Huskers Humbled, 27-0 The Daily

Vol. 42 No. 6

Drums & Bells

Sunday, September 27, 1942

Band To Introduce Two New · UN Songs at First Home Game

MARCH OF THE CORNHUSKERS

March of the Cornhuskers . . . Rally Huskers, glory waits for you; Rally Huskers, show what you can do. Fight! forever, Oh! you team, For the scarlet and the cream. Rally Huskers, Rally one and all. Fight on, Huskers, Hear Nebraska call. Listen to the battle cry of Nebraska U. N. I.

When Iowa State's footballers | a product of the ingenuity of Wilstadium for Nebraska's first home game next Saturday, the Cyclones will have to face-not only the Husker football team-but two new rootin,' tootin,' rip-snortin' Husker songs.

At least Don Lentz, director of land." the university band, has asked the Daily to print them in the hope land—Nebraskaland N. U. that come game time next Saturday, students will have learned the words.

"Huskerland" was written by Harry Minor, a UN alum of 1909, and Nat Vincent, professional song writer, with the musical collaboration of Mr. Helmy.

"March of the Cornhuskers" is put in an appearance at Memorial liam T. Quick, who directed the Nebraska band from 1917 until 1936, and M. H. Ribble.

> Above are music and words for "March of the Cornhuskers;" below are the words for "Husker-

Fight! Fight! Fight! and make a stand Bring Huskerland right through. Hold that charging foe, with a Westward Ho. Rush 'em, crush 'em, Husk around, Cornhuskers, Go! Fight! Fight! for Husker-

Nebraska-land N. U.

Art Exhibit Opens Today in Morrill

Faculty Displays Work Candidates accepted are ordered to active duty. They are given the necessary training to qualify them

the members of the art faculty, Cecil Bell's sketches "New York the first art exhibition of the year Between Wars" will be exhibited opens today in Morrill. The ex- for two days, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1. hibit will be on display until Oct.

A tentative art exhibition schedule for the remainder of the year tion's 53rd annual exhibition will has been announced by the art be up from March 4 to April 4. department as follows:

From October 15 to 29 work done by soldier artists will be on exhibition. The Lincoln Artists club will sponsor the All-Nebraska artists' show between Nov. 1 and Work by the art faculties of the Universities of New Mexico and Oklahoma will be shown from Nov. 29 to Dec. 12, followed by the annual Lincoln Camera Club exhibition, Dec. 13 to Jan. 4.

Bell's Sketches Shown.

"The Good Old Days"-paintings and prints of the 19th and early 20th centuries—will be

Tassels To Hold First Meeting Monday at 5

All Tassel members are requested to attend the first meet- Union. ing of the year to be held at the meeting at which time plans for the coming year will be discussed. One of the many topics to be dis-cussed will be the home coming plans.

Featuring the recent work of showing from Jan. 8 until the 25th.

The national acholastic exhibition by high school; will be shown from Feb. 12 to March 1 inclusive, and the Nebraska Art associa-

Lettering and book design will be shown from April 11 to 25 and an exhibition of the art of the Allied Nations from April 27 to May 11. The annual exhibition of

See MORRILL, Page 8

Terrible Tom

TOM FARMER ... his passes spelled defeat for Huskers.

ing, sorority and fraternity houses,

first game of the season as the tire shortage, the proximity of gas rationing and the overcrowded

public transportation facilities kept all but a handful of Nebraska students from making the trip to

In former years a number of ball spirit.

War Causes Nebraska Students

To Follow Home Team by Radio

Huddled around radios in the students made trips to each of Union, in dormitories and in board- the Husker games, but this war

Against Two UN Threats BY NORRIS ANDERSON. Sports Editor.

> (By Special Leased Wire.) IOWA CITY. Even the dull chill of this cloudy afternoon failed to cool the accurate right arm of Tom Farmer, flipping Iowa halfback, here today. Farmer unleased the heaviest aerial barrage thrown a Husker team in a decade and when the raid ceased, the Scarlet and Cream floundered in the throes of a

Abetted by a rubber-legged sophomore back, Gene Curran,

Farmer Paces Hawk Attack

ALLEN ZIKMUND

year finds Joe College and Betty

Here and there as there was a lull in the broadcast of play students took up conversations about the war and the armed services as the cloud of war cast a shadow

over the traditional college foot-

Nebraska Deans

Of Women Hear

Dr. J. O. Hertzler

of Dean of Women and Advisors

of Girls meeting yesterday at Ellen ler, chairman of the sociology de-

Convention" was delivered by Miss women, at meeting in the after-

Following this program there was general discussion and a social hour with Mrs. Verna H. Boyles, dean of women, in charge.

