Junior Jays Nudge Bearcats Sidney, College View, Hampton Win

BY CHUCK PETERSEN AND DICK DILSAVER.

Creighton Prep of Omaha outlasted the Scottsbluff Bearcats to win their fifth state cage championship by the score of 33-23. Sidney staved off a last minute Lexington rally to win the class B crown 23-21. College View scratched Oakland 34-26 to take the class C championship. The Hampton Hawks nosed out a fighting, determined Paxton team to annex the class D bracket.

The Junior Jays of Creighton Prep drew away from a fighting Scottsbluff quintet to win 33-23 and take the class A crown. The Scottsbluff kids fought all the way but the pot shots of Harvey and Wickenkamp began to tell in the last few moments. Prep succeeded South High of Omaha, last year's champs, as king of the roost.

Bearcats Lead.

A free shot and a two handed set shot by Crook, along with Whitehead's rebounder, gave the Bearcats a 5-2 quarter time lead. The second quarter featured lots of safe floor play by both teams with Scottsbluff leading at the half, 12-10.

Emery's setup and following free throw gave the Hilltoppers a one point lead that lasted until Whitehead put a swisher through from the right side line. Crook's free throw made it 15-13, Scottsbluff. But the Junior Jays came right back in the person of Mr. Wickenkamp, whose rebound and free shot gave the edge to the Prepsters.

Whitehead, Griggs and Joyce then made it 20-18 for the Bearcats, but Emery made it 20-up with five minutes left to play.

After that it was all Creighton. Harvey, Wickenkamp and Salerno combining to take the score to 33-23 and took the ball game with them.

Wickenkamp was the big noise for the Hilltoppers with 13 points, while Crook and Joyce had six points each for the Scottsbluff Bearcats.

Class B

Despite a fast Minutemen rally in the waning moments of the first quarter, the Sidney high school basketball team clamped the lid to the class B state basketball championship Saturday night at the coliseum by outshooting a strong Lexington team, 23-21.

Coming from a 20-15 third quarter score, the Minutemen were put farther behind as Wilnes and Bonsteel racked up three points making the score read 23-15. Then Warren pushed in a goal with three minutes of the game to go.

Lexington's big center, Bob Smith, helped the Minutemen cause with two points as he garnered a tip in a minute after Warren's goal. Bonsteel missed a chance to put Sidney in the clear on a free throw and Warren hit from way out to draw within one goal of the Sidney squad. Warren's shot was a minute and 35 seconds before the final gun.

Minutemen Advance.

Taking the ball from a jump, the Minutemen advanced down the floor and had three close shots at the basket before a Lexington player was fouled with 15 seconds playing time remaining.

Choosing to take the ball out of bounds instead of shooting the foul shot, Lexington tried futilely to deadlock the score but to no avail and the crown went to the Maroons.

Sidney held a 5-2 first quarter margin but the fighting Minutemen evened the count at 9-9 by halftime. From the half the lead went back and forth until the third canto was half over, when the Maroons made their surge to the 20-15 lead.

Wilnes of Sidney led the evening scoring with five field goals. Close behind was Warren of Lexington, who accounted for nine points.

Class C

The Viewmen from Lincoln's College View overcame an early Oakland lead to win the class C championship by the score of 34-26.

The Oakland Vikings scored first on big Russ Johnson's free throw, but after that the game was all College View. The brother act of Del and Ken Miller started potting in setups, most of which resulted from intercepted Oakland passes. The halftime score was 16-11 View and they owed most of it to the Millers.

Ten Point Lead.

After the half, College View stretched their lead to 10 points and kept it that way in spite of all the efforts by Oakland's Johnson and Young. Big Russ was definitely off his form, but nevertheless, he led almost all of the Oakland plays.

The big noise for College View was Del Miller with 13 points for the night. Russ Johnson and Phil Young with nine and eight points respectively led the cold Vikings.

Class D

The Hampton Hawks annexed the class D state basketball championship at the coliseum Saturday night as they trounced the Paxton Tigers 35-29 in a spiritless contest. Eugene Larson sparked the Hawk attack as he piled in 10 points against the Paxton crew.

Leading 6-4 at the first quarter, Hampton was threatened by a fast Paxton drive in the second canto. After Hahn and Larsen had scored a setup and free throw respectively to draw the count a 9-4, Blake, Cummings and Anderson hit for the Tigers and it was 11-10 with two minutes remaining.

Charity Toss.

Cummings brought the score to 11-all on a charity toss with a minute and 15 seconds of second quarter to go. Larsen put the Hawks back into the lead with 15 seconds remaining as he cashed in on a foul by Cummings. From there on the Hampton crew was never threatened.

The Hampton squad rallied brilliantly at the start of the final half and were leading 20-11 with the quarter half gone as Hahn led the attack.

Blake and Kissel put Paxton back in the ball game on short shots and the score stood 20-14. Then Kissel annexed a free throw and Larsen counted on a set up to make the game safe for the Hawks.

Chemical Society Chooses Dr. Getz As Guest Orator

Dr. Charles A. Getz, vice president in charge of research of the engineering department of the Cardox corporation, will be guest speaker at the 208th meeting of the Nebraska section of the American Chemical Society, Monday night at 7:30 in Avery laboratory.

Dr. Getz attended the University of Wisconsin and received his Master of Science degree there in 1934 and was an assistant instructor in the chemistry department at the University of Illinois. While at Illinois, he invented the process for the whipping of cream using
