

Cornhusker Basket Barrage Buries Cyclone Five, 51-36

... In Last Game

Lew Lewandowski's Scarlet casaba clan began slowly, then whipped up a wild second half bucket barrage to thrash soundly the Iowa State Cyclones, 51 to 36, last evening on the coliseum maples before 3,000 spectators.

Sound Husker defenses handcuffed the Cyclones to but 13 points in second canto play as Heinzeleman, Fitzgibbon and Elson exploded to salt away the contest. Cornhuskers led in the first half play by a scant 25 to 23 margin.

Sharpshooting Johnny Thompson spearheaded the first half N. U. offensive dunking in ten digits and Heinzeleman's final 12 digits led the cause.

Young ignited the Huskers' scoring as N. U. ripped into an early lead which the Cyclones covered 23-22 with 15 minutes gone. Elson hit twice from the floor at the point and Huskers went on to half time 25-23.

Second half play saw Heinzeleman on the go again with Bottorff, Fitzgibbon, Young and Brown warming the hoop as the Huskers ripped to a 4 minute, 36 to 51 lead, and followed to the final whistle.

Oklahoma Monday. Husker Big Six loop play concludes Monday evening when Nebraska meet Oklahoma's Sooners or the Sooner floor.

Sure Thing!

BY GENE SHERMAN.

Next Tuesday evening should be a busy evening for I-M aspirants with both class "A" and "B" semi-final playoffs on the docket.

The "A" pairings just released find the Phi Gams pitted against the Kappa Sigs in the opener and the torrid Phi Deltas facing the Farm House men in the nightcap.

Indications point toward a Phi Delt-Phi Gam championship tussle, but the late performances of both the Farm House and Kappa Sigs, although not as flashy as the favorites, give indications that an upset in either game should not be too much of surprise.

The Kappa Sigs rose to the occasion by running wild during the second half of the championship DU game to dump the favored DU's, while the Farm House, although in a fairly easy league, gathered enough needed experience in the breather games to play the favored Beta to a standstill in the title game.

In class "B" the DU's will face the Phi Deltas and the Betas will meet either the ATO's or SAM's.

The ATO's who are undefeated must win over the once-defeated Sammies in a Monday night game. If the Sammies win, another game between these two clubs will be required.

When SAM Bob Bramson dropped in 15 points against the ZBT's the other night he cinched I-M high scoring honors for the season. In four games Bramson scored 40 points for an average of ten per game.

Phi Gam Don Anderson, who was recently called to the Army Air Corps ranks next to Bramson with 37 points in four games. If Anderson would have been available for the Phi Gam-Delta Sig game, chances are that he would have taken over the number one spot from Bramson.

The Phi Gams averaged 30 points per game and the Phi Deltas averaged 29 during this season's play.

Since a regulation I-M game is only 24 minutes in length, you can see that our I-M department can boast of two more-than-a-point-a-minute ball clubs.

When the Alpha Sigs beat the Theta Xi's in a basketball game last week it was the first I-M victory of any sort for the winners.

In three "B" games the ZBT's have scored only 3 points while their opponents have sent 108 markers through the netting.

When the ATO and SAM "B" clubs meet next Monday evening fans will see the two "big" men of the Innocents Society facing each other—Mort "Zube" Zuber and George "G. Willie" Abbot.

Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, professor of education at Teachers college, Columbia university, has succeeded Dr. James E. West as chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America.

... And Bad Jayhawk Evans Wins Acclaim

LAWRENCE, Feb. 25.—Dr. Forrest C. "Phog" Allen, whose University of Kansas Jayhawkers are currently at the top of the heap in the Big Six conference rankings and whose teams for a quarter of a century have been perennially outstanding in the nation, was named America's No. 1 basketball coach in the annual collegiate basketball record issued last week by the Helm's Athletic Foundation.

Dr. Allen, in the report, is designated as "the greatest basketball coach of all time." Other cage mentors in the first ten are Justin M. Barry, Southern California; Clair Bee, Long Island U.; Osborne B. Cowles, Dartmouth; Clarence S. Edmunson, Washington; Nat Holman, C. C. N. Y.; Lon Walter Jourdet, Pennsylvania; the late George E. Keogan, Notre Dame; Ward Lewis Lambert, Purdue; and Dr. Walter E. Meanwell, formerly of the University of Wisconsin.

