Wedding Bells

will ring for Alpha Phi Marion Patton and ATO Harold Larmen. Marion is going to Washington with Harold's parents where she and Harold will take the final vows Oct. 10.

Hayracks

are on the schedule for several Belas and their dates this Saturday night. Among the needles in the straw will be John Safford and Theta Marge Kenner, Chi O Ruth Brickell and "Bernie" Smeethers, Ken Peters and Peggy Miles, also of the KAT hut. Five Beta pledges have set out on a little project, that is trying to get a date with DG pledge Anne Crosby. Even the actives sigh when her name is mentioned, but the pledges have been beating a path to the Delta Gamma door. Anyway, may the best man win. Back to the hayrack ride, a couple that has really been seen around together a lot lately and will take in that little party is Dorothy Theissen, Theta, and John McCarthy. The brothers predict a pin hanging soon.

Confused

are the AOPis over Sister Mary Allen and Delt Lloyd London. They started dating last year and the letters really flew thick and fast during the summer. This fall they decided to get together again and last Saturday was on their list. They decided to make this next one a week end. Everyone is beginning to wonder if this won't soon be a steady deal, but Mary keeps the whole thing in the dark, and the sisters unhappy.

Dorothy Latsch

AOPi and Lt. Bob Norton, ATO, are being married tonight here in Lincoln. After the ceremony they will be off to Camp Shelby, Miss., where Bob is stationed. Also yesterday AOPi Jean Sundell and Alpha Sig Dale Kinsman were married in Omaha. Dale just received his wings in the army air corps last Saturday. They are planning to make their home in Texas.

Alpha Chi

"Aggie" Fox, who is only about five feet tall, was keeping her eyes on the stars the other night. George Hamberg, a Sig Alph at Boulder, from "Aggie's" home town, stopped by to see her on his way to the Great Lakes Naval training station. George is six feet three—but definitely, tall and handsome.

Patriotic Decorations

and a six piece band will be the feature of the DU's Victory open house party Saturday night. Dancing and eating will be Bud Wehrman with Alpha Chi Mary Lou Holtz, Frank Meroney with Kappa pledge Dolly Clinton, newly elected DU President Dick Geesaman will be there with Theta Anne Seacrest, and Rog Anderson will take it all in with Theta Toni McQuistain.

The Innocents

will be lunching together Saturday noon before the game in the main dining room of the Union. The Mortar Boards will be at the Cornhusker. Take a good look, because they will wear, for the first time, their new black blazers trimmed in gold with the Mortar Board emblem. Their outfits are completed with black tailored skirts and white blouses. The gals of the senior honorary will be seen around the campus this winter in these official costumes.

SAE

Bill Hawkins was afraid to enter the doors of a sorority house last year so several of the brothers just picked him up and deposited him in the living room of the Kappa house. This year Bill con-

Campus Casanovas to Vie In 'Paper' Wooing Contest

. . . On Park Benches

Gentlemen do you fancy yourselves artists at pitching woo? How many seconds does it take you to get a pick-up and how is your approach? Well Casanovas, just how do you make with the mugging?

To discover the smoothest Romeo in the university the Stuart theater is sponsoring a contest for the best essay on romantic approach. In connection with the Mickey Rooney movie, "A Yank at Eton," which begins Saturday. Just as specialization has become prevalent in every other field, this continues to avoid all domiciles of the fairer sex and the brothers are threatening. Speaking of the SAE fellows, "Chip" Davies and "Gonzy" Dolezal are planning for a great time Saturday night with new DG pledges Pat Miller and Joann Shaw.

Alpha Phi

pledge Susan Lynch is going to miss the football game this week end to go home to Omaha to see a fellow she left behind before he leaves for the army. Sisters wonder who could be so important, and think it must be the real thing. Polly Petty, brunette beauty, plans to take in Ted Lewis at the Turnpike Sunday with Basketball Star Max Young.

contest requires an expert method of execution in one particular endeavor. All essays must be on "My Park Bench Technique" as Mickey Rooney demonstrates his version of love on a park bench in his new picture.

Entries in the contest must not be longer than 100 words and must be submitted at the Daily office by 5 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 6. Authors of the ten best essays will receive two free tickets to "A Yank at Eton."

Judges in the contest will be Arlie Crites, manager of the Stuart; and Betty Dixon, assistant business manager of the Daily. Winner of the contest will be announced in the Daily on Wednesday, Oct. 7.
