

Society . . .

Last Friday night, the ATO's officially opened the picnic season, even though it was a little damp. A few who attended were Don "Razz" Barry and KKG Barbara Blackburn, Bill Korff and Irene Hanson, KKG; Delts Gene Puzter with Joan Damewood, and Gordon Ehlers with Alpha Chi Joyce Stuve. Speaking of the ATO's, Monday night the pledges confiscated several pairs of trousers belonging to the actives, and deposited them on the Kappa front porch. Were the actives ever burned up!

Rumors Again.

We heard a rumor that Russ Leger, of the Phi Gam clan, was escorting four girls to the Union dance Friday night, and all of the girls know about it. My, how women have changed!! Over Pi Phi way, Jean Harvey passed the candy last Monday night with B. G. Fullerton, Sigma Chi. Two other Pi Phi's have snagged their men, for Jane Johnson received a beautiful diamond from ATO Don James of the Falls City James', and Carol Clark returned from her trip to Denver with a Kappa Sig pin from Mark Dally, who went to school in Wyoming.

The Air Cadets of the library had a big farewell dinner at the Lincoln hotel last night, and some of the couples that attended were Maxine Thomas, KAT, and Dan O'Connor, Alpha Phi's Margaret Swanson with Mel Harris, Lorraine Rabe with John Carroll, Sally Sears with Bruce Kausman, and Margie Munson with Connie

"Passing Parade" Replaces Harry James Orchestra

John Nesbitt's Passing Parade has now replaced Harry James and his orchestra on the Chesterfield show each Wednesday and Thursday night.

Nesbitt, a story-teller at present, has worked in many parts of the world on a variety of jobs. It is largely from this variety of experience that he has drawn his many stories which he relates on the new program.

McMahil, Jeanie Larson and Bette Jean Mahan from the Alpha Chi house were with Ed Smith and Harlie Schrader, respectively.

The Policeman's Ball was also held last night, and university students were well represented. From the Kappa house were Betty Jean Haney with Bob Tangeman, Kappa Sig, and Pat Catlin with Ike Steen, Sig Alph. Kay Schroeder of the DG house also attended with Clare Hatfield of the Air Cadets; Sadie Hawkins, Alpha Phi, with ATO John Mason, and Bette Jean Hatch, Chi O, with pinmate Jack Grainger, Sig Chi.

Dee De Putron Visits.

Lt. Dee DePutron, DU from last year, is back in town to see Margie Andrews, Alpha Chi. Ginny Malster now has a Sig Alph sweetheart pin from Ken Perry of Drake university in Des Moines, to add to her ring. Major Wade Foreman is in Lincoln visiting Jane Emery, DG.

The time has come when friends must part, so see you soon . . .

training in non-commissioned officers schools; or receiving assignment to low priority units.

However, before being assigned to any of these categories each individual must have satisfactorily completed normal basic military training. This may entail additional training for some of the ASTs since not all had taken a complete basic course before entering the ASTP, Col. Murphy said.

Col. Murphy explained that the low priority units were units which would not go over seas at an early date. He also announced that the present AST term would end June 30 instead of July 1 as previously planned.

Stresses Co-operation.

In his address Thursday night,

Mr. Branch will show the necessity for the co-operation of the University Foundation and the Student Foundation and how such co-operation will make it possible for both groups to reach their respective objectives.

The Student Foundation, by writing to state newspapers, arouses the interest of high school students with news of students from the district of each particular paper. The University Foundation keeps this interest alive after the students have matriculated into the university.

County and district chairmen and anyone interested in working for the Student Foundation are urged to attend the Thursday night meeting.
