Busy people, lots of things happening and life is wonderful. But wouldn't it be dull without furloughs and leaves and service men dashing in and out? For instance, DU Jack Trenchard back from New York to see Peg Peters, Tri Delt—Phi Gam Graham Jones up from Texas to visit "friends"—and around the Union Friday were seen Sig Alph Bob Jeffrey and pinmate (since last furlough) former DG Susie Kirkland, now of Duchesne, here for the week-end. Bob is with the ASTP in Ohio.

On again, off again deals: after a slight interruption, Tri Delt Ginie Swanholm is again wearing the pin of DU dent Don Kling; while the steady deal of DG Pat Williams and STAR-man Ralph Nash seems to be no more. But here's one which is definitely not "one of those"—not only are Theta Beth Montgomery and Phi Gam Warren Eisenhart going formally steady now but they have been since last Christmas. How's that for a long standing romance in these times?

Of course there are always telephone calls and letters. This week from Fort Benning way were calls from ATO John Jay Douglass and DU Dee DePutron to pinmates Alpha Phi Ginie McCulla and Alpha Chi Margie Andrews. And Ikey Stimson hears via mail that AGR Don Tracy has been transferred from Benning to some unfortunate spot in Mississippi. Result of another unfortunate transfer: one lonesome gal DG Barb Taylor now that Corporal John Witt has left the air base. However, boys, she isn't "formally" engaged or anything; A not so lonesome Delta Gamma is Mary Jo Gish whose time is quite well occupied these days with one ASTP Charles McGaskill of South Carolina.

Houseguests of SDT Sylvia Bernstein, Eleanore Bernstein and Charlotte Katzman were going the town Saturday nite with Bernie Kaplow and Fred Teller, ZBT's. More Saturday night dates—ASTP's Bill Jervick, Ashby Taylor and Leonard Littlejohn with DG's Ann Crosby, Dorothy Thornburg and J. B. Anderson. Also, Illinois' "Max" Maxwell escorting Alph Phi Jo Martz to the big dance and then again Bernie Marland with SDT Shirley Kushner.

Flashes from the Kappa house brings new of Marilyn Edwards going with Archelais Augustus Drake, III, ASTP, Jean Kerl and Sally Busch Saturday Nighting it with Bill Crandall and Mac Bounds. Congratulations to Irene Dunnel and ASTP Lee Masters who are now going steady. Then the Kappa Sig and Kappa deals Pat Catlin and Jim Evinger, and Marcia Halligan with Bob Tange-man. Incidentally, Marcia has also been seen around with ATO Kenny Elson.

Phi Gam's here and there: Kappa pledge Mary Ann Lofink wearing the pin of Bob Southward, Bob Davis of Ohio U. and Adrienne Waggoner, Pi Phi, with a standing Saturday nite date. More Pi Phi gore; Helen Vennum deeply interested in one Max Andrews at the Sioux City air base, an extended summer time romance; Janet Sherwood wearing the Sig Alph pin of Norm Alverson in the Navy at Crete. She met him this summer too.

Leave it to fraternity presidents to get around. This weekend it was ZBT Stuart Goldberg showing SDT Ethel Miller the town. And speaking of getting around, why don't we see more of Phi Gam Russ Leger? For the benefit of you fems who have been swooning at the sight of this tall, dark and handsome specimen: He is now quite free.
