By Marylouise Goodwin.

Sixty-five is getting to be more than just a passing grade around here any more since somebody who is in the know decided that the oil which keeps the home fires burning in nine-tenths of the houses on the campus was needed worse somewhere else. Reports from the Beta house that the ice has to be from the water faucets in the morning.

We're still blinded by the sparkle of all of the new diamonds since Christmas. A couple more to add to the already extended list are those of Eloise Hainline, DG, a gift from Lt. Bud Hileman.

Our Error.

The Alpha Chis will be partying Friday instead of Saturday as stated in yesterday's column. And it looks as if quite a few of the ATO's will play escorts to Alpha Chi misses. For instance, Fin Howard, Bill Harse and Ray Calkins will be there with Ruth Lund, Betty King and Betty Mahan.

Then Saturday comes the annual Beta dinner dance and from the looks of things the Nebraska girls are losing out in that league as most of the brothers are importing from the home town and elsewhere for the occasion. Bill Weingarten is importing from Omaha Lyla Cramer; Jack Stream will dine with Creston (Iowa) lass, Lorraine Owen; John Anderson imports Nancy Loomis from Omaha, now back from Smith college for vacation. Gene Newschwanger is bringing Pi Phi Jill Smith; Dick Smith will be there with Alpha Chi Arda Allen, and Bob Dalager will be dancing with Chi O Pat Beedle.

Swinging That Night.

The DU's will be swinging out at the Cornhusker ballroom on the same evening and a few of the smooth boys and gals attending that affair will be Dick Geeseman and Theta Jean York; Tom Drummond and Theta Jeanne Rotton; Dean Forke and Suzie Kirkland; Darl Larson and Jo Ann Bohr, and Dick Foe and Pi Phi Lois Gaden.

Red Hot . . .

by Pat Catlin will poke their heads thru the curtain to give their impression of life in general, while a hearty interfraternity trio of John Hardy and his clarinet, Glen Eskew and drums, and boogie-woogie key tickler Dick Buck will give their all in a jam session.

More toe tapping by Mary Helen Farrar, and back-bending acrobatics by Jean Cowden will wind up the program except for the grand finale featuring Betty Krause, Jeanette May Smith, and the Sigma Chi singers.

Master of ceremonies tags Ronald Metz, while Joe Weaver, co-director of "Red Hot and Blue" with Metz, will heckle the MC from the audience. In charge of properties is Bill Heintzelman, lights, Mabel Jean Schmer, and Bob Van Sant is stage manager.

All tickets and money for tickets still in circulation should be in the hands of Catherine Wells, business manager, today or Saturday between 4:30 and 5:30 p. m. in room 316 of the Union.

Last minute rehearsal for all acts of "Red Hot and Blue" will be held in the ballroom Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m.

U.S. Discontinues Travel, Exchange Awards For War

United States students no longer are eligible for exchange fellowships and travel grant awards, according to a release by the department of state.

This applies only for the duration. The department pointed out that such students are needed in activities regarding the war. The government still will award fellowships and travel grants to students of foreign countries in the U. S.

The release added that after the war the government again will make grants to U. S. students. The government hopes that other countries will permit its students to study here according to the treaties now in existence.

University of Connecticut reports that despite wartime conditions it is continuing this year its rapid expansion of services and growth of enrollment.

Mary Muffet Frocks

in MILLER'S JUNIOR SHOP

Fresh as paint . . . saucy and sweet . . . these very new MARY MUFFETS for Spring, 1943. They're the kind of dress you love for dating, for dancing and even for class! And they're happily priced for a coed's allowance.

Mary Muffets "double it"

The rayon crepe dress is a flattering classic . . . with an inset belt and pleated-in-front skirt. Wear it now and all next summer. To make it an ensemble—a coat of Butcher's linen (rayon) in sunny colors. Try lime with coral, coral with lemon . . . and other striking duos.

The DRESS—12.95
The COAT—14.95

Sizes 9 to 16—in Miller's JUNIOR SHOP Second Floor.
