Norris Anderson (Sports Editor)

You country-minded gentry who have in the past watched a hen brood over her furry family can obtain the same view by simply visiting the indoor track beneath east stadium any afternoon.

Lancon Control Control

There you'll see Ed Weir-measuring tape in one hand, stop watch in the other-bustling about the place with a worried look on his broad contenance. He'll stop at the broad jump pit to measure a leaper's step, then trot over to the half-mile starting post to click his stop watch on severa' harriers. An interview with Ed goes something like this:

troddles off, reporter on his heel, throughout the game, once holdto the broad jump pit.)

Reporter: How are the boys shaping up for the K-State meet? Weir: Pretty fair. (Then troddles off, reporter on his heel, to the losers. pole vault pit.)

Reporter: What does K-State

Weir: Their big performer is Al Rues, who has times of 4:26.6 in the mile and 10:09.9 in the twomile. Then there is Upham, a seven points each, Bud Levinson 49-second quartermiler; Kimel, a 45-foot shot man; and Nelson, who pole vaults upwards of 12 feet and trots the halfmile close to the twoto start Al Brown on a trial halfmile run.)

Reporter (puffing): Ed, how to you figure the indoor race will come out?

Weir: Missouri should win with Nebraska and K-State battling it out for second place. troddles off to check Howard Debus' shot putting form.)

By this time the weary Rag reporter, his information on paper, staggers off to type a five-inch named All-American tackle during the late twenties, Weir also has been conceded a tackle berth on virtually every All-Time gridiron team ever selected, losses. He also gained fame as one of the top high hurdlers in the nation (15 tests, the Alpha Sigs nipped the seconds for the 120 highs when the barriers were three inches higher trounced the Phi Psi's 22-7, and Ron Norman Closes than today).

No basketball club can expect success when there's dissention among the individual performers. That sentiment can be readily applied here and now to Ad Lewandowski's Cornhusker court squad.

One performer refuses to perform any longer if another cager continues to start ahead of him. Several other personal feuds have sprouted during the past several announced by Tiger Coach Don weeks.

A conscientious mentor who knows his basketball, "Lew" deserves a better break than he's Migration of reserve getting. strength to the air corps, leaves Kansas State plan to get the ball the Scarlet tutor with exactly ten available performers. Forced to build from scratch at the start, Glen Presnell, announced that Lewandowski now has to cope with initial Cornhusker sessions will get squad difficulties,

Horse Phi Dence Tip ATO's Alpha Tau Omega's has "A" basketball and "A"

. . . Fiji's Win

Alpha Tau Omega's hopes for the class "A" basketball title were jolted last Tuesday evening when an inspired Phi Delt cage machine ran wild during the second half to gain a 17-7 win over the Johnny Dean, all-stater from Lincoln high, was the main factor in the Phi Delt triumph as he scored all but two of the winner's points in the last half of play. Dean scored eight of his markers during the final

At the inetrmission both clubs were deadlocked at five all, but during the final half of play Dean began to hit with regularity and the Phi Delt defense clicked to turn the game into a rout.

Don James was the most outstanding performer for the losers. while Dick Thompson turned in a fine floor game for the win-

Phi Gam's 21; SAE's 11.

Phi Gamma Delta made it three wins in a row with an easy 21-11 wing like this:

Weir: Hye, fellow. (Then Fiji's commanded the play ing a 16-4 lead in the second half.

Bob Campbell and Don Andreson were again high point men for the Phi Gams with six points each. Aukes dropped in six for the

SAM 25; Delta Sigs 7.

With every man in the lineup breaking into the scoring column, the Sammies finally won a game from the Delta Sigs 25-7. Al Lagman and Bob Bramson shared scoring honors in the SAM's with and Bob Chandler also turned in good floor games for the win-

Delts 39; XBT 8.

The Delts are still tied for first minute mark. (Then troddles off place with the Phi Gams in League One. Led by Allen Bloom, who tallied 15 times, the Delts swamped the ZBT's 39-8 to gain their third consecutive victory of the campaign.

DU 21; AGR 11.

Delta Upsilon took over sole possession of first place in League Four by turning back the AGR's 21-11. Len Dunker paced the winners with seven markers, Betas 14; Sig Eps 6.

Stan Huffman tossed five points through the mesh to lead the Beta's to a 14-4 win over the Sig Eps. The Beta's now lead League Two with two wins against no

In other Tuesday night con- Saturday," concluded Weir. the Sigma Chi's edged out the Beta Sigs 9-7.

Grid Practices Soon to Open

Missouri will initiate spring football sessions March 1, it was Faurot this past week. Faurot plans to build his team around a bunch of 17 year olds.

Oklahoma has already started drills and Kansas, Iowa State, and rolling in early March.

Head Husker football mentor, under way around March 15,

TONIGHT

Temple Theatre

12th & R

Adm. 55c

Curtain at 8

Master Timer Weir

his top miler, with an accompanying report from K-State's top mile time. Left is Paul Johrde, two mile jaunter, and Brogan is at right.

