'C' Edges Out Co. A in Ninth Tourney Win

A red hot, fighting A Company team put a scare in Company C's Blue Wave, leading 22 to 19 at the half, only to succumb to the league leaders in a fast second stanza, 39 to 29, last night in the Coliseum. Lee Aho dumped in four baskets, and McCauley registered three to pace the underdogs to a 20 to 12 lead with four and one-half minutes left in the first half. Then Dobrer and Parminter helped cut down the margin to three points at the whistle. The win was the ninth straight intramural victory for the Blue—and their second of this round. The Red Raiders were dropping them from all angles in the first chukker, and their fight off the backboards seemed to disconcert the C-men.

Co. B Blasts Field House

After a rather uneventful first half, B company last night turned on the heat to down the Field House, 55-31. Big Ellis Jessen racked up 15 points to lead the scoring. Bunny Fuller and his "Tatum-styled" loop following with 12. B Company took the opening jump, Fuller tipping in the first basket. McNeilly scored for the Field House to tie it up. Scheer and Fuller then came thru to make it 6-2, favor of "B." Hays, Walsh, and McNeilly gave the Field House a momentary lead, which Jessen promptly severed with a total of nine consecutive points. At the half the Cookmen led, 26-17.

Fuller, Scheer, and Jessen opened the Green's second-half rally, and the height-handicapped Field-housemen soon found themselves bottled up. With four minutes gone, both teams went into a scoreless slump, the B-men emerging to add the finishing touches and walk away with their second victory of the third round robin.
