Churches . . .

The Union. Father George Schuster has recently been appointed the Very Rev. Msgr. G. Schuster.

Two identical services at 9:30 and 10:50 will be next in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Miller's sermon will be "The Living Christ." Presbyterian students will have an Easter music hour at 5:30 Sunday in the student house.

Easter Breakfast.
Congregational students will attend an Easter Sunrise breakfast and service.

Easter at First Plymouth begins with the Dawn Service in the sanctuary at 8 a. m. Music will be furnished by both the Children's and the Chancel Choir under the direction of Dorothea Faulkner with Myron Roberts at the organ.

Dr. McConnell speaks on "By the Light of the Burning Heart," at the 11 a. m. Easter service. The Carillon Choir directed by Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook and Myron Roberts furnish the music.

At 4 p. m. an outdoor vespers will be given by the choirs, with singing among the bells in the High Tower and Mary Guest at the Carillon.

Sunday Vespers

The usual Sunday evening vespers and "at home in the church" recreation hours from 7:30 to 10:30 for students, soldiers and all young people over high school age will conclude the Easter program at the First Plymouth.

Rev. Wichelt's Easter sermon to be delivered at 11 a. m. in the Congregational church will be "It Is My Faith."

Due to students going home for Easter the Lutheran and Baptist groups will not hold their meetings this week.

Bunny . . .

cause I hadn't left him a pink egg with a caricature of Popeye on it. So if I'm a little late it is because I had to work on it so long the other night.

This boy they call "Dolores" Larson has me worried. He can't understand why the Kappas won't admit the two baby bunnies he bought for Jeanie in return for the little yellow duckling she sent him. If he doesn't behave, I'm going to have to give his eggs to that Flash Noggin Chapin. My, maybe it's my old age but I just can't seem to keep up with that boy. I'm sure he would be a very likeable character if only he would stop tearing bird's nests out of trees.

Do you see, Bunny boy, why I have to be so cautious in distributing my Easter eggs? Now, now, stop crying and I'll give you this nice blue egg to match your eyes. 'Bye, and give the girls a break this year when Sadie Hawkins day rolls around.
