

Heinzelman Tops Scoring

Bob Heinzelman's eight points provided the top Husker scoring threat against South Dakota Monday night as the Lewendowski courtsters bowed in their current campaign in losing style.

Box score of the tilt indicates Husker scoring was evenly divided with six basketeers breaking into the box. Next foe on the Husker slate is Illinois, host to the Scarlet at Champaign.

Next UN Foe Nudges Detroit

Illinois will be trying to make it two wins in a row when the Husker basketeers invade the "Illini" court next Saturday evening. Led by Ken Menke, who tallied 12 points, the Big Ten champs swamped the University of Detroit 38-25 in the season's opener last Monday evening.

After piling up a 21-6 margin at the intermission, the Illinois defense fell apart momentarily, allowing the Titans to narrow the margin to 28-24.

Iowa State's Cyclones went down to defeat before an underdog Grinnell five 37-30 in another Monday contest. Best for the Big Six representatives was Kuebler with 12 markers. This was the first setback for the Cyclone cagers.

Reserves . . .

(Continued from Page 1.) services have definitely indicated that these enlistments must be completed. The examining board which is appearing here today, will consider, in addition to the applications for the army air corps, applications of enlistment in the ERC of students who later desire to transfer to the air corps when called to active duty.

Sooners Place Five on AP Team

Only one Cornhusker gridded, Tackle Vic Schleich, won a berth on the Associated Press All Big Six grid eleven. Schleich was paired with Homer Simmons of Oklahoma.

Filling the guard posts on the team were Fitzgerald of Missouri and Morford of Oklahoma. Pivot laurels went to Marsee of Oklahoma. Filling the end posts were Missouri's E Kern and Oklahoma's Dub Lamb. A noticeable "absentee" from the end spots was Nebraska's fine end, Marv Thompson.

Backfield posts went to Steuber of Missouri, Hamm of Oklahoma, Darling of Iowa State, and Evans of Kansas. Oklahoma with five performers on the team led the league.

Steuber Scores 121 For Fresh League Record

Missouri's Bobby Steuber crossed the end zone 18 times and added 13 extra points, during the past season, for 121 points and a new Big Six scoring record.

Altho the Missouri eleven took part in 12 contests, Steuber's mark is far superior on an average game basis than his record of 67 points in nine games last year and the 49 points registered by Oklahoma's Johnny Martin, the high scorer of the 1940 campaign.

By scoring Oklahoma's only touchdown against William and Mary last Saturday, Eddie Davis, Sooner fullback, edged out Iowa State's Paul Darling for the runner-up position with 36 markers. Darling had a total of 34.

Steuber tallied 75 points in the five conference games in which he participated in. This was enough to beat Davis and still set a new record.

The leading conference scorers, with games played, touchdowns, points after touchdown, field goals and total:

Eleven Teams On Collegiate All-American

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 9. (Special). Eleven colleges are represented on the 1942 all-America football team selected by the nation's college sports writers and announced today in the Sporting News, national sports weekly. It is the first time in the nine year history of the poll that some one college has failed to place two men on the honor eleven.

Frank Sinkwich of Georgia walked away with top honors and the captaincy of the star aggregation, and his backfield mates are Paul Governali of Columbia, Bill Hillenbrand of Indiana and Bob Steuber of Missouri. Linemen named to the team are Dave Schreiner of Wisconsin and Bob Dove of Notre Dame, ends Dick Wildung of Minnesota and Gil Bouley of Boston college, tackles: Alex Agase of Illinois and Chuck Taylor of Stanford, guards; and Joe Domnanovich of Alabama, center.

482 Nominated.

There were 482 players nominated to the all-star team by the 86 writers who represented colleges in 40 states and the District of Columbia in the balloting which was compiled by Robert S. Kunkel, executive secretary of the national inter-collegiate sports writers association.

Second team: Poschner of Georgia and Gantt of Duke, ends; Wistert of Michigan and Csuri of Ohio State, tackles; Ramsey of William & Mary and Wright of Notre Dame, guards; Moseley of Yale, center; and Holovak of Boston College, Bertelli of Notre Dame, Harder of Wisconsin and Dobbs of Tulsa, backs.

Sooners Lose Entire Frosh Club to Army

NORMAN, Okl., Dec. 8.—Oklahoma will enter the 1942-43 basketball season with the usual handicap of having lost, with the exception of one man, its entire freshman team of last year to the armed forces.

Only one sophomore is available this season, Jack Felber of Tulsa Central. All other members of Oklahoma's 1941 all-victorious freshman team, perhaps the strongest the Sooners had marshalled in modern times, are off to war.

Foremost among them was Jack Watkins, a 6 foot 2 inch lad from Tribbey whose clever ball-handling, shooting, guarding and tip-in artistry closely rivaled that of Gerald Tucker, Sooner sensation of last year. Other Boomers lost for the duration include George Logan and Harold Ward, all-state

Cobs Meet Tonight

All Corn Cob actives and pledges are called to a meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Union, president Frank White announced yesterday.

interscholastic players from Tulsa Will Rogers high, James "Cotton" Covington of Savannah, Louis Kretlow of Putnam City, and Joe Raines of Tulsa.

Altho Don "Bones" Jones, sensation of Oklahoma's 63 to 51 triumph over Kansas at Norman, Mitch Simon, hero of the one-point defeat of Kansas State at Manhattan and Warren Lehman are all in the armed forces (all are lettermen who had competition left at Norman), Coach Drake retains Gerald Tusker, Paul Heap, A. D. "Ug" Roberts, Dick Reich, Bob "Manacles" McCurdy, Tom Rousey and Jim "Leech" Marteny from his last year's team, and also Allie Paine from his 1940-41 aggregation.

The Sooners will invade Lincoln Jan. 30 for a league fracas with the Nebraska Cornhuskers.
