Union Throws Holiday. Party Juesday Night

Tuesday evening for the 8th annual Christmas party, director Pat Lahr promised a variety of informal entertainment and food, starting at 7:30 and ending at night worth taking. The tradi-tion party offers caroling, dancing, listening to carols and eating.

AWS has granted a 10:30 night for all coeds and it will be a 10:30

Free Dance.

At 7:30, the Smith-Warren orchestra will play in the ballroom

Awgwan Staff Marks Tuesday As Issue Date

BY GEORGE T. SHESTAK.

Herman Goering claimed he wasn't really a nazi, Pat Lahr announced that beer would soon be available in the crib, and Ruth Korb promised that the Awgwan would be out Tuesday morning.

This is to be taken with a grain of salt. A hogshead of salt would really be more appropriate, since Ruth Korb herself is never seen out Tuesday morning.

Price Paid.

However, Mr. Tobin of the International Teamsters Union would only delay those Awgwan covers for so long for 50c, Bill Miller's autograph and an old Kappa Kappa Gamma pin.

Among the examples of second rate humor in this next Awgwan are an expose of something or other by Triphammer Peepash, an evil play by Bob Samardick and cartoons by Jody Wolcott.

Who Cares.

But who cares? The Awgwan probably won't be out for a week of Wednesdays and if it does come out Tuesday morning, the question is still, who cares?

In case anyone does care, the Awgwans will be delivered to all organized houses Tuesday. Students who do not live in organized houses may pick their copies up at the Awgwan booth in the Union. The booth will open at 10 a. m. Tuesday and will remain there for several days.

Coed Counselors Plan Special Service for Tea

Coed Counsellors will entertain at a Christmas tea for all university coeds Thursday from 3 to 5 p. m. at Ellen Smith hall.

Twelve Coed Counselors with the highest number of working points will be recognized at a service at 4:30 p. m. Christmas carols will also be sung during the afternoon.

Phyllis Sorenson is in charge of the invitations; Phyllis Teagarden, publicity: Sally White, program and Joy Hill, refreshments.

Flinging the Union doors open for a free dance. The dance will uesday evening for the 8th ancake will be served.

> In the lounge, groups of stu-dents will sing Christmas carols from 8 to 10, with Myron Roberts at the organ. Each half-hour an ensemble from the university singers group will perform and assist in carol singing. Free cokes and brownies will be served in the main hall of first floor during that time.

Students are asked to bring their identification cards as they will not be able to get into the Union without them, Miss Lahr added. All students are invited and it is not necessary to have a date, she stated.

Dr. L. Van Es At Ag College

Appointment of Carl Olson as chairman of the department of Animal Pathology at Ag College was announced today. He will succeed Dr. Leunis Van Es who has retired from the administrative work of the department but will remain as a member of the faculty to complete publication of research work he has done.

Released From Army.

Olson, recently released from the army where he held the rank of major, has assumed his duties at the ag college. Prior to entering the army, Olson was a research professor at the Massa-

(See OLSON, page 4.)

Experimental Theatre Players Enact "The Christmas Carol"

will present a dramatic adaptation childhood; the ghost of Christmas present shows him the beauty and of Charles Dickens' "The Christmas Carol" Thursday night at 7:30 in the Union ballroom.

Directed by Paul Bogen, the cast will enact seven scenes of the famous Christmas story. Before the opening scene, the university singers under the direction of Dr. Arthur Westerbrook will offer a program of Christmas carols and will furnish music during the play.

Ghost Visitor

In this presentation, Scrooge's reclamation begins with the visit of the ghost of his deceased partner, Jacob Marley. A hard, bitter, unyielding man, Scrooge scorned the sentimentality of his young nephew in regard to Christmas, but after leaving Fred and returning home, he begins a strange journey accompanied by three spirits sent to him by Marley.

The ghost of Christmas past

Experimental theatre players takes him back to the time of his happiness surrounding the present Christmas day. In the presence of the ghost of Christmas future, he sees what fate has in store for him if he does not change.

> Sally Whiteman is the student director for "Christmas Carol." The cast includes:

Bill Swanson—Commentator.

Bill Fein—Fred Wayland.

Dede Meyer—Scrooge.

Larry Gilling—Bob Crachitt.

John Kormost—Mariey's Ghost.

Av Bondurin—Voice of Mariey's Ghost.

Louise Rowley—Ghost of Christmas Past.

Maurece Johnson—Voice of Ghost of Christmas Past.

Bernard Suits—Young Scrooge, Barbara Jenkina—Little Fan. D. Ann Richards—Ghost of Christmas resent, Marthelia Holcomb—Voice of Ghost

Barbara Berggren—Belinda Crachitt.
Barbara Berggren—Belinda Crachitt.
Barbara Cypreansen—Martha Crachitt.
Arline Marylander—Tiny Tim.
Genene Mitchell—Ghost of Christmas

uture.

Margaret Huff—Charwoman.

Mary Minnick—Laundress.

Dutch Meyers—Undertaker's man.
Jesse Thomas—Joe, the pawnbroker.

R. Van Westover—Boy's voice.

Olson Succeeds Rosenlof Expects Enrollment Rise

precedented enrollment at the correspondence. university next semester," Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, director of admission, announced recently. The registrar's office is swamped with applications for admission, and

Lincoln Journal.

DR. ROSENLOF.

Robert Friers Exhibits Color Film of Mexico

Presenting an all-color travelogue, "Mexican Holiday," at a public convocation in the Union ballroom at 3 p. m. today will be Robert Friers, globe traveler and motion picture producer.

