

IM Schedule Completed; Play Begins

ATO, Cornhusker Co-op and Theta-XI triumphed in opening games of the intramural football season on Monday, October 1.

Heading the results was the 1 to 0 win scored by Theta Xi over the Brown Palace. After playing four scoreless quarters, each team ran four plays and the team gaining the most yards, the Theta Xis, won the game.

Alpha Tau Omega, a perennial title threat, opened the season with a 12 to 6 win over the Sig Eps and the Cornhusker Co-op defeated the Pioneer Co-op 12 to 0.

HUSKER HIGHLIGHTS

By George Miller

Furor over the Art Peterson affair seems to have quieted, with Nebraskans assuming that Peterson will not be eligible for Big Six play this season.

For those of you who have not followed the case, Peterson, lanky pointmaker for the Husker cagers last winter, is now enrolled at the University of Kansas. At this institution is Phog Allen, vitriolic basketball mentor who, no doubt, was amazed when Peterson showed up on the Lawrence campus.

Big Six rules are such that transfer students are required to complete a year's residence at the school before being eligible to compete in conference athletics for their new alma mater. Peterson will have to comply with these requirements, and Nebraska officials intend to protect his eligibility this winter on these grounds.

The result will be that Peterson will lose a year of competition and will be unable to make points for the Jayhawks or any other conference team.

Conference football teams have broken even in competition with non-conference foes—thus far, winning four and losing four. Oklahoma and Kansas State each boast a win over outsiders, the Sooners subduing the Hondo Air Base and K-State scraping past Wichita. Kansas has beaten Denver and lost to Texas Christian, while Missouri, playing by far the strongest teams, has bowed to Minnesota and Ohio State.

Varsity Cagers Meet

All men interested in varsity basketball meet in the N room tonight, Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p. m., according to "Pop" Klein, assistant cage coach.
