Bob McNutt

Who came back from St. Lucas island, where he was working last year to give the Nebraska coeds a break, says that he has plenty of time and lots of money and is looking for a girl to spend it on. All applicants call the Sigma Chi house. This offer is for a limited time only and is subject at any time. Gals, get to that phone!

Duke Schatz, Bob Cline, and Don Anawalt, Sigma Nus, are already making plans to return to Sua Valley come Christmas vacation because of interests they acquired while vacationing there this summer. Duke is playing the field again since he has his pin after being in Pi Phi Joan Emmerson's possession for a while. Don manages to stay in a quandry over his two Kappa affairs. He just can't make up his mind. While speaking of the Sig Nus, the fellows from that shack are going to the Turnpike Saturday night enmasse, to show their 44 new pledges some Lincoln night life.

Pi Phi

"Marge" Koupal left Wednesday for Cheyenne to see Hugh McKenna who is a second lieutenant in the army at Fort Warren. They are making plans for wedding bells soon. While part of the Pi Phi house is making wedding plans another part is on the splitup list! Pat Caley who has been wearing Don Shaneyfelt's DU pin since last year returned it Tuesday night and called the whole deal off. That should be an interesting hour dance the Pi Phis have with the DUs Saturday night with all the broken romances between these two houses.

Rumors

Are around the Sig Alph residence that Louis "Girl-slayer" Seybold has a blind date Friday night with a little lass from California. Still around 635 North 16th, Ray Beechley and Dick Nash will be Turnpike bound this week end with Sally Sears, the little Alpha Phi pledge from New York and Alpha Chi Betty Mahan. Sig Alph pledge Bud Brown from the west coast thinks Tri Delt pledge Betty Dicks is just about the right stuff, and spends much of his time keeping the telephone wires hot between their two houses.

Doing The Town

This week end will be Pi Phi pledge Marilyn Simpson with Delt Bud Bartle, Peg Miles Theta pledge and DU Dave Andrews who will be double dating with Jean Moyer Pi Phi and Chick Schmitt who is leaving for the army soon. Dorm bigwigs Maxine Lynn and Laura Lee Mundil will be around with Herb Hopkins and Frank O'Connell, and Mary Sinclair Alpha Phi pledge with DU flash Tom Drummond.

Sig Eps

Harold Largen and Bob Henderson will be Turnpike bound too with Carene Woodworth Tri Delt and Alpha Phi Helen Hickman Saturday. Elden Snodgrass new pledge of that hut is giving active Ray Miller stiff competition with Jean Lingenfelter AOPi. The brothers are placing bets on the outcome.

Phi Gams

Are very happy on pledging Jim Meyers of York Wednesday. Jim, who was voted best football player in the state last year, had an offer to go to Notre Dame and play but he prefers dear old UN. Also Phi Gam Chet Ferguson has a big week end ahead of him with dates with Thetas Becky Wait and Jean York and Kappa Dorothy Jean Brown.

It's People Like

DG Betty Simodynes and Beta Don Stewart who keep the campus guessing and the brothers and sisters tearing their hair wishing they would make up their minds. Now they seem to have everything smoothed over again and plan to be together Saturday night, but anything can happen before then. Puzzled too is Catherine Sloan who really should get a date book so she could keep her dates

NIA Council to Sponsor Matinee Football Dances in Union; Kickoff on October 3

Matinee football dances starting Oct. 3 will begin barb activities sponsored by the NIA—Nebraska Independent Association—this fall.

Successfully held after every home game in the past two or three years, these dances are given with a duo purpose: to furnish entertainment for students, both affiliated and barb, and to raise money with which to carry on the barb social program this year.

The NIA Council heads the activity program of the unaffiliated students on the campus. Organized last spring to further political and social interests of both men and women not belonging to greek letter groups, the NIA takes the place of most of the former barb organizations functioning in past years. Three other groups are beginning their work this fall, however.

Barb Interhouse Council is composed of representatives from the women's co-operative houses and dormitories on the campus and sponsors parties and get-acquainted gatherings as well as discussing the problems of campus life.

Functioning smoothly for four years, Towne Club was organized for Lincoln coeds at the university, and since its beginning this group has increased both in size and influence in barb affairs.

The newest campus organization, the Inter-Co-op Council, got off to an auspicious start last spring when it held a semi-formal dance in the Union on April 17. Composed of the four men's co-operative houses at UN, Baldwin Hall, Ag College Boarding Club, Pioneer Co-op, and the Cornhusker Co-op, this group has as its purpose the promotion of co-operative activities and closer association between existing organizations. Emphasis will be placed on co-operative buying, education and social activities.

A new men's co-op, organized last spring and starting this fall with a full membership will probably join the Co-op Council. Approximately 150 men belong to the other four.

Dorm Phones Will Not Ring Late at Night

Sorry, fellows, but you can't call your girls at the dorm before breakfast nor in the wee, wee hours after a hard night of study.

Telephone service begins at the residence halls at 8 a. m. and closes at 10:30 Sunday thru Thursday with the exchange open until 12:30 on Friday and Saturday. Many students have been calling the dorms after hours, according to Margery Johnson, head resident of Raymond Hall.

You can't even use a ruse to get a girl to the phone after the exchange closes; for only in cases of extreme emergency can a girl be contacted and then one of the head residents conveys the message to the girl.

If you feel you have to contact your flame in the middle of the night your best bet is to start a student carrier-pigeon service.

Visiting

Sister Alpha Phis has been Joan Sheldon who was married recently to Bill Connor former track star. Bill is now in the army located at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Newcomers Moved Up on Iowa Team

IOWA CITY, Sept. 21.—New faces were seen on the Iowa university lineup yesterday as Dr. Eddie Anderson sent his charges through the first intensive drill of the week in preparation for their Saturday encounter with the untried Nebraska Cornhuskers.

The outstanding performances of sophomore backs Chuck Uknes and Duke Curran in last Saturday's opener was enough to warrant their promotion to the starting lineup. Uknes, the "Blond Bomber" from Sioux City led all the backs in last week's game with an average of a little more than 6 yards per try.

In order to bolster the injury riddled center position, which was left wide open when veteran Bob Lauterbach suffered a knee injury, Anderson has moved sophomore Bob Weber to the starting pivot position and shifted Henry Blum from guard position to understudy Weber.

The Hawks spent most of the first practice session in an intensive signal and blocking drill.

Coeds Register Monday, Tuesday for Lincolnettes

All university women who are interested in becoming Lincolnettes are asked to register Monday or Tuesday, Sept. 28 or 29, between the hours of 2 to 5 p. m. at the office of the dean of women, Mrs. Verna Boyles.
