Muck Ado About the Campus

read this and you'll even hear the gore in the girl's skirt. Big shindigs on the campus this weekend with the Corn Cob-Tassel Homecoming dance where the new pep queen will be selected, all the old grads back for homecoming and the Indiana game and—oh, my back, that scrap is heavy isn't it? Gather the brethren and sistern around and old man Mose will preach the sermon on what the good folk of the congregation have been up to. But first let us sing that old hymn, "She was only a conductor's daughter, but she gave me a wide berth."

"Dorch" Douglas, Kappa transfer from William and Mary college, will be dancing in the coliseum Saturday night with Sig Alph Bob Fast. The other night when they were together "Dorch" told him what she snail told the he snail, "You're a nice guy but a little too Fast for me."

And So They Were Married

and the loveliest gift they received was a set of King Richard sterling shown exclusively in Lincoln at Gardner's, 1220 "O." Sterling itself is lovely and the King Richard pattern is one of the loveliest of all with its rich, swirling scrolled design, well proportioned, lending an aura of old-world charm with its stately air, a carry-over from the English renaissance. Why not begin buying pieces for your set now?

Your Best Foot Forward and both pedal exrtemities will attract pleasing compliments when you buy your footwear at Ben Simon & Sons' shoe department. Pictured is Betty Krause, Pi Phi, who is a member of Simon's shoe department. The shoes she is wearing are Hurdy Gurdy Connie Sandals. The latest thing for all around wear, the sandals have platform soles and are in the new cinnamon color to be worn with brown or black or any other color.

Kappa Alpha Theta Helen Goodwin is raving about a new pair of black spectators from Simon's. "Dinny" Ford, Kappa, wears a new pair of campus-right saddle shoes from Simon's, as she hurries about in the midst of college activities.

Large selections of spectators, casuals, sport shoes and many other styles of dressy shoes are available in the complete and fashion-right shoe department at Simon's.

Hey Run, Don't Walk

to the nearest Tassel or Corn Cob and buy your ticket for the first big campus party of the year, the annual Homecoming party. It's this Saturday night in the coliseum with music by Johnny Cox and his band. Tickets are only 75 cents a couple if you buy beforehand from a pep club member, but are 90 cents a couple at the door. Who do you think will be pep queen?

Eternal Triangle Picks Up A Fourth,

but not for bridge. DU Frank Merony dated Jan Babeock, Gamma Phi, all last year and still kept in good with the home town girl. This year he juggled dates as home town girl, Dolly Clinton, is now a Kappa pledge on the campus. The hoax was off and ears were red last weekend as Jan walked into the DU houseparty with Bill Larson, ATO, to greet Frank and Dolly.

Hey Quick, Get Your Pic

or in other words it's time to have your Cornhusker photographs taken. Drop into the modern, well equipped studio on the fourth floor of Miller and Paine's and cooperate with the yearbook staff by getting your photo taken early and avoiding any rush on the deadline date. If you have a dozen extra prints made you'll have enough to give to each one of your "steady deals" during the year. Seriously, though, Miller's offers fine portraits with a choice of several poses at reasonable prices.

Representing You and I are twenty-six university students working at Ben Simon and Sons. A cross-section of the campus, the college staff at Simon's is trained to give pleasant, efficient service and especial attention to the needs, styles and fashions for university students. Lovely Peggy Lemon, the sweet Theta with the sour name, is a Simon's clerk as are DG Pat Cole, who is pinned to Kappa Sig Union director, Bob Sinkey, and Pat Catlin, Kappa, who writes fashions for the Daily.

Barbara Schlater, Theta pledge who is a Simon salesgirl, will be at the coliseum come Saturday p. m. with Beta Hugh Atkinson although Bill Gist, formerly of Wentworth, has been occupying much of her dating time recently.

Joyce Jerdon, Delta Gamma, who works at Simon's, is being called "Eileen Bomb" by the DG's these days to the wonderment of everyone else. Other coeds on Simon's staff are Martha Whitehead, Katherine Smith, and Mary Bird.

In the men's clothing and furnishing department is Bud Nelson, Kappa Sig pledge who is dating Carol Robinson, the same girl who was pinned to another KS boy last year. Ted Greene is a six feet and more smooth-dressing York lad in the men's clothing department and Dave Webb of Simon's is an ATO pledge from North Platte. Phi Gam Bud Johnson, who dates Theta Lois Wright, is another Simon employee.

Other salesmen at Simon's are Kevvee Kishenbaum, Duane Munter, Louis Worden, Lovelle Unger, John Edgecombe, Lee Farmer, Jerry Albenhouse, John Jones, Don Steen, Clarion Buehe and Alvin Margolin.

There Ain't No Difference between a bird fancier and a college student since a bird fancier loves his pets, too. Revivals of old combinations are prevalent as Betty Moore, Alpha Chi, and Phi Gam "Squash" Campbell revive that old flame of freshman years; and Pi Phi Hellen Kelly, who wore and returned Kappa Sig Harold Hopkins' diamond, is dating him again. SAE Bob Goss has a date Friday night with XO pledge Lois Metcalf but he is very perturbed because he can't have more of her time. "New love in my life," declares Phi Delt Hank Green, is Betty Schulz, the broadcasting Chi Omega.

Lovely Girl With the Hat

is Mary Louise Campbell, Kappa, who'll be at the Homecoming party with Sig Nu Jack Young. The chapeau "Sweets" is wearing is one of Ben Simon & Sons' featured campus hats, a beret. Other calots, pill box numbers, and Johnny Jeep styles are among the hats for campus wear featured at Simon's priced from $1.25 to $2.49. Simon's millinery department also has a wide selection in the latest styles of hats for town, casual, sports and date wear.

"Call the Fire Department"

cried DG pledges Kappy Kellogg and Janet Crouse as they were accidentally locked in their room Tuesday night. But the Delta Gamma's who had had their "wheaties" broke the lock before the hook and ladder men arrived. My solicitations to the expectant flame eaters. Two Kappa dates this weekend are Phi Gam Duane Born and Gould Flagg of the Tau house who will be seen with Jean Guenzel and Marshia Craft respectively.

Lovely Coeds Model

at the dance and style show to be given at the Cornhusker hotel ballroom by Lincoln Unit No. 3, National and State Hairdressers Association Saturday night, Oct. 24 at 9 p. m. Dave Haun and his orchestra will play and more than one hundred beautiful girls will model, among them such campus queens as Myra Colberg, KKG. Each girl modeling will be accompanied by a soldier. The association hairdressers are sponsoring a contest with one free ticket or a shampoo and fingerwave for every sorority girl who sells ten tickets to the dance. Tickets are 55c cents each. For information concerning the contest or tickets, drop in at any beauty salon.

Well, I'm Off

to do literary work, that is; I'm going to give coed authors experience for confession stories. Before I go you should know that Jean Marsden, Alpha Chi who has been dating Phi Gam Larry Cook, will be dancing at homecoming with another Phi Gam, Warren Killian. Since this is the puppy of the Pink rag you readers are entitled to know that the reason the dogs in Siberia can run faster than any others in the world is that the trees are a lot farther apart.

For That Friday Nite Date

squire the lovely one to the first big Union party of the year. You'll be dancing on Lincoln's smoothest ballroom floor to the sparkling rhythm of Henry Mattison and his orchestra. During intermission drop into the grill for coking in the heart of the campus. Don't forget it, the first weekly Union dance this Friday night, Oct. 9, from 9 until 12 in the Student Union ballroom, and admission is only 25 cents per person.
