

Ragged Edges

BY BET KING.

Life on the campus has revived with the definite arrival of picnic weather. The idea is to have as much fun as possible before exams.

Some of the Fijis took advantage of the spring weather to trek out to the wilds of Lincoln and roast some weenies. This was the little deal that was postponed last week because of rain. Bill Griffin proved the life of the party with Alpha Chi Gracie Enzor playing straight-man to his comedy. Dick Dilsaver really got around despite those crutches he's been sporting. Bill Berner didn't know what time it was, but he had a legitimate excuse—he lost his watch in the shuffle. If he did it on purpose it didn't work because date Sally O'Shea, Theta, knew what time it was.

Several of the Sigma Nus thought the weather was fine, too. Too good to stay inside. Jack Vierson and Chi O Sue Golden, Bob Wible and Marilyn Coffee, DG, Stan Mark and Barb Russell migrated to the wide open spaces. This brings up the triangle affair developing between Kappa Gretch Schroeder, Sigma Nu Dave Russell, and Tri Delt Dorothy Converse. Dave took Gretch out Friday night and Dorothy Saturday. This has been going on for some time. Could it be a 'share your man' movement?

Alpha Phi Babs Stenger is back out of circulation again. The Army has decided to fight the war without the services of Phi Gam Butch Schroeder. Sorry, fellows.

Couple of the ATO's and the Deltas pooled resources and decided on a picnic. Bill Gayer and Dorothy Doty, Don Barry and Kappa Lorraine Beckenhauer, John Stichnoth and Kappa Ruth Korb represented the ATO's. Gordy Ehlers and Alpha Chi Sal White, Johnny Van Horne and Jettie McIntosh did the honors for dear old Delta.

The Beta Sig's house partied Saturday night. Dean Wall and Beryle Beebe, who incidentally get steadier by the minute, took in the big deal. Al Wolf with Drusilla Dorland and Gene Haugse with pinmate Shirley Olson were some of the other couples enjoying the party.

Back to those ever-present picnics—Rog Bacae had a farewell one given for him Friday night. Alpha Xi Dody Easterbrook was his date. Claude Beecher was there with Harriet Eyden, Alpha Xi.

Alpha Xi Shirley Jenkins received one of the nicer surprises . . . a visit from Odith Warren. The two of them decided to make it a big weekend with a Saturday trip to Omaha.
