

Party Line

BY WOLFGANG MONROE.

Stranger Things I Have Never Seen.

Than the new combination of Nats Porter and Preston Hays. Is there a Kappa he has not dated? Is there a girl he hasn't dated?

Than the so called high school girl Jim Nicola now squires about. Than Elmer Sprague.

Than Marj Jones staying true to Tom Woods.

Than Howie Debus without J. M. Smith.

Than the number of ensigns on leave. Like Ensign Art Mason, former Sig Chi escorting Polly Ann Petty last weekend.

Than Tessie Reed being true to Sergeant Ford in Africa by going out with Buzz Diers.

Sounds That Signify:

The sound of jive from a juke box . . . crashing glasses falling to the floor . . . the hiya's of campus politicians . . . the ring of the cash register for cokes and Lucky's . . . Chatter of lovers cooing . . . the noise of the Taus when they enter en masse . . . The sizzle of cigaret butts dropped into near empty glasses . . . the slap of books on a leather covered bench.

Sounds Overheard in the Dark:

"I'm so happy the seniors aren't leaving. Who would we senior girls date?"—Pat Herminghaus.

"What's so bad about the measles? You can't go to school for a week."—Pat Catlin.

"What parties there'll be after the 15th."—Alan Jacobs.

"I can drink cokes in a blizzard and enjoy it."—Finley Howard.

"She needn't think I'll be waiting for her when she finds her mistake."—A disappointed lover.

"Too bad Arnold doesn't have a G. I. haircut."—Anon.

"But the Mortar Boards are above politics."—A sophomore girl.

Is It True?

That Martha Ann Bengtson is going to the WAVES?

That there are still 800 more men on the campus than women? So stop worrying Thetas.

That Annabel Shaum is teaching judo for special students? Lieutenant Adams, better get her on your side.

That there is someone more sarcastic than Gerry Andeson? I doubt it.

That Norrie Anderson hasn't hung his pin after all this time? What patience.

That Dorothy Black is going steady? And poor Munson was going to ask as soon as he got two dates in a row.

That there are four Black Masques and one non-Masque running for May Queen. Is that quite cricket?

That Janet Westover and John Slothower are catching each other on the rebound? Two weekend dates and coke dates every day set some of us to wondering.

UN Library Adds Reference Book On Authors' Lives

The university library has recently added "Twentieth Century Authors" to the reference department. The 1577 page book contains biographies of more than 1850 writers who have written since 1900.

Every author included in the book who could be reached was invited to write his own narrative sketch. Each sketch also contains a list of the author's principal works and a guide to further study.

Dedicated to Russian.

The editors dedicated the book to Eugene Petrov, the "Russian Mark Twain," who was the first author included in the book to die in active service. He was killed in the defense of Sevastopol on July 2, 1942.

Among the Nebraska authors included in the book are Willa Cather, Mari Sandoz, Bess Streeter Aldrich, Mrs. Mignon Eberhart, Clyde Brion Davis, Dorothea Canfield Fisher, and John Neihardt.

"McBee" and his little pal McCarthy of the Beta house, besides going stir crazy are enjoying a bouquet of "Four Roses" or a reasonable facimile from "Bugs" Jerner, Alpha Phi, and Dottie Thiesen, Theta who seem to think they are immune from those red dots.

Kappa kids, Marilyn Edwards, Mary Jean Fisher, and "Dortch" Douglas roared up to Omaha in hopes of making measles more popular.

One of the proud "has beens" of the disease, was Fritz Albert, of the Taus, who must have gotten well sudden 'cause a telephone call over that way revealed Fritz had gone out for the afternoon.

Gamma Phi has had old home week and everybody got acquainted with each other, and they remained at home to all friends who were able to get by the quarantine sign.

So if you scratch of begin to turn that sunburn color with spots thrown in, law low; ; ;
