No Ghost-Writer; Nebraskan Boasts New Staff--Honest!!

The first ghost edition in the history of the Nebraskan has published Wednesday and has been included in the annals of the university publication.

After leading up to the event of the recent pub board meeting, called to choose a new staff, in fully four front-page stories, students were well aware of the fact that there were "12 positions open on The Nebraskan" for the second semester. The first paper of the new semester came out January 31, without a word about the new staff.
