

Ragged Edges

By Pat Toof and Pat Gilligan.

Society running at low ebb with books the main competition—at least until after finals. Ignoring all this, Babs Stenger accompanied Don Spomer both Friday and Saturday nights—hear there's nothing to this deal.

Looks as if there is something between Griff Jones and Jean O'Neal, although Griff isn't forgetting the Pi Phis, mainly B. L. Mauck.

Not liking the "ball and chain," Bob Holman and Tom Noble both gave and retrieved their pins in one mad rush—leaving Shirley Staats and Marilyn Duffeck on the dating list again. Hear Tom had a good reason but Bob had none to offer.

Taking in the basketball fray Friday night—Claire Steele and Lynn O'Dell, new combo—"Blackie" Blanchard stepping out with Howard Bradley, since pinmate Gene Rainey joined Uncle Sam over vacation—Howard's old flame, Les Metheny, was there with Dick Thompson, naval ensign on leave, incidentally, not only Friday night but every night. Effervescent Gracie Smith and Sid Salzman happily took part while frat brothers looked on enviously but maintained "hands off policy" when Sid has the field.

ATOs and Phi Deltis are sporting a brand new bunch of actives—the Taus giving the occasion due justice at the Pike Saturday night.

Joining in the celebration were Ellie Swanberg with Bill Sloan—Gay Edling and Joan Farrar—Tom Nye with his high school flame. New wrestling champ, Sid Wells, giving Helen Prince a big break. Rex Boyd who became engaged to the girl at home over vacation—debated, wondered, and went—with campus coed.

Prophecy—a steady deal for Stan Nordgren and Jane Fry in the near future.

Barely waiting for the train to get out of town with Figg Flagg aboard, Bob Sandburg called up Margie Munson for the Pike Saturday night. When the cat's away, the mice will play.

on the second floor of the Home Economics Building Tuesday afternoon. Members of the Ag YW may vote for the officers of the City campus YWCA but will have to cast their votes at Ellen Smith hall.

Vice president of the two groups will be the presidential nominee who receives the second highest number of votes.

Other Ag nominees for YW officers are LaRayne Stever, Magnet editor, and Beth Noerenberg social service chairman who will run against Mary Dye, member of the freshmen staff and membership council and Mary Esther Dunkin also a member of the freshmen staff and publicity chairman last year to the office of District Representative.

Secretary Candidates.

Competing for the office of secretary will be Phyllis Teagarden, Helen Laird and Margaret Hall on city campus and Geraldine Olinger and Ruth Ann Medaris, Ag campus representatives.

Phyllis Teagarden was active in upperclass leadership in '44, leader of personal relations and a representative to the Estes Student Conference last year.

Leader of the Vesper Choir in '44, Helen Laird was also leader of religious book reviews and attended the Estes Student Conference during '44 and '45. Margaret Hall was a freshman commission leader.

Geraldine Olinger and Ruth

Ann Medaris are both members of the Social Committee.

Virginia Hall, a member of the worship committee in '44 and Nancy Bachkera member of social service committee are the Ag candidates for treasurer.

Shirley Schnittker, a member of the N book sales committee and Martha Clark who was assistant to the treasurer in '45 and attended the north-west student conference at Seabeck, Washington, last year, are the candidates for treasurer from the city campus.
