

Sooners Lead in Big Six But Everything Goes...

Opportunity knocked and UN football players opened the door and walked through with a 24-20 victory over Mizzou, proving predictions aren't always the final word. No longer do we have to say "We remember when," but can proudly point to the fellows who have again boosted the morale of UN school spirit. Congratulations to each and every fellow responsible for the victory.

Pinnings, candy passing, and love held precedent as ever. Cpl. Leo Beck, Phi Delt of last year, returned and Joan Stubblefield is now a 'jr.' Phi Delt. Might we ask what happened to June Griffin, Tri-Delt, in this triangle?

On Ag campus, Iris Baxter and Melvin Hewit, a merchant marine, passed the candy, as did Ruth Weinberger and Lt. Neil Fouts, former student.

Back on leave and with special interest here on campus is Lt. Quenton Allen, SAE, who surprised his fiancée, Mortar Board Helen Johnson, of the Delta Gamma domain. Surprise it was, though a pleasant one, causing a general uproar for all concerned.

Navy aviation cadet, Norm Hoelk, Phi Delt, can be seen around campus with Theta Joline Ackerman. Making the most of his brief leave they took in the dance at the Pike Sunday, and have been busy since—Ah yes!

Fleet's In.

Fiji Knute Coppel, navy air cadet, and Larry Wentz, associated with Uncle Sam's navy in a round-about-way, and Lt. Ned Nutzman, were back on campus. Knute and DG Jean Ann Donley were seen at Pike Sunday.

Gamma Phi's Betty Marquart and Pat Toof found the Sig Ep picnic much fun. Perhaps dates Sig Ep Evan Fristol and Marvin Franklin had quite a bit to do with it.

Speaking of Gamma Phi's, Charlene Frost has all her time taken up with Rod Cox, sailor boy home on leave.

What's this we hear about Bob Cruetz, Phi Delt, and pinmate Shirley Crosby, Chi O? Looking beyond the pinning stage, the Beta house party provided a perfect set-up for a look into the future for them. Phi Delt brother says they are real good friends again, weren't they always?

Beta Bill Hawkins and Alpha Phi Esther Blanchard also enjoyed the Beta party. To say the least, a fun time was had by all. Beta's Dick Klopp and Bill Olson imported their dates from Omaha. Does this mean that UN doesn't have enough eligible fems on campus? Or is it just love? Blue jackets from Crete seemed to take over pledges this weekend. Theta Betty Heckenlively, KKG Martha Aikin and Nancy Gary, DG, were with Bud Shaumburg, Bob Wenke, and Jim McDermott, respectively.

Saturday the Sigma Nu's were hosts at their annual Pig Dinner; however, there was no pork, only pheasant, but 'twas mighty good. Sig Nu Tex Cole, of the Cole brothers, had his pinmate up for the dinner. This little bit of news was quite a surprise to girls about campus who thought he was an eligible bachelor.

Homecoming Attracts.

Running a close second to H. James was the homecoming dance, that is as far as crowds go. Phi Gam Jack Bryant and Marilyn Coffee, DG, managed to do all right. Other couples seen were Tri-Delt Jean Bogen and Harold Freeze, KKG Ella Burkett with her high school buddy, Dugan Anderson; DU Ware Christiansen and B. J. Latta, Theta; Dick Beindorff and Joanne Walker.

Another pin found its way to the AOPi house when Georgiale Hansen and Murray Minthorne found each other. Murray is now attending Med school in Omaha, formerly on campus and Farm House member.

Jackie Tobin, AOPi pledge, has been dating Dick Coke, Phi Psi, or so the report goes. Speaking of dates, and such things, what is Phi Delt Joe Kessler doing at the Pi Phi house so much?

Incidentally, the homecoming dance had a side attraction and couples found penny pitching most amusing. Just who is this jitterbug?

Congratulations are in order for the new Towne Club members: June Carlson, Dorothy Reilly, Marcella Slajchert, Lois Oppen, Marion Priest, Enid Barron, Martha Dishman, Margaret Hall, Isle Jean Selders, Mary McCurdy, Dorothy Temple, LaVerne Kline, Doris Martens, and Ruth Waite.

Palace Men Picnic.

Anonymous news items concern Brown Palace picnic at Robbers' Cave. Supposedly about 40 people were there, pledges and vets, who are going to play a big part in politics. (If this is supposed to be a campaign plug for certain party, let's have the names.)

