Alpha Xi's, Beta's Decorations Win

Before one of the smallest crowds ever to witness a Nebraska Homecoming game in Memorial Stadium the Cornhuskers splashed and skidded their way to a 7 to 6 victory over the Jayhawks' of Kansas University.

the customary bouquet of red roses and left the field to the strains of "The Scarlet and Cream."

This was the debut of new Yell King Ulrich and several cheerleaders. Despite the weather and the discomfort of sitting in a pouring rain the cheering section, though small, was lusty. The Cornhuskers had something to cheer about for this is their first win of the season and a Homecoming besides.

Alums Few.

The alumni back were few, but those who could make it found an old time homecoming with house decorations and open houses as it has been the custom in former years.

(See Decorations, page 4.)

The rain, which started in earnest shortly after noon, continued throughout the game and drove most of the fans who watched the muddy spectacle up into the protected part of the stadium under the balcony. The players became so bespattered with mud after a few falls that it was difficult to distinguish the blue shirts of the Jayhawks from the red shirted Cornhuskers.

Present Pep Queen.

While the Mortar Boards and Tassels formed a "V" on the gridiron before the student cheering section, 1942 Pep Queen, Polly Ann Petty in her scarlet and cream cape, drove into the stadium in an open car accompanied by Yell King Bernie Ulrich and was presented to the homecoming crowd. She received from Dean T. J. Thompson

'43 Pep Queen . . . Peggy Larson Reigns . . . For Coming Year

PEGGY LARSON.

. . . Elected 1943 Pep Queen.

Approximately 500 couples, students and military trainees, greeted Peggy Larson as the 1943 Pep Queen last night at the 31st annual homecoming celebration in the Union ballroom.

At 10:30 the green stage curtains parted revealing the new queen, dressed in black, standing before a gold metallic cloth backdrop which reflected scarlet from the colored spotlight. The presentation platform was on the stage at the east end of the ballroom, and was decorated in scarlet and cream and featured the Tassel emblems.

Receives Roses.

Polly Ann Petty, 1942 Pep Queen, ascended the dias and presented her successor with a dozen roses. Bernie Ulrich, Yell King, then led Miss Larson from the stage to the dance floor.

The new Pep Queen is a junior in ag college, vice president and secretary of the ag war council, member of Tassels, secretary of ag YWCA, and member of Towne Club and the BAWW Interhouse council. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Larson of Lincoln.

AWS Holds Activity Mart October 30

To acquaint freshmen with every activity on the campus, the annual AWS women's activities mart will be held Saturday, October 30 in the Union ballroom.

Each activity will have a booth at which representatives of the organization will be stationed to explain the activity and answer questions. Girl will be given an opportunity to sign up for the activities in which they are most interested.

Freshmen Register.

Freshman registration for war work will be held at the mart and all freshmen are urged to be present to register for their three hours of war work whether or not they are interested in other activities.

Freshman participation in activities will begin the following week and all transfer students and other interested women are welcome. Girls may attend the mart any time from 1 to 3 p. m.

There will be a radio tuned to the Nebraska-Missouri football game to be played at Columbia that day.

Movie Thriller, Trio Headlines Variety Show

Alfred Hitchcock's thriller, "The Thirty-Nine Steps" starring Robert Donat will headline the first of a series of free Union variety shows tonight at 8 p. m. in the ballroom.

The Pi Phi trio, composed of Doris Ann Stauder, Janet Hemphill and Betty Krause accompanied by Jeanette Mae Smith will sing popular tunes of the season.

A short movie cartoon will complete the program.
