine with any coiffure and are just the thing for the new defense hair-does now in vogue.

Caps sell for fifty cents and upon payment to either a Mortar Board or an Innocent freshmen will be given cards which are to be taken to Ben Simon & Sons store where they will be exchanged for the insignias.

Mortar Boards Meet.

Freshmen girls were to wear their class caps last year but these arrived so late that only a few were sold. Mortar Boards will meet soon to determine some date or event to terminate the wearing of the "beanies".

So freshmen girls, you may have the typical sweater and skirt with saddle shoes and fellows you may have a new jute, pardon, zoot suit but you can't look like a typical collegiate unless your costume is completed with the scarlet and cream.

During the first four months of 1940, the province of Quebec, Canada, produced 387,542 fine ounces of silver.

Fitzroy Davis has written what critics call a "quasi-novel." Quick-silver.

Senior Women May Compete In Big Contest

Nebraska's fashion-minded senior women are offered a chance to become one of Vogue's "discoveries of 1943" in the annual prize-de-Paris nationwide fashion contest sponsored by the famous women's magazine.

Requirements for the contest open to senior women only are the filling out of an entrance blank sent by Vogue in answer to a letter of application which must be sent in not later than November 30. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to Vogue to enter the contest.

Contest Has Two Parts.

The contest will consist of two parts: First, a series of four quizzes based on various current issues of Vogue; and second, an article which only those entrants who pass the four quizzes are eligible to submit. Subjects for the articles are to be announced in the April 1 edition of the magazine. They must not exceed 1,500 words and must be mailed not later than April 30.

Papers will be graded on clear and vivid writing, originality of ideas, fashion knowledge derived from a study of Vogue, and general information.

Winner Gets Job.

To the grand prize winner will go a year's job on the editorial staff of Vogue with the possibility of a permanent position on the staff if the winner shows an aptitude to Vogue's editorial needs. Second prize is a $500 war bond. Cash prizes will also be awarded to the five best articles submitted during the contest, which will be published in Vogue. The contest last year was won by Nancy Flagg, senior at Smith College for Women.

Further details of the contest may be obtained by reading the bulletin in the Union lobby, or by writing the magazine directly.

Gabriel Terra, president of Uruguay from 1931 to 1938, died recently.

Husker Snapper-Backs Snapped

Freddie Meier and Howard Kelly, who backed the Cornhusker pivot corps last fall, are not available so Mentor Presnell plumbed his squad and came up with four potent replacements. Champing the bit here are Forrie Bachman, Joe Partington, Amos Hatfield, and Wayne Stranathan.

—Courtesy Sunday Journal and Star.

Helen Sagl Becomes Officer in WACC's

Miss Helen Sagl, graduate of the University of Nebraska was the first woman from Lincoln to become an officer of the WACC's. Miss Sagl received both her BS degree in education and an MA degree here.

Her initial application was filed early in June and she was inducted into the unit a short time later. Officers' training school began July 20 for her group.

Daily Nebraskan want ads bring results.

BEN SIMON & SONS

Classic Shetland Suit 19.95

New horizons ahead at Nebraska University!

YOU-tomorrow's men and women of the world—
have something new added to your life, this year of 1942 . . . your comfortable fun-life has been impressed by a new presence . . . it's called TheWorld . . .

- you'll see straighter thinking
- you'll see harder working
- you'll see fewer convertibles
- you'll see no formals
- you'll be duration-minded

. . . but you'll still have fun

for this new Husker girl and boy—

Simon's are giving you purposeful, practical, gay young-idea clothes that are enduring in quality and style . . . they're campus-wise clothes selected by Simon's 28 smart campus-going collegians . . . see Simon's campus representatives 'round and about the campus . . . meet them 'round and about Simons!

Men's Sport Jackets 13.50 up

Cavalry Twill Slacks 8.50