

UN Casts 829 Votes in Election

Union Offers Free Soldier, Civilian Dances

Free Union dance will be held in the ballroom Saturday from 9 to 12 for civilian students and army trainees. This is the first in a series of four free parties which will be sponsored by the Union during the remainder of the year.

Russ Gibson's band will furnish the music. The dance next week end will include a buffet supper which will also be given without charge to party attenders.

"The Union decided to open the dances to the entire campus after consulting with military officers after the declining population in army trainees set in," said Pat Lahr, Union director. "We think that the combined civilian students and military trainee attendance will make for good parties on the last four Saturdays of the year."

Delegates Go To Christian State Convo

Fourteen students from the university will attend the student Christian movement conference at Kearney this week end. Mary Ann Mattoon, district representative for the university YW, is one of the two student leaders of the conference.

Alicia Coffin of ag; Kady Faulkner, instructor in fine arts; and Barbara Arnold, university YWCA secretary, will serve as adult leaders.

The theme of the conference is "You and Christianity," and the topic will be emphasized in panels, discussion groups and worship services. Herbert King, national associate secretary of the student

(See CHRISTIAN, page 3.)

Ag Entertains Feeders Day State Visitors

Hogs, cattle and sheep will be the main attraction on ag campus today in celebrating the 32nd annual Feeders Day. The convention is attended by persons thruout —From Lincoln Journal.

W. J. LOEFFEL.

... presides over ag Feeders' Day.

Nebraska and neighboring states who are interested in cattle breeding, and results of the year's experiments in breeding and feeding are revealed.

Prof. William J. Loeffel, chairman of the animal husbandry department, will preside over the program. The main topic will be the protein problem, which directly concerns every farmer at this time. Professor Loeffel will discuss this subject in the light of the present situation.

Among other well known speakers will be Dr. Herman M. Haag, economist from the University of

(See AG, page 3.)

Students May Obtain Honors Convo Programs

Students who were on the honors list and were unable to get programs at the convocation may obtain them at the department of architecture in Temple. There are only a few left.

Greeks Take Majority Of Elective Positions

Union party candidates carried 14 out of 22 offices decided upon in Wednesday's spring election of student council, publications board, Ivy Day orator and ag exec board members, in which 829 students cast votes. The results were as follows:

STUDENT COUNCIL.

Arts and Science: Janet Mason, Stuart Goldberg.
Fine Arts: Roberta Collins.
Teachers: Mary Jo Gish.
Dentistry: Jim Kratochvil.
Bizad: Helen Vennum.
Pharmacy: Tie, H. J. Norman and Stanley Andelt.
Engineering: Bill Sakayama.
Agriculture: Tie, Madeline Holtzschere and Edith Pumphrey.
Graduate: Dexter Sharp.
Seniors at large: Jeanie Browne, Jeanne Rotton, Jim Abdnor, Russ Leger.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD.

Sophomore: Varro Tyler.
Junior: Mary Ralston.

(See ELECTION, page 3.)

WAA Modern Dance Club Gives Recital

Orchests will present its annual spring recital Friday evening, April 28, at 8 in Grant Memorial hall, announced Dorothy Jean Brown, president of the honorary modern dance group which is sponsored by the department of physical education for women and the WAA.

In addition to student accompanists, Lela Mae Jacobson and Mary Alford, Pia Werthiener Gilbert, who has composed the music for several of the dances to be given this year, will play "Ballade in A Flat" by Chopin and "Rhapsody in C Major" by Dohnanyi.

Mrs. Gilbert is a graduate of the New York college of music. She has played in New York with such dancers as Martha Graham and the Humphrey-Weidman Co.

Those participating in the recital will be Dorothy Jean Brown, Frances Brick, June Critchfield, Lois Klindt, Helen Marie Johnson, Mary Ann Knox, Peggy Lemon, Eunice Way, Lucille Wolford, Jacqueline Young, Virginia Campen, Marian Coombs, Ernestine Craig, Bernette Hadan, Joy Laune, Grace Peters, Maidelle Platner, Ruth Schubach, Marguerite Klindt, Lillian Snyder, Virginia Pettij and Donna McCandless.

UN Forum of Air Discusses Food, Manpower in '44

Second of three discussions on manpower will be presented on the university "Forum of the Air" Saturday at 5:30 over KFAB. Students will discuss the lack of manpower as a threat to food production in 1944.

For the third time, George Round, assistant extension agriculturalist editor, will be moderator. Participating in the panel will be Commander P. H. Quimby of Nebraska selective service, A. H. Marender, farm labor supervisor, Carlyle Hodgkins, farm editor of Omaha World-Herald.

Church Youth Hear Dr. Ruth Seabury Speak

Lincoln churches are holding a mass youth meeting at St. Paul Methodist church Sunday, April 23, at 7:30 p. m. to hear Dr. Ruth Seabury, educational secretary of the American board of foreign mission, which is the overseas service of the Congregational Christian churches. Dr. Seabury will speak on "The Hope of a New World."

