

WAA Presents Year's Awards Today at Five

All WAA awards to outstanding teams and individuals will be presented today at 5 p. m. in Grant Memorial.

Awards will be presented to the winner of each intramural tournament, to the intramural grand champions, and to three senior women who have shown outstanding interest, performance and sportsmanship this year. A new award will be presented to the group having the largest number of participants in the intramural series.

Sports

New members of the five WAA boards and the members of the WAA council will be introduced at the meeting.

Everyone is invited to attend,

according to Mickey McPherson, president of WAA.

Brown Palace Beats Sigs; Alpha Taus Nip Phi Gams

In a tightly-played game Wednesday afternoon, Brown Palace outlasted Sigma Chi in a game that went 10 innings. The final score was 10-6.

At the end of the scheduled five innings, the count was knotted at 5-5. In the seventh, each team scored one more marker. In the first half of the tenth, the Palace team put across 4 runs to win the game.

Martz and Abnor pitched for the Sigs while the winning pitcher for Brown Palace, Skanderup, went the entire route.

Tuesday evening the Phi Gams fell victim to a well-balanced ATO stab, 4-2. The Fijis scored in the first frame, getting their only runs in that inning. The Taus came back to tie the score, then went on to win the contest. Winning pitcher was Dworak while Anderson chucked for the Phi Gams.

Results of the play-off last night between ATO and Brown Palace resulted in a 10 to 1 decision in favor of BP. Mert Fallman was the winning pitcher.
