

Classes Dismissed For Convo

... Today

Observing one of the few remaining traditions on the campus, students will attend the 15th annual honors convocation this morning at 10:45 in the coliseum.

Classes are dismissed on the city-campus from 10:30 until 12:00 a. m., and from 10:00 until 12:00

Theater's 'Claudia' Nears Completion

Sets have been built and are being painted, full stage rehearsals are in progress and all preparations for the presentation of the play "Claudia" April 28, 29 and 30 are going well, according to Director Joe Zimmerman.

Playing the title role of this appealing story, which was a hit on Broadway and is now being made into a movie in Hollywood, is Dorothy James. First act of the play was presented before the Faculty Women's club April 14.

Name Complete Cast.
The cast includes Marjorie Christensen as the mother of Claudia; Robert Black as Claudia's husband, David Naughton; Joe Weaver Kline as the housekeeper, Bertha; Hank Lee as the hired man, Fritz; David Andrews in the part of a British author, Jerry Seymour; Bobbette Burke in the role of an opera singer, Madame Daruchika; and Mabel Jean Schmer as Julia Naughton.

Urge Students to Attend.
All students are urged by Dick Harnsberger, president of the Student Council, to attend this convocation to honor all students who have achieved recognition in all colleges and departments of the university. New members will be added to the honor roll, along with publication of the newly elected members of the various honoraries.

Gov. Griswold Talk Changed To 7:45 p. m.

A University of Nebraska faculty meeting at which Governor Dwight Griswold will speak Tuesday night has been changed from 6:30 to 7:45 o'clock because of inability of the Union to serve the dinner it had been planned.

The Union has been forced to restrict its services to such groups in order to handle the increasing service to army trainees. Governor Griswold will speak on "Some Post-War Problems and the University." The meeting, open to all faculty members, is sponsored by the American Association of University Professors.

Ag Votes For Spring Goddess

Even though the annual Ag Spring Party has been canceled, the tradition of choosing the Goddess of Agriculture will not be dropped, according to Lorene Bennett, president of Home Economics association.

Last year's goddess, Ben Alice Day, was presented at the Spring Party, but since there will be no college parties this spring, plans for an outdoor presentation on May 7 are being made.

Chosen from Senior Girls.
The goddess and her attendants are chosen from the senior girls registered in home economics. Any girl who meets eligibility requirements and who does not withdraw her name is considered a candidate for this honor.

The Ag exec board has turned the election and presentation over to the Home Ec association. Phyllis Ellenberger has been appointed general chairman. Voting will begin on Wednesday of this week on the second floor of the home ec building, and all girls are urged to vote.

Present Program

A program was given Saturday evening at Union college by Mr. Earnest Harrison, pianist, Mrs. Helen Travis Avery, soprano, and Miss Marjorie DeLange, cellist, of the University of Nebraska School of Music faculty.

Mr. Donald Glattly went to Geneva Friday where he judged choral groups in the district music contest.

YWCA Vespers Conducts Special Easter Services

Climaxing the semester of Vesper programs held by the YWCA staff, a special Easter service will be held this afternoon at 5:30. All university women are invited to participate in this celebration of Holy Week.

Vesper choir is directed by Jessie Lou Tyler, while the program is in charge of Anne Wellensiek. The ceremonies will be held in candlelight.

Only two more regular Vesper services will be held this year, after the Easter celebration, according to Miss Wellensiek.

Say Coeds ...

The activation will not hit Mary Jo Kobes, as she is still waiting for those who are in the service to come back.

Joan Witt plans to spend her time on the telephone. "Personally, I don't like it," was her final statement. Do you wonder why?

The thing that is bothering Sadie Hawkins is the fact that she won't be able to recognize the privates that she really knows. Why not say "hello" to all of them?

The appearance of John J. Douglass in his new private's uniform was the cause for much general amusement in the crib.

Jan Hoover made us realize that Nebraska university can hardly be called a co-educational college, when she said, "Now we can go around with our hair up all afternoon."

WALK AND CARRY

- ★ FOR YOUR COUNTRY
- ★ FOR YOUR HEALTH
- ★ FOR YOUR FIGURE

Our government urges you to walk for your health and carry for your country. Your footsteps will help the American fight for victory. When you carry packages you are helping stores whose delivery services have been sharply curtailed. When you walk you are helping to relieve the traffic congestion on public transportation systems already taxed to the limit carrying vital war workers to and from work. So do your part on the Home Front so that the fighting forces can do their part on the battle fronts ... Walk and Carry.