Cycling again becomes a fad... Thetas Ginny Malster and Butch Winter find it fun as well as... enough said.

Disturbing the Alpha Xi house, or arousing their curiosity, are the numerous messages Shirley Euring gets from Ed, "What a difference a day makes". Popular song most everywhere.

Betas Will Wiedman and 'Doc' Atkinson and Alpha Phi's Jo Kinsey and Margy Reese find the weather perfect for fines times out of doors.

Student Party...

mittee shall be elected at the fall caucus.

III. PARTY SLATE.

The executive committee shall nominate two persons for each office to be filled in the coming election. After receiving additional nominations from the floor, the registered party members shall elect the nominees for the fall election at the aforementioned fall caucus, and the nominees for the spring election at a caucus held in the spring previous to the spring election. All elections shall be by secret ballot.

IV. FURTHER EXPLANATION OF PARTY ORGANIZATION.

A. PARTY CAUCUSES. It will be understood from the above plan that this party will hold three regular caucuses during the school year. These will be:

1. The fall caucus held previous to the fall election, at which the 13 new members of the executive committee and the nominees for the fall election will be elected. At this caucus, the plans for the party platform and membership for the year will be discussed.

2. The first spring caucus held previous to the spring election. At this caucus, the nominees for the spring election will be elected.

3. The second spring caucus held after the spring election. At this caucus, the hold-over members of the executive committee and the party chairman for the next year will be elected.

B. AMENDMENTS TO PLAN OF ORGANIZATION. An amendment to this plan of organization may be submitted by any party member at any time to the Executive committee. If a majority of the Executive committee accepts the amendment, it shall be published in The Nebraskan, and voted upon by the party membership at the next caucus. The concurrence of a majority of the party members shall pass the amendment.

C. PARTY OPERATION. All details of registration of members, time, and place for caucuses, and other aspects of party operation shall be administered by the Executive committee under the leadership of the party chairman.

PLATFORM OF PARTY.

I. WE STAND FOR DEMOCRATIC STUDENT ELECTIONS; to that end we propose:

1. Open party caucuses with all registered party members allowed to vote to select all candidates and party officials.

2. Election of all candidates on the basis of qualification for the office, without regard to affiliation or non-affiliation.

3. Open counting of ballots with representatives of all parties present.

4. Independent voting in all elections now held on a non-partisan basis.

II. WE STAND FOR MORE STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS; to that end we propose:

1. A council of faculty members and students to discuss and adjust student-faculty problems.

2. The clarification of the powers of the student government.

3. The institution of the honor system for examinations.

III. WE STAND FOR GREATER UNITY AMONG THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY; to that end, we propose:

1. A free transportation system between the city campus and the agricultural campus.

2. The continual attempt by the proposed faculty-student council to co-operate with the existing faculty-student council on the agricultural campus to promote a greater feeling of unity between the two campuses.

3. The prevention of all faction-bosses, clique-nominations and small-group dictation of campus politics.

Down Beat, Jr.

Lately everyone has been hearing a lot of a very smooth and sentimental song called "I'll Remember April." Probably every song ever written has had a story of some kind or another behind it, but we think the situation responsible for "I'll Remember April" happens to hold a little more appeal than usual.

It all began way back in 1941 when songwriter Don Raye met a girl named Pat Johnson. They said it was love, and wrote a song together to celebrate their engagement. Everyone considered it rather odd that an eight-to-the-bar exponent like Doy Raye, who had produced such solid items as "Cow-Cow Boogie" and "Rhum-boogie" should suddenly turn out a torchy love song. Raye explained it very logically. "I'm in love," he said. That alibi seems to cover any number of situations. Anyway, it was good enough for Universal Studios, and they featured Dick Foran singing it in "Ride 'em, Cowboy."

Universal, unfortunately, had put a ban on its radio performance, and despite the fact that it was one of the best ballads Hollywood ever turned out, it took "April" almost three years to get to the top. However, it was a favorite among musicians and was heard as background music in practically every big love scene in a Universal picture.

Eventually the radio ban was lifted and "I'll Remember April" was played over the air all the time. Big-time performers like Martha Tilton, Woody Herman, Charlie Spivak, Charlie Barnet, Kitty Carlisle and Bing Crosby have recorded it. About the best of these is the Barnet treatment, featuring a beguine background and moody undertones.

As for Don Raye and the girl who inspired him, it apparently wasn't love after all. Both are happily married—to someone else.
