

Phi Psi Champs Gain Early Top In Intramurals

BY GENE SHERMAN.

With the I-M volleyball season having reached the midway point, leaders in each of the four leagues are beginning to emerge from the host of entries that started the leather pushing sport last week.

Holding on to the top spot in league one are the Phi Psi's, who are the defending champions. The Phi Psi's gave indications that they might retain the volleyball trophy as they easily rolled by the Farm House and Sigma Nu's. Beta Theta Pi should be the team to give the Phi Psi's the most competition.

With two victories apiece, the Sig Alphas and Delta Sigs are deadlocked for first spot in League two.

When the Phi Gams defeated the DU's Tuesday night, they took over the undisputed leadership in League four. The other win for the Phi's was over the Sigma Chi's, who are currently deadlocked for second place with the DU's.

Horse Sense

By Norris Anderson (Sports Editor)

BY BOB McNUTT.

(That noted author and world-traveler, Robert McNutt, casts his acorns on the floor of this barnyard today. Within the following column is revealed true happenings in dressing room and elsewhere.—Sports Editor).

The record for the football team reads 375%. As far as the personnel is concerned, the record stands 1000%. No block-heads, no bums, no drips, but 34 guys with 34 distinct personalities.

As is the case on every campus, certain members of the football team are given a lot of publicity by the fourth estate while others go unnoticed. Everyone on this campus knows about the "shmeegie boys"—Thompson, Metheny and Parlington.

It's no secret that Joe Byler is the woman killer of the team. And that Ed Nyden, Herb Von Goetz and Stranny Stranahan (having copied his technique to the letter) follow him religiously to observe any new developments that Joe might uncover from day to day.

The entire team knows that "Key-bird" Eisenhart causes than (having copied his technique to the letter) follow him around so that he can try his luck with Ki's castoffs. Yes, these things have been aired to the public upon occasion and the lads and lassies of the campus have come to know and accept.

But, hark ye to the doings and carryings on of the lesser satellites who don their moleskins every night and go out to do battle on the turf.

Now, Gene Sim pulls his pants on one leg at a time just as Byler does. However, different from Byler, Sim never misses a chance to demonstrate his prowess with the women. His prowess consisting of a report on the status of his ten farms near Nebraska City, two flat feet, and a capacity for bread and butter that so far is non-parallelled.

Errol Flynn and his doubles, known locally as the Grubaugh boys, are something else again. They never tire of telling about Rising City and its constitutions—consisting of 511/3 Grugaughs, 1,400 chickens, 4 cows, and a wind-broken mule. Nevertheless, they're proud of the whole "she-bang" and in the course of time have compared Rising City with Omaha, Kansas City, Chicago, and Pittsburgh in that order. By golly, Rising City wins every time.

Gene Wilkins, Roy Long, and Al Zikmund started a small riot in the Student Union at Pitt. When they wended their way down the aisle, they were tossed bodily on the floor by those Amazons. As the whole team looked on in despair, each and every blonde hair was separated and shown to each admiring brunette as they passed by single file.

Over in Sioux City, Charlie Duda is just another citizen—but to the blood-thirsty killers on the team, he is a demi-god. Charlie can hold them spell-bound for hours with his stories about blood, killings, scalplings, and sundry items. These stories are easy for him to tell because he spends his summers working in a slaughter house.

Don't ever kid yourself, in football togs they look like 34 football players, but beneath those pads are 34 guys... all different. If you want the real lowdown on the lads, call 2-7442 and ask for stool pigeon No. 25.

There you have it, dear readers. Next time you wish to know who pulls his socks up right leg first or who wears "Snuggie" underwear, pray call Brother McNutt.

Strong Seahawk Eleven Waiting for Cornhuskers

A heavy quota of All-American performers versus a crippled Nebraska University club—that's the program for the Seahawk-Husker game at Iowa City Saturday.

Glen Presnell continued to drill plays into Al Grubaugh, the new ingredient in the Husker backfield. Grubaugh continued to team with Wally Hopp, Ki Eisenhart, and Roy Long in the No. 1 unit.

Grubaugh Can Run.

Fans who scoffed at Presnell's decision to shift the sub tackle to the varsity right half post were surprised at the manner in which Grubaugh responded as a ball-packer. The former Rising City six-man ace runs with a high knee action and can cover territory in a hurry.

Adolph Lewendowski's scouting notes on the Seahawks read thusly: "They improve every Saturday. Still, I think that several of the Minnesota team are better co-ordinated than this team. Too many stars might be the reason. The lack of time to practice football might be another. And remember, they have been meeting the nation's top teams every Saturday."

Seahawk backfield strength is at a high ebb, despite the wholesale graduation exodus which removed some eight star performers. Either Al Coupee or Forrest Evashevski will alternate at quarter, Dick Fisher and Jim Langhurst should get the halfback nods, and Ed Jankowski will open at fullback.

Same UN Team.

Line Coach Elmer Holm has been drilling the same linemen all week. Marv Thompson and Ed Nyden will fortify the ends; Bob McNutt and Vic Schleich, the tackles; Wayne Stranathan and Charlie Duda, guards.

Several new plays were installed in the Husker attack yesterday to cope with the varied Seahawk offensive. All T formation plays will be saved for the Kansas State fracas.

Notre Dame is the only team boasting a win over the Seahawk club.

Frosh Gridmen Play Thursday

Frosh grid performers will take their biggest splash of the current campaign Thursday afternoon at 4:30 when Army and Navy teams, subdivided among squad members, tangle in a regulation fray. Scene of battle will be the regular frosh gridiron.

Bob Deviney and Dale Harvey, assistant coaches, will flip a coin to see who will coach each club. Head frosh mentor, Bill Pfeieff, will referee the tussle.

Army linemen include: Ends, Pesek, Schlesiger, Hayes, Cragin, Treman. Tackles, Hall (co-captain), Fouts, Carman. Guards, Ashburn, Croissant, Leshner, Schlinder. Center, Bolker, Kokjer.

Army backfield will feature Foy, Aldrich, Beckwith, Summers, Shiers, Kessler, and Eisenhart.

Navy linemen are: Ends, Samuelson, Smith, Proctor and Ehlers. Tackles, Tegt, Beck, Konkright. Guards, Klein (co-captain), Ebers, Draper. Center, Greenwood, Drummond.

In the navy backfield will be Kratz, Bresel (co-captain), France, Erthum, Myers and Flaggs.

Following the game, the gridsters will be entertained at a banquet at the Capitol hotel.

Georgia Hopes For Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 18.—Pasadena's Rose Bowl gates were flung wide open today and California's gridiron populace started the drums rolling loud for Frankie Sinkwich and the Georgia Bulldogs as a 1943 New Year's classic contender.

Official approval of the game was given Tuesday by the western defense command and was responsible for the fever that has broken loose in the Southland.

Southern California's gridiron grapevine says that Pasadena will get Sinkwich and his Georgians providing they don't stumble over Georgia Tech. If the Bulldogs fall then it'll probably be Georgia Tech who will be in the New Year's day struggle against a west coast team.

Western conference representative will likely be the winner of the Pacific Coast conference football race with Washington State the leader and U. S. C. and U. C. L. A. in hot pursuit.

Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt has accepted election as a member of the board of trustees of Hobart and William Smith colleges.