Roger Williams Fellowship will meet at 6:15 for supper and worship service before attending the mass meeting. Myrtle Johnson will lead the worship, and Edwin Hibbard will preside.

Attend Lecture.

Rev. Ray Kearns announced the Presbyterian students will meet at 6 p. m. for a short meeting and supper at the Presbyterian student house before going to hear Dr. Seabury.

Lutheran chapel services for students and service men will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday in room 315 of the Union with Rev. Henry Erck, university pastor, delivering the sermon, "Ahab's Garden of Herbs."

Rev. L. W. McMillin of the Epis-
(See CHURCH, page 4.)

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 88, No. 116

Friday, April 21, 1944

Music Fraternities Present 'Carmen'

Under the direction of Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, professor of music, Bizet's opera "Carmen," sponsored by Mu Phi Epsilon, Delta Omicron, and Sigma Alpha Iota, will be presented tomorrow evening at 8 p. m. at the coliseum.

Playing the leading role, Dorothy Huffman, senior in the school of music, will appear as Carmen. Delbert Pinkerton, an accountant with the Lincoln Liberty Life company, will play opposite Miss Huffman as Don Jose. Escamillo, the toreador, is played by Roy Johnson, a junior in the school of music, and Carlos Atkison, also a junior, is cast as Morales.

Mary Helen Bush, a school of music senior, will sing the part of Micaela, with Robert Calkins, a pre-med freshman, as El Dancaïro. The part of Mercedes will be sung by Dorothy Strasheim, senior in the school of music, and Anne Crosby, a junior in teachers college is to be Frasquita.

The university choral union,

WSSF Awards Plaque to Campus For Contributions

For contributions amounting to more than $1 per student, WSSF has awarded to the university a certificate of highest honor, according to Barbara E. Arnold, executive secretary of the university YWCA. The award plaque will be hung in the YW office.

The WSSF drive which was held on the campus during the first week of December was the first drive handled by the AUF. The goal set at $2,300 was exceeded by about $200.

The world student service fund uses the money obtained in campus drives thruout the country to supply the educational needs of students in conquered and war torn countries and prisoners of war.

Theta Sigma Phi Holds Installation Of New Officers

New officers of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism fraternity, were installed at the regular meeting. Jo Martz will serve as president for the ensuing year. Other officers are: vice president, Marylouise Goodwin; secretary, Myra Colberg; treasurer, Marjorie Mengshol and keeper of the archives, Helen Hemphill.

New members of the organization will be named as a part of the Ivy Day celebration. Sophomore and junior women majoring in journalism meeting the ascribed scholastic requirements are eligible for membership.

Musical Fraternity Gives Initiation Tea

Pi Kappa Lambda, honorary senior musical fraternity, will hold a tea and initiation in Ellen Smith between 4 and 5:30 Sunday. Announcement of new officers for following year will also be made.

Coed Counselor Filings Close Friday at 5 p. m.

Filings for Coed Counselors will be held today in Ellen Smith hall and in the home ec building on ag from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Today is the last day for filings and all women who will be at least a sophomore next fall are eligible. Approximately 75 women will be accepted for membership next year.

Gerry McKinsey Answers Diplomats, Meets 'Eleanor' ... On Washington Trip

Gerry McKinsey, speech major, played the White House piano and answered the questions of diplomats. Yes, and she did other interesting things during a visit to Washington recently.

Gerry won a regional discussion contest on Inter-American affairs, the trip to Washington for a nation-wide broadcast of her speech, and a summer trip to Mexico, where she is to "absorb" the life of the country and help cement the friendship between the United States and Mexico.

Beginning April 11, her stay in Washington, Gerry said, was one crammed full of highlights and impressions with all the excitement of being "where things are humming." "Gold braid and stars ... Mt. Vernon through the rain ... a Mexican embassy that maintained siesta until 4 o'clock in the afternoon" are but a few of the impressions Gerry brought back to Nebraska with her.

Speaks Before 3,000.

The discussion for which the regional winners were taken to Washington took place in the Hall of America on April 13. Here the regional winners, five coeds and one man, from colleges in Maine, Tennessee, Cincinnati, Oregon, Chicago, and Nebraska presented their prepared speeches to an audience of 3,000. Gerry gave her speech first, "Wartime Co-operation as the Basis of Future Inter-American Co-operation." She gave the response for the student group following the program and the applause of the audience. Before and after the speeches a string orchestra and the Navy band played.

Following the speeches, the floor was thrown open for questions. The six college students answered the questions of diplomats, of persons of high rank in the state department, of anyone present at this affair to which

(See MCKINSEY, page 2.)

You Must See the Opera

"CARMEN"

in Concert Form

The University Coliseum
Saturday, April 22, 8 P.M.

Admission 35c Plus 7c War Tax