People are wondering whether to wish for spring and sit alone or hope spring never comes and keep the ASTP on the campus. Also complaining to many of us is B. J. Frankfurter, Alpha Phi, who is first seen with ASTP Bill Burns, then Elmer Stanley, and was last seen with Orrin Herrin. Oh, these southern boys. Steadying it are Mary Lou Holtz, Alpha Chi, and Harry Staples, ASTP. At the Gamma Phi house we find Leonard Littlejohn, ASTP, and Denny Hadan coming under the same heading.

Unofficial but coincidental is Jerry Giegickiska, ASTP, always over at the Alpha Chi house to see B. J. Huntzinger. Of course, it could be he likes to walk or likes their records?

Another week end guest is Gertrude Weldon, Grasse Point, Mich., who is visiting Sally White, Alpha Chi. Everyone is getting "great" spring clothes for the luncheons and parties to be given for her.

Welcome home was given to Lt. Charles Pierce, Sigma Nu, by Evelyn Leamer, Alpha Chi. Great times were had by them flitting between Lincoln, Sioux City and Omaha. Chi O's

Kathy Rohwer has just returned from Colorado Springs where she has been visiting her man who was stationed here this fall.

Another bit of juicy gossip is that Louise Mares returned Sig Ep Bob Forrester's pin.

Saturday night dates are June Korb, Kappa, with Phi Psi Ernie Larson and sister Ruth with Bud Barvel, Phi Psi. Nothin' like these family affairs!

Anne Phillips, Mary Clara Phillips and Les Mothony, Thetas, will be going with ASTP Ed Mullin, Pete Ubben and Al Tierney. Ruth Heidrich, Pi Phi, will be accompanying Ross Keller, ASTP.

has been made by means of county chairmen who have sent news items to newspapers and school papers in every part of the territory. High school students have been notified of university activities by editions of the bulletin, "Nebraska Today," which is mailed to every high school in the state. This new project has been successful in arousing interest in the functions of the university.

"Nebraska Today" has been entirely edited by members of the foundation who have written articles, supervised make-up, written headlines and mimeographed the entire bulletin. Acknowledgements from high schools have been received and many schools have sent their school papers in exchange. The bulletin largely concerns current activities on the campus. At the request of Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook the March, 1944, edition featured the school of music.

Entertain State Meet.

In the spring of 1943 when Polly Petty succeeded John J. Douglass as president of the organization, the new officers began a project of providing entertainment for the high school basketball teams which attended the state tournaments held in Lincoln. A program was given in the Union for members of the teams, pep clubs and their parents. Performers from the "Red, Hot and Blue Show," which had been presented a few weeks before, again presented acts for the visitors and after the show, the floor was cleared for dancing. Campus guides and university pamphlets were given to students and their parents.

One of the projects last spring was an essay contest open to all high school seniors. Winners received $50 and $25 scholarships upon their matriculation into the university.

Every week during the school year the foundation has held a meeting of officers and district chairmen. Membership now totals ninety.

The report stated that "we very much appreciate the cooperation the Student Council has given us in the past and hope that it will continue to foster our organization."
