

War Stamp Sales AUF . . . Total Hits Bottom After First Day

First day of war stamp sales by Tassels on Wednesday netted a total of $57.35.

First honors were taken by the booth in the Union with a sale of $40.70. Ag college was second with $7.90 in sales, Sosh booth was third high with $5.85, and the stamp booth in Andrews trailed with only $2.90.

According to Mary Russel, Tassels' president, total sales were below expectations. The next stamp sale day will be Wednesday, Oct. 11, with booths placed in the Union, Sosh, Andrews and at ag college.

dent is contacted before Oct. 19 and requested to contribute $2 toward the $2,400 goal. Four hundred dollars of the total will go to finance Nebraskans for Servicemen, the special, free issue of The Nebraskan, compiled especially for and mailed to former UN students once a week. The remaining $2,000 will be divided equally between the National War Fund and the World Student Service Fund.

Ag Co-Chairmen.

Catherine Curley and Edith Pumphery will serve as co-chairmen for the ag fund, while Phyllis Teagarden is in charge of sororities. Mimi Ann Johnson is chairman for the co-ops, Barbara Griswold head of town solicitors, Mary Claire Phillips in charge of organizations and Ann Phillips head solicitor for the Women's Residence Halls.

Members of all organized houses will also be contacted by victory speakers who will visit the houses Monday evening. Betty Huston, AUF publicity chairman, requested that all victory speakers assigned to the Monday night tours meet at 6 p. m. Monday in the main lounge of the Union.
