Ag Men Apply for Block, Bridle Club Membership

Application blanks for membership in Block and Bridle, animal husbandry departmental club, are now available at the animal husbandry office in A. H. H. These blanks should be filled out and returned to the office not later than 5 p. m., Oct. 19.

Any student who has completed two semesters in ag college or has taken related subjects though registered in a different college may make application for membership. The academic requirements are that he have no grades of I, C, or F not removed and that an average grade of 75 or better has been attained exclusive of military science and physical education.

The club wants all sophomores, juniors and seniors interested in Animal Husbandry to make application for membership. The club sponsors the annual junior Ak-sar-ben Ball and show, Honors Banquet, and Feeders Day.

Annual initiation was formerly held in the late winter but has been changed to the beginning of the first semester in order to give new members a chance to become better acquainted.

but the money was somehow railroaded into other purposes impossible to ascertain.

Nominate Candidates.

Enthusiasm ran high at the meetings as nominations were made for the offices to be elected this fall. Candidates will be voted on next Wednesday night at the regular Assembly meeting, it was revealed, and any unaffiliated student eligible for an office may file in the barb office of the Union before then. So far candidates are:

Senior Class President: Roy Byrom, Dave Marvin.

Junior Class President: Stan Lowe, Frank O'Connell, Bob Dewey.

Honorary Colonel: Pat Sand of Howard Hall; Janet Curley, and Shirley Phelps of Carrie Belle Raymond dormitory.

Nebraska Sweetheart: Penny Henderson of Wilson Hall and Anne Wadder of Carrie Belle Raymond dorm.

Roy Byrom is to take Bob Dewey's place on the NIA council. Six representatives were tentatively named to the Student War Council: Ruth Sherburn, Pat Sand, Ralph Fox, Ward Brunson, Jim Howe and Stan Lowe.

After the elections plans were made to report raises in rent since last March to the OPA committee for investigation. Anyone knowing of such cases in connection with UN students should bring reports of the changes to the barb office at the meeting next week.