-Courtesy Lincoln Journal.

and an adhesive-fingered wing man, Bill Durkett, Farmer tossed three touchdown strikes and set the pins for the fourth marker,

Opening Hawkeye touchdown came 3 minutes and 25 seconds before the close of the half. From the Husker 37, Farmer spun a bullet pass to Curren who nestled the ball, sped thru three Scarlet secondary men and raced across standing up. Jim Youel rushed into hold the leather tor Farmer's perfect placement. 7-0 at Half.

An exchange of punts midway in the third quarter gave Iowa possession on the Husker 41 yard line. Slippery as a two-bit steak, Curren slithered his way 13 yards for a first down. Then fullback Uknes blasted his way over the university students eagerly followed the Cornhuskers in their Coed following the team via the Husker right guard for four more Curren slid away for 10 yards to the 18-yard stripe and the stage was set for Farmer to toss 15 yards to the rampaging Curren on the 3-yard stripe. One brief brush thru tackle by Curren was enough for the second Hawk

Big Vic Schleich, a constant power at left tackle, stopped Farmer's conversion with his chest. Score was 13-0 and Husker fans hopefully started to remin-isce. The 1941 Scarlet and Cream eleven had overcome a 13-0 Hawkeye lead in Lincoln to squeeze thru But it with a 14-13 decision. wasn't in the cards Saturday. The Nebraska State association

65 Yard Touchdown.

A brief Husker offensive fulrry Smith heard. Dr. Joyce O. Hertzwas ended with Parker intercepting a debut flip on the Hawkeye partment at the University of Ne- 19-yard stripe preceeded the most braska, spoke on "The Clash of sensational play of the day. Occident and Orient in the Pa- Hawks 19-yard stripe preceded the most sensational play of the day. The Hawks offense progressed to "A Message from the National the 35 yard stripe then Mr. Farmer took over. Elsie Ford Piper, assitant dean of Farmer took the center pass, looked for a receiver, then spotted end Bill Burkett who had slipped behind the Husker secondary. A quick cock of the wrist, a firm spiral over 25 yards of green sward, and the pigskin landed squarely in Burkett's mitts.

His momentum carried him five more steps, over the double stripes See HUSKERS, Page 4

Ag College Staff Writers'

A staff of writers for an ag

War Service Fields Open To Engineers

Students enrolled in engineering have a big field ahead of them in connection with the war.

Graduate electrical engineers and electronic physicists may apply for original appointment in the army of the United States and assignment to the electronics training group of the signal corps. for future assignments in the aircraft warning service in connection with electronic aircraft detection equipment.

Three to Six Month.

The total training period varies from three to six months according to the level of officers needed to fill immediate vacancies.

Juniors and seniors with major study in the field of electronic engineering or electronic physics may participate in the enlisted reserve corps with assignment to the electronics training group. Applications are to be indorsed by the head of the electrical engineerthe department's student work will ing or physics department and See ENGINEERS, Page 8

Positions Open on Daily

page in the Daily Nebraskan will be selected within the next few days. All ag students interested in writing for this page should leave their name in the finance office in ag hall or contact Dale Wolf, ag editor of the Daily Nebraskan by Tuesday.

Nebraska Pep Group . . .

Corncobs Invite Sophomore Men Students To Attend Annual Smoker Tuesday at 7:30

Ambitious sophomores are invited to attend the annual Corn Cob smoker at 7:30, Tuesday evening, in parlor X at the Student Union, Monday at 5 o'clock.

The president, Jean Christie Farmer, will have charge of the UN pep organization. The infor-UN pep organization. The informal gathering is open to greeks and barbs alike.

Franklin White, president of the organization, will explain the du-

Cheerleaders Tryout on Tuesday Afternoon

Cheerleader aspirants will have a chance to show their stuff Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5. A committee composed of Innocents will select the yell leaders from their workout. All candidates should meet at The Daily Nebraskan office. Only upperclassmen are considered for positions.

. . . In Union Parlor X ties and purpose of the Corn Cobs. The new workers will be introduced to the actives. Colonel Frankforter, faculty adviser, will give a short talk. The entire meeting will be an informal gathering for the sole purpose of getting acquainted. Corn Cobs and their sister club, Tassels, are the chief organized boosters of school spirit at UN, and aid the universily in numerous wher capacities.

YM Mixer Friday Over 800 students attended the 800 Attend YW,

big Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. mixer last Friday evening in the Union ballroom. Enthusiastic men and women became thoroly entangled in the three quarters of an hour of square dancing that sarted the

Following the square dancing Jean Christie Farmer, Mortar Board, introduced Mary Lockett, Y.W. secretary; Gene Floyd, new Y.M. secretary, and Helen Kelley, Y.W. president.

Students Must Check Employment Records

All students who are looking for work thru the Student Employment Bureau should check their records in room B8 Administration, according to J. D. Epp, director of student employment. The bureau must have in their files the address, phone number, and class schedule of every male student registered for employment.