

New Coaching Staff Ushers in '45 Season

Headed by Football Coach George "Potsy" Clark, a new coaching staff has taken over the job of leading Nebraska football teams back to the high standards of prewar years.

Clark replaces overworked Ad Lewandowski, who served last year as head football and basketball coach as well as athletic director. This season Lewandowski will confine his duties to director of athletics and business manager of athletics.

In addition to Clark, L. F. "Pop" Klein, former Kearney State Teachers college coach, will act as assistant coach, Jack Johnson, former professional player who spent the summer on a ranch in Utah, is line coach; Dave Stong, former Michigan teammate of Tom Harmon, tutors, backfield prospects and W. H. Browne, remembered as pre-war basketball coach and end coach resumes his old duties, altho at present he is confined in the Lincoln Air Base hospital.

Athletic Director Announces Price Of Season Ticket

A. J. Lewandowski, athletic director, announced today that student activity tickets are on sale at the Coliseum and at the Student Union. Priced at $6.60, the tickets admit students to all Nebraska football, basketball, and track events.

Section E, F, and G of the Stadium are being reserved for Nebraska students, but no reserve seat tickets are being sold, since they were frozen as of 1941. According to the athletic department, "When reserved tickets are again made available season ticket holders of 1941 will be notified to re-order by specific date if same reservations are desired."

First home game of the season will see the Cornhuskers meeting the defending Big Six Champions, the Oklahoma Sooners, on September 29th.

student becomes a live freshman. For the six weeks until the Homecoming football game, each freshman student wears his beanie at all times, thus displaying his school spirit. At the Homecoming game, there is a chance for release—if the freshmen are stronger than the sophomore men at the traditional tug-of-war. Between halves of the game, these two groups fight for superiority. If the freshmen win, off come the beanies, but if they lose, the beanies must be worn by all freshmen, women and men, until the first snowfall.

the Coliseum are examples of the beanies, one worn twenty years ago and the one which will be worn this year.
