

Nuts from McNutt

By Bob McNutt

There comes a time in every college student's life when he must sit down and take stock of himself and try to figure out just what he has accomplished in his college career. As for me, I have a conscience that is perfectly clear, for I have learned lots of things.

Freshman Year.

- 1 Registration is a mess.
- 2 "There is no place like Nebraska, thank God."
- 3 Karl Arndt knows a joke.
- 4 The chances are against filling an inside straight.
- 5 Women aren't especially addicted to football players.
- 6 Faction "beerbusts" are "non-pareil."
- 7 Mary Helen Farrar is kinda cute.
- 8 The Phi Psi's use loaded dice.
- 10 Ten hours of sleep are not necessary.

Sophomore Year.

- 1 Eight hours of sleep are essential.
- 2 "There is no place like Nebraska."
- 3 Karl Arndt knows two jokes.
- 4 Don't ever try to fill an inside straight.
- 5 You have to be a chain smoker to be one of "the girls."
- 6 Faction "beerbusts" are rough.
- 7 Mary Helen Farrar is good looking.
- 8 Sig. Alphas use loaded dice.

Junior Year.

- 1 Six hours of sleep are not essential.
- 2 "There is no place like Nebraska, by God."
- 3 Karl Arndt is a joke.
- 4 An inside straight cannot be filled.
- 5 Sadie Hawkins is one of "the girls."
- 6 Don't even miss a faction "beerbust."
- 7 Mary Helen Farrar—"Wow!"
- 8 Phi Psi's and Sig Alpha hate each other—loaded dice.
- 10 Columbus discovered America—I think

With this much knowledge accumulated in three years I'd be a sure Phi Beta Kappa if next year were only a certainty.

Oh yes, Helen Greisel AOP isn't going steady with that guy anymore.

Jean Swarr sure can sing. Pat Herminghaus and Jim Critchfield have agreed to disagree.

Spring and winter are having the same trouble.

Old Fashioned Party Will Be Held By AWS

... Next Saturday

An old fashioned Courtin' Party will be the theme of the AWS party to be held next Saturday night in the Union ballroom. Dorothy Carnahan, in charge of the arrangements, promises a good time to all. There will be a novelty orchestra that will play during intermission of the informal dance.

Tickets are on sale now and may be purchased from freshman women. Four women from each organized house are selling them. Admission is 25 cents a couple. Ten cents of admission fee goes towards filling a war stamp book in order to purchase an $18.75 bond.

When this goal has been reached during the evening, the remainder of the stamps will be raffled at the dance. The raffling will be done by drawing tickets, so be sure that you have your name on the ticket when you present it at the door.

Spring Fevers Slightly Chilled By Latest Snow

Fluffy, furry flakes of snow floating lightly down to settle on reversibles and topcoats never received such a blasphemous brush-off as those arriving Tuesday afternoon.

Spring fever was just getting into high gear Monday—class attendance was disgracefully low, the Union was not full, students were strolling everywhere hand in hand—spring had sprung! Now this—

It was not just the snow; it was what the snow forecast! Cold wintry days instead of warm fragrant hours, chilled damp 65 degree rooms instead of balmy breezes in the park, return of sniffles, and chapped red legs, of bulky coats, and faded scarfs.

This in the face of the promises of spring!

From Faculty Members To College Heads

EASTON, Pa.—(ACP)—A popular and highly successful—but unlisted—course on Lafayette college's curriculum seems to be:

"How to Become a College President."

In the 15 years since Dr. William Mather Lewis became president of the school, these five faculty members have become college heads:

Donald B. Prentice, president of Rose Polytechnic institute, Terre Haute, Ind.

Arthur A. Hauck, president of the University of Maine.

Henry E. Allen, president of Keuka college.

Theodore A. Distler, head of Franklin and Marshall, Lancaster, Pa.

Dale H. Moore, president of Cedar Crest college.

role is "the one I happen to be singing at the time." When asked who her preferred leading man was, the soprano replied, "I'm very diplomatic . . . I wouldn't say."

Designs Own Clothes.
Altho home and career keep her busy, Miss Jepsen still finds time for a hobby. Immaculately and beautifully dressed, she admitted that she designs and sews many of her clothes.

She believes that if a person has the talent or desire to become a singer, nothing will hold him back. "A school," she added, "is better than private training because of the all-inclusive course it offers." Miss Jepsen attended, on a scholarship, the Curtiss Institute of music at Philadelphia.

Students Register This Week For Ration Books

Students who live in apartments, sorority or fraternity houses, dormitories, and other organized houses on the campus or students who do their own cooking must register at their board to obtain their No. 2 ration book, the processed food book.

Any person who lives away from home for more than one month at a time must register for his own book. Lancaster county ration officials warned that everyone who expects to get war ration book No. 2 must register this week as the books will not again be available until March 15.

What to Bring.

Students at the university should go to the nearest grade school which is Bancroft. In order to get the new book the applicant must bring a copy of ration book No. 1; fill out a copy of the consumer's declaration form and hand it in with the application for book No. 2.

Registration hours Monday thru Friday are 3 p. m. to 7 p. m. and on Saturday 9:30 a. m. to 3:20 p. m.

Those who do their own cooking must clip from the paper a form to be filled out declaring the number of cans (8 ounce) of the rationed food they have on hand and the amount of coffee on hand Nov. 28, 1942.

Union Shows Old Chaplin, Norman Comedies Sunday

Game of Lighting Matches Results In Charred House

A three-year-old boy set a fire late Monday in the back kitchen of his home at 821 No. 14th street, to the east of the UN Coliseum. When his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sedan, came home about 3:30 p. m. they found a fire-blackened, charred house, a scared little boy, and a crowd of firemen and university men and women around the house.

Left in charge of a six-year old neighbor boy, the three-year-old was playing his favorite game of lighting matches and "firing things," when his fire engulfed a waste basket. In a short time the flames spread thru the house. No one was hurt however, not even the cat which sneaked out the front door between the legs of a fireman.

The fire was under control of the Lincoln fire department soon after it started.

The large crowd of university students were attracted to the fire by the heavy black smoke which seemed at a distance to issue from the university heating plant.

Dr. William A. Behl, former instructor in public speaking at Brooklyn college and DeKalb, Ill., State Teachers college, has been made assistant professor of speech at Carleton college.
