BY MARY LOUISE GOODWIN.

As the snow outside melts into trickling drops, we too melt our warm hearts and thrust forth some right hot items. Put on your earmuff, kiddies.

Looks like there'll be plenty poppin' this week-end what with the ATO party Friday night and the Phi Psi and Sig Alpha shindigs Saturday. The ATO's are going to have a little competition in Alvino Rey who is going to give out at the Pike come Friday eve.

Planning on trying out Rey's rhythm will be Alpha Xi Jeanne Bowers, Mona Staska and Jackie Jones with Delta Sig Dick Weekly, Bob Tangeman, Kappa Sig; and Bill Thomas.

Candy and Kisses.

And over at the Tau mansion they had cigars and got to kiss Dorothy Freeborn, pinnate of Harold Hunt who decided that a subbing every week was more than he fancied.

It doesn't seem like a Monday night anymore unless the Alpha Phis have a candy passing. This week Pat Purdum did the honors with Delta Sig pinnate.

Anchors Away?

Beta Jack Wright left yesterday for home and the navy he hopes... and this leaves Pi Phi Sayre Webster back on the dating list again.

The Phi Psi actives are treating the pledges to a Xmas party Saturday night (probably to make up for the way they treated them the rest of the week). Bud Freeman will be there with Pi Phi Joan Beckwith, and Bill Campbell will escort KKG Jean Guenzel.

And don't forget the celebrated Phi Delt Xmas party which will be held next Wednesday night this year. Besides all of the old standbys, Dee Bourne will be there with Irene Hanson and Bruce Allen will bring Alpha Phi Margie Munson. This by the way looks like it might turn into something steady in the near future because it has reached the one date a week-end stage now.

Wally Monson, DU of last year is back in town to spend some time visiting Pi Phi Polly Parmele.
