

Ragged Edges

By Pat Toof

Take a deep breath—exams are over and men, men everywhere—school looks promising—especially for Sal Emerson, who is starting the semester right with Dick Hunter, back on campus again after seeing excitement with the "Flying Tigers" in China.

Snow—ice—Wy "Tierney" Walker falling flat before the DG house—getting much attention from Gene Woodhead—will be seen together any day in the Crib and Stan Kenton tonight. Some of the other couples dusting the floor will be Georgie Withers and Bob Bartlett—Chris Deines and Georgie Wood—and Phyllis Crandell getting the big rush from Don Forke.

Who's With Who.

Vacation sent Jim Moore home with Nancy Mines to meet the family—Marilyn Duffeck and Bob Veeder spent time in somewhat the same way. Prophesying more to be heard from these two.

Can't determine whether Mac Robinson is dating Sue Lancaster or Beth Montgomery—Beth twisted away last weekend to date Fred Metheny, new addition to the social circle. Careful, Mac. Some trouble with Mary Esther Duncan, Jack Dedrick, and Jo Ackerman—though Jack will be dancing with "Dunc" at Stan Kenton.

The Serious Side.

Infinitely happy is Nancy Coe of the dorm, and with good reason. Fiance John Watson is back again after Nancy's long wait while he served as a Marine in the Pacific.

Adele Greene is flaunting the KappaSig jewel of Dick Stritweiser, home-town boy, beside her Gamma Phi pin. Hint—candy passing usually follows this ceremony, Adele. Mary Beth Davis also prefers her high school sweetheart—proof is the shining bit of sentiment on her left hand from Gus Bauman.

Even more serious—Jerry Lou Stinfig and Earl Godfrey will be married Sunday—while Dawn Buckles will tie the bond in Sioux City on Saturday.

Barbie Wentz and Bill Sloan—Jack Cressman with Nell Scott (understand this is a taken-for-granted-couple) — and Barbara Turk with Chick Mormon or Bill Barret (she can't make up her mind)—and "Blackie" Blanchard dancing with Dean Neill (how long will this be just buddies and good dancing ???)
