

I-M Finale Set For Tonight

Phi Gams Meet Phi Delt Five For Class A Crown

Dream basketball game of the year will take place on the coliseum maples at 8:30 tonight when the Phi Gams meet the Phi Delt. Thruout the current season, intramural aspirants have predicted the Phi Gam-Phi Delt championship match.

"B" Finals.

Besides seeing the championship "A" game, I-M fans will also be treated to a class "B" championship affair between the defending champion ATO's and the challenging Phi Delt. This game will get underway at 7:30.

Mentor Newt Copple's Fijis easily worked their way to the finals by walloping the Kappa Sigs 37-7 in a Tuesday evening semi-final battle. The Phi Delt joined the Phi Gams in the finals by winning over the dark horse Farm House quintet 24-11. Both the Phi Gams and Phi Delt were impressive in winning.

Last Tuesday evening's "B" semi-finals were more evenly matched. The ATOs won another close one by nipping the Betas 10-8. While the ATOs were winning, Curry and Chapin were leading the Phi Delt to a 15-10 win over the DUs.

Sure Thing!

BY GENE SHERMAN.

(Intramural Editor.)

At approximately 9:30 tonight, either the Phi Gam or the Phi Delt will be resting in the number one position in the 1942-43 Jack Best trophy race.

Phi G's Wt. Ht. Pos. Ht. Wt. Phi D's Campbell 165 5-10 F 5-11 180 Cutshall Nutzman 190 6-0 F 5-8 160 Thompson Hayes 205 6-3 C 6-9 185 McHenry Larch 180 5-11 G 5-11 185 Dean Long 192 5-11 G 5-10 158 Sutton

"Ifs" in the race for leadership in the Jack Best trophy are three-fold: (1) If both the Phi Delt "A" and "B" teams hit the win column tonight the 16th and "R" street boys will have piled up a comfortable lead over the Fijis. (2) If the Phi Delt "A" team wins and the "B" five is defeated, the Phi Delt margin over the Phi Gams will be as narrow as the profile of Mort Zuber's physique. (3) If the Phi Gams win and the Phi Delt team is defeated, the Phi Delt will be only shouting distance from the number one spot.

Latest reports from Rolly Horney of the I-M department says that Intramurals on this campus will finish the year out.

Latest indications from the various fraternities denote that they will co-operate with the I-M department 100% until the last man is gone.

Tonight's championship games will be composed of 16 minute halves instead of the 12 used during the regular season. The boys must be getting into "shape."

Next week will find the I-M athletes hanging up their basketball shoes and picking out their handball gloves and pingpong paddles from the mess on the floor of their closet.

Daily Nebraskan "A" and "B" all star teams will be published some time next week.

Javelin Tosser

Fresh from the Big Six indoor cinder festival, Nebraska's track squad now turns to the outdoor season. Outdoor track was assured Saturday in Kansas City when the league's dons voted to continue competitive athletics. Announcement that navy units probably won't be called until June indicates that Howard Debus, a V-7 enrollee, will be available. Debus placed second in the indoor shot with 46-4 and first in the vault with 13-2. Outdoors, he tosses the javelin over 200 feet.

Horse Sense

A phone message on our sports desk spindle greeted us when we reported for duty today.

Brief notation read thusly: "Ray Tanneman, manager of the Angel, called to thank you for the story and also to thank all the university kids who patronized the Ras Samara-Angel match."

All is quiet along the Cornhusker front today, what with indoor track completed and spring grid two weeks hence, so we'll waste no further ado in introducing our assistants—Henry Fishback and Gene Sherman.

Sherman is a soft-spoken fellow, replete with fuzz-cut and a big grin. Intramurals coverage is his territory and he tramps the terrain like a juvenile Grantland Rice. A deliberate scribe, Sherman writes accurately and slowly. He hails from Sioux City, down Iowa way, and is enrolled in the school of journalism.

Track coverage, features and general all-round dope occupy Henry's duties. A native of California, he writes with all the flare of the far-western cult. He has called our basketball team everything from "casaba clan" to "maplites" and is immortal for this description of a basket: "He pilfered the net with marvelous accuracy." Ed Weir's pipe holds a particular fascination for Henry. Three recent Fishback indoor track stories opened with Weir puffing out words between pipe drafts. Henry won recognition last year among student scribes for writing the "best prep sports story of the year."

To illustrate the slack in sports news, we quote from a dispatch sent here today from the Iowa State sports service: "This is the year for you to grow a garden, if you possibly can. It may be a mere plot, or it may be a big plot, but don't take on a bigger area than you can handle, etc."

If you Cyclone scribes find material so scarce, why not sponsor a milking contest among members of the wrestling team?

Husker grid tutor, Glen Presnell, retrieved his coaching togs from winter storage in the coaching staff dressing room today.

"I'll be needing these in a couple weeks," said the amiable Husker grid tutor, "I think we'll have plenty of fellows out for an interesting time."

Cornhusker practice sessions definitely open March 15. Rumor is about that possibly Presnell might schedule several games with other Big Six schools to cap the spring training practice.

