Thanks, F/O Rowland . . .

First seen wandering the Union basement with an apron tied under his Flight Officer's bars and brandishing a paint brush in his left hand, and later seen working diligently on Union posters in the Nebraskan office, Flight Officer David L. Rowland of the Lincoln Air Base has been turning out beautifully lettered and badly needed posters for the Union since a week ago Saturday.

He volunteered his services free of charge after seeing one of the Union's pleas for student help, and is using his free time off the base to paint the posters.

F/O Rowland is from Stockton, Calif., where he attended the College of the Pacific as an engineer until he was called into the army. He is now awaiting orders to push on. The Union is holding its breath until such orders are issued, because they are going to be sorry to see him leave UN.

Nebraska Songs and Yells

Following are a list of the yells and songs to be used at the rally and future games. Freshmen and upperclassmen who are not acquainted with those should learn them before Thursday or take a copy to the rally in order to contribute to a large, unified cheering section.

Rally Husker, Rally one and all; Fight forever, oh you team. For the scarlet and the cream. Go! Gang! Go!

Rally Huskers, glory waits for you; Rally Huskers, see what you can do; Listen to the battle cry of Nebraska: U-N-U!

"THERE IS NO PLACE LIKE NEBRASKA"

There is no place like Nebraska Dear old Nebraska U. Where the girls are the fairest The boys are the squarest Of any old place that you knew. There is no place like Nebraska. Where they're all true blue. We'll all stick together In all kinds of weather For dear old Nebraska U.

"HAIL VARSITY"

Hail for the mighty team who fight to win for the Scarlet and the Cream; For the Varsity and victory. The might men who wear the "N" still hold the key. Hail the stalwart foes;

Keep up the fight 'til the final whistle blows.

Huskies, cheer for the Huskers to cinch the game and raise their fame at the victory way.

The stands will sway, the band will play. Chorus.

So carry on, we want to win today. Hail to the team.

The stadium rings as ev'ry-one sings the Scarlet and Cream.

Cheers for a victory Echo our loyalty;

So on, mighty men

The eyes of the land, upon ev'ry hand, are looking at you.

Fight on for victory.

Hail the men of Nebraska U.

"THE CORNHUSKER"

(It is a Nebraska custom to stand with bared heads during the singing of the Cornhusker.)

Come a Runnin' boys.

Don't you hear the noise.

Like the thunder in the sky.

How it rolls along.

In the good old song.

For the sons of Ne-bras-ka.

Now it's coming near.

With a rising cheer.

That will sweep all foes away.

So with all our vim.

We are bound to win.

And we're going to win today—

Chorus

For Nebraska and the Scarlet

For Nebraska and the Cream

Tho' they go through many a battle

Our colors still are seen

So in content and in victory

We will wave them for the team

And 'till always stir a Cornhusker

The old Scarlet and the Cream.

Les Said The Better

By Les Glatfelly

Conspicuously absent from this column or any other similar one in the past years have been remarks about Tassels. As a result of the last Monday night meeting, however, remarks about that organization are going to be conspicuously present today.

Tassels have elected two new officers. This column is no reflection on the new officers, but is rather a commentary on the methods used in running the election. A nominating committee, composed of the president, vice president, and senior non-officer puts up the slate for elections. This was done quite some time ago, but due to other business the election was postponed. Last week end the prexy of Tassels heard that if the two candidates put up by the nominating committee were put up in meeting, there would be a nomination from the floor that could take a majority vote. Consequently the prexy and vice-prexy had a hurried little conference Saturday afternoon and decided to change the nomination.

When this drummed-up slate for treasurer was finally presented Monday and the prexy asked for further nominations from the floor, some one moved that the publicity chairman be nominated for treasurer and that, in case of her election, another person be selected to handle publicity. Apparently the president has never heard of parliamentary procedure. When she heard the motion she exclaimed quickly that "we couldn't do that," without saying why, ignored the motion before the house, dismissed the whole business without letting there be any discussion, and rushed the Tassels thru an election before they had a chance to realize that the prexy was completely out of order and perhaps afraid to discuss the motion.

The two nominees which the committee put up for each office were all greeks. No offense to anyone here either, but the fact remains that Tassels is made up of about 50-50 greek-barb and the barbs are just as hard working and loyal members of Tassels as anyone else. Why they should be completely ignored by an unaffiliated president, or any other kind, as they have been all year, is a big question among the Tassels.

And more—The pep queen nominations were made at this same meeting, each Tassel writing down the name of five coeds. The ballots were then handed in and a slate of five pep queen candidates will be made up from the individual nominations. Those ballots were not counted at the meeting, as we maintain they should have been, by the president and some other disinterested person. Instead, prexy took the ballots home with her to count. Unorthodox and extremely unethical we think.

We could think of lots of remedies for all this, but first may we suggest the YWCA upper class leadership class which teaches correct procedure for conducting meetings, even tho it is a little late at this point.
