

Kansas State Nips Scarlet In Overtime

Huskers Fall In Rough Tilt

Nebraska cagers fell upset victims to Kansas State Tuesday night in a loosely played, overtime game which ended the Huskers' season.

Coach Cliff Rock's Wildcats, down 19-14 at the half, slowly closed the margin in the second half, tying the Huskers 36-all at the end of regulation time on Bob Ekblad's free throw. In the overtime, Ken Hollins' free throw was all the Huskers could garner, while Ekblad and Vance scored two free throws apiece to give the K-Staters their 40-37 margin.

The game was rough, with 47 fouls called, and nine men leaving on personals. Student Manager Bert Gissler and freshman Les Krogh, who had seen no previous service this season, were pressed into action by Husker Coach Ad Lewandowski when five of his men were hoisted on fouls.

The Wildcat victory dropped Nebraska to the conference cellar with a 1-9 won and lost record and upped Kansas State to fifth on the strength of their 1-8 loop record.

Kansas State (40)		Nebraska (37)
Pl.	Pt.	Pl.	Pt.
Crist f	2 1-3	Kuhlman f	3 1-4
Vance f	0 2-2	Tangeman f	0 1-4
Swart f	3 2-4	Gissler f	0 0-0
Storv f	1 0-0	Arman f	2 0-3
Olson c	3 3-5	Krogh f	0 0-0
Ekblad g	3 3-7	Hollins c	2 3-7
Findley g	0 2-2	Nelson g	2 3-4
Beougher c	0 1-2	Kirin g	4 3-6
Grimaldi g	0 0-1

Totals 12 16-26 24 Totals 13 11-28 23
 Halftime score: Nebraska 19, K-State 14.
 Officials: Facer and Hess.

Cyclones Meet KU; Need Win For Title Tie

AMES, Iowa, March 2.—The Iowa State College basketball team leaves Thursday night for Lawrence, Kas., for the final game of the season against the University of Kansas. The Cyclones must win this game in order to tie for the Big Six title with Oklahoma.

Iowa State will be striving for its third Big Six championship. The Cyclones won the title in 1935 and 1941. They defeated Kansas at Ames earlier in the season but the Jayhawks have lost only one conference game on their home floor and that was by only a one-point margin to Oklahoma.

There will be no changes in the Cyclone starting lineup with Ray Wehde and Roy Wehde, forwards; Price Brookfield, center, and Gene Oulman and James Myers, guards.

The Big Six conference standings:

W	L	To	Pts	Ave	Pts	Pct
		I.S.	Opps	I.S.	Opps
Oklahoma	9	1	509	214	46.9	31.4
Iowa State	8	1	398	261	44.2	32.3
Kansas	5	4	330	293	38.7	32.6
Missouri	4	5	309	214	32.3	34.9
Kan. S.	1	8	286	297	31.8	44.1
Nebraska	1	9	352	476	35.2	47.6

Sports

Second Guessing

with

Harold W. Andersen

Perhaps it's for the best that Nebraska's clash with Kansas State at Manhattan Tuesday was the end of this season's basketball trail for the Huskers for the U. N. cage roster was down to eight men for the season's final game. Coach Ad Lewandowski started the year with some twenty-odd men, but against the Aggies Tuesday Lew was scraping the bottom of the manpower barrel to put a team on the floor.

To complicate matters further, Tuesday night's clash was unusually rough, and several of Lew's boys were ousted on personal fouls before the final whistle. Lewandowski met the situation, however, by drafting long Bert Gissler, the team's student manager, and pressing into service Les Krogh, freshman squad member who had never before tasted collegiate competition.

Lewandowski deserves nothing but praise for the way in which he has held his green squad of youngsters together throughout the season. Service calls and ineligibility took some of the boys on whom he had counted most when the season started, but Lew never lost his optimism and enthusiasm, even

Consolations Begin; Cage Tourney Enters Round Two

The intramural basketball tourney went into the second round this week. In the first round, the Sig Ep's, Y.M.C.A., Sig Chi's, Sigma Nu-Z.B.T., Corn Cribbers, and Beta's were the winners.

Fighting for the consolation championship are the Phi Gams, Brown Palace, Pioneer Co-op, Theta Xi, Beta Sig's and Cornhusker Co-op. The consolation games should prove fast as most of these teams have improved since the beginning of the season.

Corn Cribbers Drop Co-op.
 In Tuesday night's games the Corn Cribbers smashed the Cornhusker Co-op 44 to 16, and the Beta's clipped the Brown Palace 36 to 29.

The Corn Cribbers ran over the Cornhusker Co-op in the first half, holding the Co-op to one basket, while they scored 17 points. The second half was the same story, with the Cribbers scoring 27 points to the Co-op's 14. The final score stood Cribbers 44, Cornhusker Co-op 16.

In the Beta's 36-29 win over the Brown Palace, Pinney led the Beta's with 14 points, while Jacobmeier racked up the same number for the Brown Palace. All members of both teams scored once or more. The score at the half found the Beta's in the lead, 21 to 13.

The second half found the Brown Palace creeping up on the Beta's but the Beta's managed to hold their lead. The final score found the Beta's on top by 7 points, 36 to 29.

Intramural Basketball

Schedule

FIRST ROUND.

7:30	Sig Chi Vs. Sig Nu-Z.B.T.
8:30	Phi Gam Vs. Pioneer Co-op
March 7
7:30	Corn Cribbers Vs. Beta's
8:30	Theta Xi Vs. Beta Sig
March 8
7:30	A.T.O. Vs. Y.M.C.A.
8:30	Cornhusker Co-op Vs. Brown Palace
	Sig Ep's drew a bye

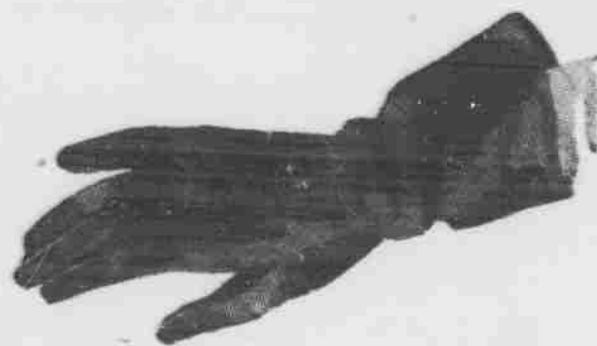

when it looked as if he himself might have to don a uniform to give the Huskers five men to put on the floor.

All in all, the Husker cage season cannot be counted a failure, despite the number of defeats which mark the year's record. Lew's boys tried hard, had fun, and helped keep the Cornhusker athletic tradition alive, ready for a real revival once peace returns.

Accessory Excitement!

... it's Spring
at Miller's

Scarfs, gloves, handbags, neckwear—

FIRST FLOOR

Shoes, hats, blouses—SECOND FLOOR

MILLER & PAINE

THE EARLY BIRD ...

profits by unhurried service! Have spring clothes cleaned now before the rush begins.

The Evans 333 No. 12th
 2-6961
 LAUNDRY-CLEANING
 SINCE 1886