

Huskers Drop Tilt to Illini Five

Nebraska Courtmen Lose Second Straight Fracas

League Cagers Tip Three Foes

Big Six basketball teams started the week-end off with a bang by registering three victories over non-conference opponents last Friday evening.

Over at Ames, Iowa State's hot and cold cagers handed the Drake University Bulldogs a 46-34 lacing. The Cyclones were never in danger as they took a lead over their Missouri Valley conference rivals which they did not relinquish.

Pacing the Cyclones were Ron Norman and Rollin Kuebler with nine and twelve points respectively. Gene Oulman, sophomore guard from Mason City, was the defensive star for the winners. Iowa State led at the half, 26-17.

KU Wins

Minus the services of all-conference Charles Black, the University of Kansas Jayhawkers found trouble in downing a stubborn Rockhurst five, 44-40. Ray Evans featured the play of the Phog Allen proteges.

Oklahoma again gave indications that they are the team to beat in the Big Six as they rolled over little Southwestern college, 43-20. Gerald Tucker, Paul Heap, and company were never pressed by the Southwestern quintet.

Ex-Husker Smutz In Army Air Corp

Bill Smutz, former Cornhusker Big Six high and low hurdle title-bearer, was transferred last week from his post as second lieutenant in the army infantry to the air corps where he will train as a flying cadet.

One of the most versatile members Ed Weir had on the 1939-'40-'41 cinder squads, Smutz took turns as a sprinter, hurdler, and broad jumper.

Jerry J. Nuss Gets Appointment

Freshman Jerry J. Nuss of the university has been appointed to the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, Md., according to announcement of Representative Oren S. Copeland. He is studying chemical engineering and is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Drop 69-27 Decision to Classy I.U.

BY GENE SHERMAN.

Nebraska's Huskers didn't have a chance against the strong University of Illinois basketweavers last night, as the 1942 Big Ten champions rolled over the Huskers 69-27.

The final outcome was never in doubt as the flashy "Illini" quintet jumped into an early lead which they never relinquished. After the Illinois starting lineup had rolled up a commanding 17-2 lead during the first 11 minutes of the game, Coach Doug Mills sent his regulars to the bench for the remainder of the first half. At the intermission the winners held a 31-14 lead.

Opening the second half, the Big Ten representatives garnered 22 points to Nebraska's four in six and one-half minutes of play. After 10 minutes of the second half had been played the Illinois regulars were sent to the showers.

All-American Ken Menke led the "Illini" scoring with 16 points while Andy Phillip and Gene Vance counted 10 apiece.

Max Young with eight points and Kenny Elson with seven led the Nebraska scoring.

Horse Sense

BY GENE BRADLEY

There is an old Egyptian proverb which reads something like this: "If you cannot say something nice about a person, then keep your trap shut and quit your damn yapping." Consequently, in the interest of good manners, we had better not say anything about Norris Anderson's sport column.

The Egyptians were a pretty wise lot, even if they were mean to their mummies.

SPORTS FLASH: The Sigma Nus were reinstated in the intramural fight for the water polo trophy. At first, the athletic board accused the Sigma Nus of illegally using a seal as one of the contestants. Later, they made their apologies for not recognizing Stan Maley.

Eleanor Roosevelt, first lady of the land, made the following pertinent statement concerning winter sports: "If only more young people would participate in winter sports, such as ice-skating and bob-sledding, the general health and morale of these young people would be improved immeasurably, in the larger, rather than the smaller sense of the word, unless, of course, the young people lived in some place like Florida, huh?" A lot of us could take this to heart, I imagine.

CONCERNING THE BASKETBALL TEAM: John Thompson, famous Husker dribbler, was walking past the dorm last Friday when a horrible scream was heard from one of the windows in the dorm. Mr. Thompson, gentleman as well as athlete, called up: "Are you in distress?" A lovely female face smiled out and said, "I'm not in any dress, Johnny."

Phi Delts Pile Up 40 Points In Polo Match

One-sided, nip and tuck, and forfeited games featured last Thursday evening's play in the I-M Water Polo tourney.

Phi Delta Theta's mermen ran up a 40-0 score over the Farm House to record the highest team score of the present campaign. By virtue of this win the Phi Delts forged into first place in League 2 competition.

The DU's easily won their first game of the season by drowning the Kappa Sigs 15-4. The winners scored ten of their markers during the final half.

Sigma Chi took over sole leadership in League 4 by staving off a Sigma Nu rally for a 13-10 victory. The intermission found the winners holding a well-earned 6-0 lead, but a second half rally, which was good for ten points, by the Sig Nu splashers just about turned sure victory into defeat.

Many Forfeits.

Beta Theta Pi and Alpha Tau Omega are still in a tie for top honors in League 1. Both teams won their contests by forfeits over the AGR's and Delts respectively.

Because the ZBT's and the Sig Eps failed to show up at game time, both teams were charged with a forfeit loss. This was a break for the league leading Sigma Chi's who are now the only undefeated sextet in League 4.

Daily Corrects Draft Date Error

Through a typographical error it was stated that all men whose birthdays fall within the dates of July 1 and Aug. 3, are required to register for the national draft between Dec. 11 and 17. The correction should read "all men whose birthdays fall within the dates of July 1 and Aug. 31."