Evans All-American. The basketball teams of Allen, who celebrated his 25th year at the University of Kansas last March, have won or tied for 18 championships during his tenure as cage mentor on Mt. Oread. In 1921 and again in 1922, his teams won the national collegiate titles. In 1940, the Jayhawkers were nosed out for the national title in the N. C. A. finals by Indiana, and in 1942, they advanced to the quarter-finals.

Ray Evans, who was named also as an all-American football player last year, is one of a select few who have made both grid and cage Helm's Foundation all-American teams. Other names by the Helm's report were Harry Kepke and Bennie Oosterbaan, both of Michigan.

Cyclone Wrestler Gains His Revenge

AMES, Ia., Feb. 25.—George Gast is going to take a swell memory with him when the Iowa State junior goes to the army next month.

As a sophomore, Gast dropped a tournament decision to Leon Martin of Iowa Teachers. From that moment on he lived for the time he would even the score.

In the dual meet at Cedar Falls in 1942 Martin wrestled heavy-weight so they didn't meet. But last Monday night the match finally took place and Gast turned in the greatest match seen in Ames in more than 20 years to defeat the 1942 intercollegiate runner-up in the 175 class. It was the first dual meet loss in Martin's career.

Probably the finest tribute paid Gast after the match was given by Roy Martin, father of the defeated Panther star:

"That was the finest match I've ever seen. I want to shake Gast's hand."

Browne Back

COACH W. H. BROWNE

Harold Browne, erstwhile Cornhusker court tutor, returned to his old stamping grounds last week from San Luis Obispo where he is a lieutenant colonel in the army. Browne watched "Wew" Lewandowski drill his courtsters all week, then viewed the Iowa State fray last night.

Debaters Appear In Exhibition Meet With South Dakota

Two university debaters appeared at Blair Thursday night in an exhibition debate with a team from the University of South Dakota. The Nebraska debaters were Frank Mattoon, Omaha, and Bill Rist, Wymore.

Debate topic was "Resolved, that congress shall enact legislation providing for universal drafting of men and women between the ages of 18 and 64 for war production, agriculture and armed service." The debate was an occasion for a dinner given by the Blair chamber of commerce. Open discussion on world affairs followed the dinner.

Dixon Sweeps 'Mile of Year' Beats Bob Ginn

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 27.—Long striding, Frank Dixon, N. Y. U. frosh mile sensation whipped away from Gilbert Dodds, Walt Mehl, and ex-Nebraska U. star, Bobby Ginn to win the "Mile of Year" in 4:09.6 here this evening.

Dixon's sterling finish subdued the confident Dobbs who set a blistering pace in opening laps. Collegiate Champ Bobby Ginn and Walt Mehl of Wisconsin didn't have the kick and trailed thruout. Ginn running under colors of Stinson Field of Texas demonstrated that army life and the brief condition period had taken their toll.

Sooners Have Prize Frosh

... Ready March 1

NORMAN, Okla., Feb. 20.—With freshmen becoming eligible for Big Six conference varsity sports March 1, Coach Bruce Drake of the Oklahoma basketball team has been eyeing the all-victorious Oklahoma freshmen team covetously.

Lack of manpower wasn't the reason the Sooners were measured by Missouri's big, fast-improving sophomore outfit 50-45 at Columbia Monday night. The Oklahoma players gave George Edwards' young Tigers full credit for snapping the Sooner 10-game win streak.

Gopher Sport Program Intact

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 24.—"The status of intercollegiate athletics may be somewhat in doubt but intramural sports at the University of Minnesota will be continued as long as we have even two men who want to compete in some activity," W. R. Smith, intramural director at Minnesota, declares.

Team sports, as usual, are the most popular in intramural, with basketball leading the way. Over 1,000 men are participating in the annual winter tournament which will ultimately lead to the all-university finals and championship scheduled for March 4, the night of the yearly intramural carnival.

Individual sports such as boxing, wrestling, table tennis, fencing and swimming also have a big following at Minnesota and they will come to a climax on March 4.

Besides physically developing its own men to aid the war effort, Minnesota, like a number of other universities and colleges, has loaned its athletic facilities to the army and navy. Conditioning classes for the armed service men, who are on the campus for technical training, meet at every hour of the day.
