Huskies Drop Game To Sodaks, 40-30

Playing on a foreign floor in their season's opener, Nebraska's scanty-clad cage crew could not maintain the pace of a fast-breaking South Dakota outfit as they lost 40-30.

Taking an early lead of 6-2 the Huskies were soon headed and for the remainder of the game saw the score board advantage pointing to the home town quintet.

A sophomore forward stole the honors as Eddie Carlson had a basket eye for fair as he rolled some 19 points through the meshes to lead both Coyote and Cornhusker scorers.

Bob Heinzelman, Scarlet guard, took scoring leadership for Nebraska as he deposited eight points to the scanty reserve his team mates collected.

Frosh Mentors Drill 44 Men

Led by four all-state performers, 44 yearling cagers have been working out daily for the last couple of weeks under the observing eyes of Freshman Coach "Chili" Armstrong.

Showing the most ability so far have been Clyde Ehlers, Thayer, and John Schleisinger, Yutan. Both of these frosh stand close to the 6 foot 4 inch mark. Ehlers was honored on the 1941 all-state team after he had led his team to the class "D" championship.

Available from last year's state championship Lincoln Central quintet are Al Bloom, Eddie Hall and Johnny Dean. Bloom and Dean were all-state men last season.

From York comes two likely prospects in All-State Jim Myers and Bill Gallant.

Rounding out the list of promising freshmen are Hetrick, Elm Creek; Sutton, Lincoln Northeast, and Ward, Lincoln Northeast.

Other members of the squad are as follows:

- Bearing, Buchanan, Blasek, Belling, Bull, Bettger, Breitzke, Christenson, Chastain, Curry, Coffey, Davis, Engel, Ekdall, Hoyt, Hoff, Hartwig, Hayes, Johnson, Jones, Keiber, Keller, Kreimer, Kratz, Lucht, Lawson, Newmyer, Nitzel, Pence, Rosenstock, Rehm, Wagner and Williams.

As word filters to this department to effect that Nebraska's men of the maples open their campaign at South Dakota Tuesday eve, we also receive word from Kansas University. It's the second-quarter century turn for colorful Phog Allen as Jayhawk mentor and the natives are enthused.

During his 27-year coaching tenure at Kansas, Phog has produced 18 Big Six title winners. Out of 486 games his teams have executed, 373 decisions fall on the victory side of the ledger. Lifetime Allen coaching average is 81 percent with 553 victories in 680 games. Prior to his sage at KU, Phog tutored coursters for seven years at Warrensorgh Teachers in Mizzou.

As Phog blew the whistle opening his 33rd campaign as Jayhawk head, his team had scored 25,000 points during his tenure. Opponents have garnered less than 20,000 tallies. Believers of the body beautiful maintain that vigorous conditioning deals more closely with success than rehearsal of a set program.

Mr. Allen is a mystic who writes numerous volumes about such complicated doings as "stratified transitional zone defense in checkerboard formation and sprinkled with deception." He maintains that basketball is absolutely the most scientific of athletic pastimes.

Husker cagers have full opportunity to determine the mettle of Phog's mysterious teachings here, February 13, when the Jayhawks invade Husker maples for battle with "Lew" Lewendowski's Husker hoopmen.

A survey of the Husker court edition reveals a scarcity of elongated performers which may prove disastrous against a tall foe.

Highest man on the squad is Bert Gissler, 6-7 grid end. Gissler's inexperience in collegiate court play keeps him from fulfilling the potency of his stature. Frannie Hassler and Moxie Young, both 6-3 performers, rank next to Gissler on the height chart. Shortest hoopster is Johnny Thompson, 5-10 of scrappy forward.

Work comes to this department from Coast Guard recruiting circles that Nebraska can definitely count as "out" two gridmen who were counted upon for considerable service next autumn.

Wally Hopp, 200-pound fullback, and Carl Samuelson, 200-pound frosh end prospect, are the new Coast Guard candidates. Samuelson reminded Husker followers of another Grand Island end, the great Les McDonald. With a year of seasoning under his belt, chubby Wally would be primed to hit full stride next fall.

"That's the happy greeting heard today when a new supply of Coke arrives at a cooler. Folks wait for it... wait because the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola itself. Customers smile and start moving up to pause and be refreshed.

"There's a cheerful spirit about this way of accepting wartime restrictions. Morale is high."