Scenes of the Paricutin volcano, bullfights, musicians and native beauties which are scheduled to be shown were taken the past summer in Mexico. Friers, who has visited 38 countries, has hiked over every main highway on this

The increase in the number of students attending the university next year has not been equaled for many years, according to Di-rector Rosenlof, and an increasingly normal year is anticipated.

Registration.

Early registration for students now attending begins the week preceding exam week, Jan. 14 and closes Jan. 19. Those students now attending school must pay their fees on Jan. 23, 24, or 25, and a late fee will be charged to all those not paying tuition before the evening of Jan. 25. Students enrolling next semester will have the opportunity to register Jan. 28, and 29, and will pay their fees as they register.

All junior division students who have not already done so must report to their advisors before noon next Saturday, Dec. 22, to prepare their registration papers for the second semester, accord-ing to Dean Nels A. Bengston, dean of junior division.

Freshmen students who have not yet completed their registration forms must do so early in the week in order to avoid the congestion and the closed sections which will probably appear later on, Bengston reported.

YWCA Entertains Freshmen Groups Wednesday Night

All members of YWCA freshmen commission groups will be entertained at a party at Ellen Smith hall from 7 to 8:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Slides of Estes Park, sent from Denver for this meeting, will be shown. Plans have also been made to sing Christmas carols and

Planning Committee.

Mrs. Ray Rice, who serves as adviser for all groups, is in charge of the program. Commission chairmen also assisting with the plans are Grace Heins, Pat Raun, Markussen, Marilyn Swartwood, Margaret Hall, Mimi Johnson, Olive Pope and Cather-

"I" House Takes USA Party Prize

sociation at their party last week awarded first prize, in the form of a silver cup, to International House for the hill billy skit, "I'm Goin' Back."

Second and third places went to the "Howard Hall Horse Apry" featuring a dancing horse, and Carl hall's "Melodrama."

Over 500 barbs attended the frolic held at the Ag Activities building. In addition to the fourteen skits, dancing, card games and mixers made up the program.

The Unaffiliated Students As-

Harry A. Spencer Accepts Position As Law Lecturer

Appointment of Harry A. Spencer, Lancaster County Judge, as lecturer in Wills and Probate Practice in the Law College for the spring term was announced yesterday by Chancellor C. S. Boucher.

A graduate of the university, Judge Spencer received his A.B. degree in 1929 and an LL.B. degree, Cum Laude, in 1930. After graduation he practiced in Lincoln for 15 years and was an attorney for the state banking department for three years. Mr. Spencer was a member of the law college faculty in 1942-43.

Commenting on the appointment, Dean Frederick Beutel of the law college said, "Judge Spencer is the first of a number of prominent Lincoln lawyers who will cooperate with the Legal Clinic in presenting problems of Nebraska practice. Since a large portion of the practice of beginning lawyers is in the county courts, the Law school is fortunate in having Judge Spencer to teach the course in Wills and Probate Practice which covers the core of the activities of the court."

Keim, Worcester Assist in Teaching Dutch Scientists

Dr. F. D. Keim, professor of agronomy, and Dr. D. A. Worcester, professor of educational psychology, UN professors on leave to teach in the GI university at Biarritz, France, are among a group of 25 American professors invited to help bring Dutch scientists up to date on recent scientific developments.

Oskosh Battles Frigid Elements with Coonskin

By Jan Soulek.

hat restricting the shivering of his saddles on your feet. Either quit cold skeleton frame to a smaller area for it is a twenty below zero day. He remarks that Geronimo certainly had his share of brain convulsions for there was an Indian that was an Indian.

I see no relation between Geronimo and the cold Nebraska weather we are experiencing but I am co-operative so I asks Oshkosh why he sez these things. He reminds me that Geronimo packed every squaw and papoose and canooed southward to escape the 'Frozen Rains" but does civilization seek the sunnier side of the States to be rid a frigid climate? Obviously no-we suffer through the winter season with disease and clanking teeth no end.

Lone Ranger.

I had feared that Oshkoshs mention of Geronimo would culminate in his revealing that he (Oshkosh) had been studying Indian Lore in the Red Ryder Boys club or more than likely the Lone Rangers (which are anything but alone). But to my relief Geronimo was merely a figure in a weather re-

"Oshkosh, how was the blonde tomato?" I asks. He is cleaning the fish bowl and notes my question with an elevation of the shoulder blades and a guitural comment that, when deciphered sounded similar to "Sevened-out." "Osh-Oshkosh invades our igloo, his kosh, where have you been? And ine Curley. Suzanne Pope heads coonskin coat and Dan'l Boone I'll thank you to keep your dirty all commission groups. throwing shoes or get a pair that doesn't have the aroma of Lonesome Polecats Kickapoo Juice."

Destiny.

We decide to head for the Union and on the way see these specimans of humanity fripping crisply by us to their individual destinies. One character would speed madly down the walk for five feet or so, stop, rub his ocular faculties, peer sharply about him and zoom on to repeat the process again. After considerable deliberation, Oshkosh and I decided the man was either obsessed with a returned ancestor fantasy or his tears were freezing on his eyelashes.

No Kleenex.

Another personality was ambulating with her head thrown back at a weird angle, apparently having forgotten a Kleenex. Then there are the inevitable coeds who chunk snowballs at the passers-by and then run frantically to their respective sorority houses, leaving one with a most frustrated emotion. At such times Oshkosh and I console each other, and continue our journey yodeling: "Five more day till vacation.

Then we go to the station Back to the old reservation The train-