BY MARY LOUISE GOODWIN.

Mr. Turkey gobbles in fearful tones in his straw pile and with the nearing of Thanksgiving vacation we gobble disgustingly because news is scarcer than caviar at company mess. Several small items, however, came to our attention as we ransacked Cornhuskerland's departing students for vacation items.

What's Omaha got—that is, why are the Taus and the Phi Gams migrating there for better or worse this week-end? . . . Could be cause such people as DG Helen Johnson and KKG pledge Jean Guenzal are spending their time there. . . .

DG Janet Krause and Pi Phi Virginia Newman will spend their vacation in Denver while leaving on an east bound train will be Alpha Phis Carolyn Held and Lourine Barker. Carolyn will visit brother Sid. Marg Rivitt, also Alpha Phi, is leaving in the same direction to see Lt. Harold Hicky. Phi Psi of last year who is now stationed at Fort Langly, Va.

Others Return.

And while some leave others come back; for instance Lt. and Mrs. Charles Pillsbury, Chuck Pillsbury, Beta, and Kappa Kay Tunison to you, were visiting the campus yesterday. Mrs. Hugh McKenna, formerly Margaret Koupal, was also back and she passed candy to the girls at the Pi Phi house Monday night in honor of her recent wedding.

And speaking of candy, the Alpha Phis seem to have a monopoly on the sweets this season. Counting the two Monday night it will make five passings that they have had in as many weeks. Honors went to Marilyn Stribling and Margaret Bumstead this time and the fellows are Jim Russel and Joe Krohn.

Paul "Wolf" Wykert, the illustrious Fiji forest ranger, departed with his quadrangular pin last night. Another wolf REALLY steadied down. His steady gal, Theta beaut Marge Christianson, is the recipient of the Fiji pin.

Virginia Lee, Theta of last year, returned from Northwestern where she is attending school and will be entertained at luncheon today by Bob Knoll.

First but Not Last.

The Theta Xis are really getting in tune with the times as far as speed is concerned. Last Saturday night at the Chi O hour dance Don Fitzpatrick and Hank Troutwine got dates for the Military Ball with a couple of the sisters whom they had never seen before that evening.

And now to end this little deal up on the right note until after Thanksgiving, we have a little item about a certain Kappa kid, to-wit: Pat "Tish Jr." Catlin an-announces she will remain in Lincoln over the vacation period. Any man—preferably tall, dark and rich—will be welcomed by Pat at the Kappa Gam hut for a tall bridge game. We said bridge!