Weir, Haylett Loosen Tears

. . . Meet Saturday

Kansas and Nebraska sang the blues yesterday over their track chances Saturday. Said Kansas spike coach, Ward Haylett, in a letter to Ed Weir, "We are thin in spots and weak in others." Spoke Husker Mr. Weir in return 'Zikmund has been out two days with a cold, and Christenson is bothered with a bad leg, but otherwise we'll be ready come 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon."

So it went in the camps of the Cornhuskers and Wildcats yes-Haylett added final touches to their cinder charges.

"We'll possibly slam the shot put and pick up valuable points in other field events," said Weir. but Kansas State appears to be proficient in the distances."

Whether Christenson will be around to bolster timber toppers Tallman and Tress was still unknown, but things looked up to the possibility yesterday. Zikmund is apparently set to give Wild-cats a run Saturday.

Weir announced a new attrac-tion. It's 60-yard shot putter's Schleich, present king of Big Six shot put ranks.

"Student tickets will be good

Basketball Career

FAIRFIELD, Iowa, Feb. 17 Ron Norman brings to a temporary halt a cage career which started in Fairfield in 1937 when he leads the Iowa State basketball team against the Iowa Preflight Officers here Thursday

Sure Thing!

BY GENE SHERMAN. (Intramural Editor.)

Tuesday evening's I-M basketball games were marred by constant bickerings between the participants and officials.

Three times during the Phi Delt-ATO clash, technical fouls were levied upon the players for excessive "griping" and "whim-pering." As a result both officials became so aggravated that they commenced to wonder why they took time from their studying to come over to the coliseum to referee. a game. between. a couple of "school kid teams.

We wish to remind all introterday as Maestro's Weir and mural players that the I-M department can only afford amateur 'refs" for amateur teams. . Those boys out there are doing a favor by giving up their study hours to let you play. What do you say we all cooperate with them?

In 48 minutes of play, Beta opponents have only scored nine points. After letting Boss "Horse Sense" Anderson do the mathematical work we came to the drilled during the afternoon and conclusion that the Beta opponents only score ,18 points per minute.

There have been a lot of exhigh Nebraska school greats perrace which will feature Ki Eisen- forming for the various fraterhart, Howie Debus and Victor nities, not to mention high school satellites from out-state high schools.

From nearby South Dakota comes Justin Berger, Beta, who was once an all-around athlete at Sioux Falls high.

Nebraska Wins, 50-47 In Overtime

... Down K-State BY NORRIS ANDERSON.

Adolph Lewandowski's Scarlet and Cream flippers hauled back from the brink of defeat last night in the coliseum by overcoming K-State resistance in an overtime period for a 50-47 victory before 1,500 screaming fans.
Big scoreboard on the west wall flashed "43-43" as the timer's gun popped in the press box. Dean Lill hit from outcourt to shove the Wildcats in front at outset of overtime play. Fitzgibbon countered for Nebraska and the count stood 45-45. Two angle shots by Bob Heinzelman found the mesh and the Huskers scooted into a 49-45

Kohl Scores.

Kohl tipped in follow shot for 49-47. Johnny Bortka then fouled Bob Heinzelman, made the free toss good and the final count, 50-47.

A dull first half saw the Big Six rivals alternate leadership with the gun chancing to pop when the Scarlet commanded, 19-18. A series of sorties by Joe Ridgeway, half-pint Wildcat forward, carried the invaders into 40-32 margin with five minutes remaining in the ball game,

Three baskets by Max Young, plus one two-pointer from Heinzelman, made the count 40-40 with two minutes left. A frantic flurry then netted each club three points to necessitate the overtime session.

Bob Heinzelman's 14 points, five in the extra period, gave him scoring laurels for the evening. Maxie Young was close behind with 10 points and a nice stint of rebound work. Wild passing and defensive lapses kept Husker play below par before overtime play.
5-5 of bona fide Wildcat-Joe

Ridgeway, 120-pounder—paced the invaders with 13 points and was a fly in Husker ointment thruout. Teammate Fred Kohl equaled his offensive total.

Lill c (GC) ..... 3 0-1 0 Mendenhall g .... 2 2-3 3 Bortka g ...... 2 1-2 Spencerf ..... 0 0-0 0 Checksfield c .... 1 0-0 Yelley g ..... 1 0-0 2 Totals . . . . . . . . 19 9-12 11 47 Nebraska

Knutzen f ...... 0 0-0 Thompson f ..... 3 0-3 Bottorff c . . . . . . . . 3 0-0 0 Fitzgibbon g ..... 3 3-4 Young g-c (GC)... 5 0-0 Artman f ..... 0 0-0 Elson f ........... 2 1-4 . 2 5 Heinzelman g ..... 6 2-2 3 14 Totals ....... 22 6-13 11 50

Right now ...

ARROW BROADLYN STRIPES

Button yourself into one of these new March Esquire featured Broadlyn shirts...you'll find you feel like a new man. They have swell new stripings, the best looking collar there is ... the Arrow ... and they're Mitoga figure-fitted. Right in the groove with them are the harmonizing Broadlyn ties, shorts and handkerchiefs. See these perfectly tailored, and perfectly styled

MAGEE'S