Ed Weir Takes Brief Vacation

Track plans will be laid momentarily on the shelf for an indefinite period. It was revealed Wednesday that Husker track and field mentor, Ed Weir, had departed from the school for a two week vacation.

Kansas Team Drops Tigers

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 3.—Missouri's court squad was today still recovering breath from the hair-raiser Tuesday night against Phog Allen's crew.

Long shots from the field and deadly accuracy from the free throw circle gave Kansas a 47-44 overtime victory over Missouri Tuesday night.

Kansas, handcuffed by a tight Missouri defense beneath the basket, used a shot from midcourt by Guard John Buescher in the last ten seconds of the first half to gain a 22-20 intermission lead.

Cyclones Open Grid March 22

Iowa state gridgers will open their spring drills on March 22 according to an announcement made yesterday by Mike Michalske, Cyclone football coach.

Michalske, together with Louis Menze and Clayton Sutherland will have a big job ahead of them as they shape the 1943 squad. Only six lettermen remain in school and at least one, George Gast, is expected to leave for army duty at the end of the current quarter.

Iowa Team Swims Washington by Mail

AMES, Ia., March 2.—Iowa State swimmers will wait one week before tangling with Washington university in a postal meet.

The meet, originally scheduled for last Saturday, will be run off next Friday.

The Cyclones have won two and lost three in dual meet competition this year, including a postal victory over the LaCrosse, Wis., State Teachers college.

Star Dash Man Again Ready

MINNEAPOLIS, March 2.—The Minnesota track team's hopes for a good showing against Iowa Saturday afternoon in the Fieldhouse took a slight rise yesterday when Track Coach Jim Kelly announced that Dick Kelley will take time off from his wing position on the Gopher hockey sextet to run the 60-yard dash.

The addition of Kelley will bolster the manpower of the Gopher cindermen considerably and will probably enable Kelly to have at least one Minnesota man entered in every event. In previous meets the Gophers had only six men available and were forced to pass up four events.

With Kelley in the 60-yard dash and Stephen Hise in the half mile, Kelly now has a squad of eight men. This still represents the smallest track team the Gophers have had in many years. Despite the war, Wisconsin had 31 men and Northwestern 20 men entered in the triangular meet at Madison last Saturday, so one can easily see how shorthanded the Gophers have been in past meets.

Tucker's Show Leads Previous Loop Showings

... Ask UN!

Gerald Tucker's 38 points against Nebraska in the season finale Tuesday night established a new Big Six scoring mark and recalled 1928-29 when two Huskers, Morrie Fisher and Harvey Grace jointly established the record at 20 points in a single fracas. In the fourteen seasons of Big Six play, points out Walt Dobbins of the Journal, only 44 performers have succeeded in making over 20 points in a single contest.

Tucker was the third Big Six cager to top thirty points. Jimmy McNatt, Oklahoham speedster, poured through 30 points in 1940 for a record. Then along came Charley Black earlier this year with 33 points and another new mark. Past point performances: 38 points: Gerald Tucker, O, 1942 (Neb.); 33 points: Charley Black, K, 1943 (Mo.); 30 points: Jim McNatt, O, 1940 (Neb.); 29 points: Jim McNatt, O, 1939 (Ist.); 27 points: Omar Browning, O, 1935 (Kas.); Howard Segelman, K, 1939 (O); 26 points: Jack Flemming, IS, 1937 (O); Ralph Miller, K, 1942 (Ist.); 25 points: Howard Engleman, K, 1941 (Mo.); Charley Black, K, 1942 (O.); Gerald Tucker, O, 1942 (Ist.); 24 points: Andy Beck, O, 1938 (Ist.); Ray Ebling, K, 1934 (O.); Frank Groves, KS, 1937 (Mo.); Howard Engleman, K, 1941 (Neb.); Sid Held, N, 1942 (Kas.); Ralph Miller, K, 1942 (Neb.); 23 points: Tom Bishop, K, 1930 (Neb.); Frank Tallman, N, 1940 (KS); Howard Engleman, K, 1941 (KS); Gerald Tucker, O, 1943 (KS); 22 points: Bill Johnson, K, 1933 (KS); Ervin Bross, O, 1934 (KS); Ray Ebling, K, 1935 (O); Bill Martin, O, 1937 (KS); Kenneth Brown, M, 1938 (KS); Fred Fraile, K, 1939 (Mo.); Marvin Mesch, O, 1938 (Neb.); Howard Engleman, K, 1941 (Neb.); Gerald Tucker, O, 1942 (Kas.); Thornton Jenkins, M, 1943 (Ist.); 21 points: Don Maclay, N, 1930 (Okl.); Morris Fisher, N, 1930 (Ist.); Al Budolfson, IS, 1942 (Neb.); 20 points: Morris Fisher, N, 1929 (KS); Harvey Grace, N, 1929 (Ist.); Ted O'Leary, K, 1932 (Neb.); Ray Ebling, M, 1935 (Okl.); 1936 (Okl.); Frank Groves, KS, 1936 (Okl.); Homer Wesche, KS, 1939 (Neb.); Ralph Miller, K, 1940 (Neb.); Otto Schnellbacher, K, 1943 (Neb.); Allen Burns, KS, 1936 (Okl.);
