Iowa State Men—250 Strong—Carry Clubs For Judo Classes

AMES, Ia.—Don't be afraid—that Iowa State student isn't planning to hit you with that club he's carrying—not unless you "choose" him first.

The clubs some 250 Cyclones are carrying, are standard classroom equipment for "judo." Judo is the formal name for the class combining all the worse tricks of American wrestling, jiu jitsu, and rough and tumble fighting.

"D. W." (dirty wrestling) it's called in class. Judo, offered as part of Iowa State's gigantic hardening program, teaches its students how to use every bit of equipment in hand-to-hand fighting.

"It is primarily attack," says Hugo Otopalik, Cyclone wrestling coach who teaches the course, "but it will come in handy when on the defensive too."

Coeds DO Like Poker, Politics ... It Says Here

(ACP). A survey among 250 college students, male and female, from five universities, reveals the interesting fact that the girls rather like to play poker. In fact, they also like to watch horse races and get all riled over political problems, just as the men do.

Dr. Clifford R. Adams, assistant professor of psychology at Pennsylvania State college found out these things thru his personal audit test.

Men, he says, aren't so much different from girls. They both like to act in movies, perform on the radio and play golf and bridge.

But there are differences. Men like to be big shots. Deep down inside, the gals are still just as the men like to picture them.

Social activities and charitable work are their forte. The coeds said they enjoyed entertaining and going to picnics, masquerade parties and full-dress affairs.

On Ag Intramural Basketball

BY DALE WOLF.

The "A" division of the intramural basketball contest on this campus ended Wednesday night with Farm House trouncing the Beta Sig team 18-4.

Leading the Farm House team was "Bop" Minthorne with 8 points followed by Don Mueller. Outstanding for the Beta Sigs "Knobby" Tieman, freshman and Harlan Hendricks.

In the "B" contest there are still several teams in the running and the winner of this division will not be determined until later this week.

Several weeks ago the Ag Exec board came out with an announcement concerning the cutting across the campus. At first it seemed that the students took the announcement seriously and for awhile the sidewalks were used, but alas today we find any number of paths that are used much more than the walks.

If we wish to keep our campus unmarred by these paths, it's time that we were "keeping off the grass."

Wesleyan university has recently added a navy pre-flight school.

Having outgrown its office space occupied since 1922, headquarters for the University of Michigan ROTC is now housed in a former fraternity house.

Menke Tops Cadet Total, Scores 15

BY HENRY FISHBACK.

Exhibiting too much height, experience, and speed, the giant Olathe Air Base basketballers routed Nebraska's Cornhuskers 51 to 37 in a wild battle on the coliseum hardwood last night.

Three top Cadet sharpshooters, Menke, Wesche, and Covert pilfered the netting with marvelous accuracy to keep the Huskers buried under an avalanche of scoring thrust. Menke ignited the rout with 12 points in the opening half in giving his teammates a 31 to 15 lead at the intermission and Covert and Wesche continued the blitz in the second canto.

The Navy clippers ripped out in front early, enjoying a 9 to 1 soon after the whistle before Bob Heinzeleman and Johnny Thompson rallied to pull up the slack and minutes later the Cadets led, 11 to 9. Menke stemmed the Scarlet with a couple of buckets and the Clippers were well in command at the intermission with a 31 to 15 margin.

Predominant factor in Clipper play was the supreme height advantage which enabled them to control play under the baskets the entire way.

Husker aggressor, John Fitzgibbon, whipped in a couple of beauties from deep out and Young got a tip-in, as Nebraska moved up within ten points at the opening of the second canto. The Cadets' lead weathered to 33 to 23 and 41 to 30 before Lt. Jack Gardner, Clipper headman, thrust in a couple of fresh Navy reserves to stem the attack. Don Covert potted two baskets and another reserve, Herbergill, got another and it was the Olathe charges from there on in to a 51 to 37 win to the gun.

Heinzeleman, top Husker with 11 points, sparked a brief closing splurge with noble support from Cassidy who dropped in two goals.
