

HUSKER HIGHLIGHTS

By
George Miller

Spectators at the Nebraska-Oklahoma indoor dual meet last Saturday might be surprised to learn that the Oklahoma two-miler who was so hopelessly off the pace in the two mile grind was at one time one of the best distance men in the Big Six.

The runner was Lonnie Chapman, who in prewar days had a 4:30 mile to his credit. He has just returned from military service, and was running merely to ready himself for future days.

When the Big Six meet rolls around in early March the Oklahoma runner may be in serious contention for a scoring place in a distance event.

Iowa State wrestling followers are touting heavyweight Glen Brand as the best Cyclone grappler in 25 years, following his performances this season. He tossed Nebraska's Burl Selden in 2:04 when the pair met in the Nebraska-Iowa State match.

Baseball coach Frank Smagacz should have ample material to work with when baseball time rolls around. He has issued the first call to candidates, and plenty of students will welcome the word. There was plenty of favorable sentiment on the campus last spring for a baseball team, and this year all aspiring ballplayers will have a chance to strut their stuff.

Coach Smagacz will handle a large part of the ag college intramural program in addition to his baseball duties.

He played for several seasons in the Pioneer Night league which flourished several years ago, and was feared as a dangerous hitter throughout the circuit.

Dick Miller, present Big Six pole vault champion, will serve as assistant basketball coach and head track coach at Teachers High for the remainder of the season.

Head basketball coach is Bus Knight, former Husker gridiron star who was a member of the Rosebowl squad. Knight did not compete in the cage sport at the university, but was an outstand-

Intramural boxing entrants should be readying themselves for competition which gets underway late in February. The success for the IM wrestling meet has prompted Director Lou Means to stage the boxing matches on a raised ring on the main floor of the coliseum.

Chem Engineers Schedule Meeting, Reorganization

Tentative plans for Engineers Week, if held, will be discussed by the Nebraska Student Chemical Engineering society in a meeting Wednesday evening at 7:15 in room 102, Avery Lab.

Aided by Prof. C. J. Frankfurter, the group will decide the extent of the society's participation in the event and will outline the projects developed at previous Engineers' Weeks.

All returned Chemical engineers and freshmen interested in the field are urgently requested to attend. A brief business meeting will be held to reorganize the society for the spring semester.

Col. Murphy Announces ROTC Age Requirement

Col. James F. Murphy, director of military training of the university, has announced a change in the maximum age limitation for admission to advanced courses.

Students eligible for the course must be under 19 and not over 27 before the opening date of the term in which he is initially enrolled, according to Colonel Murphy.

Swim Entries Due Febr. 18 For IM Slate

With entries due at Room 207 in the coliseum by Feb. 18, all intramural swimming aspirants should intensify their activities in the coming days.

Preliminaries in the tournament will begin on Feb. 20, and will continue on Feb. 25th. Diving finals will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 26th and finals in the five individual races and two relays will be run off in the coliseum pool on Wednesday, Feb. 27th.

All organizations are urged to enter the maximum total of three men in each event, but only two from any organization may compete. No competitor may enter more than three swimming events.

Five places will be determined in each event, and points toward the overall supremacy trophy will be awarded to the top teams.

Each organization must enter six men to qualify for participation points.

Program of Events
Events on the program are the 50 yard free style, 100 yard free style, 220 yard free style, 100 yard back stroke, 100 yard breast stroke, diving, 150 yard medley relay and the 200 yard free style relay.

School Revises . . .

students will be required to devote the major part of their time to five fields, social work, economics, political science, psychology and sociology. Additional courses in humanities and natural sciences will be required.

After this course has been successfully completed, the student will receive his A. B. degree and will be admitted to the graduate school. Pre-professional training and practical application of classroom work will be given the student in the graduate school.

Ragged Edges

The Beaux Arts Mystery Ball seems to head the schedule for the week-end but, as far as we can gather from here, fellows aren't rushing for dates. Barbara Polite and Dean Versaw will be on hand, however. . . .

Vets and more vets are coming back . . . with 3/5ths the enrollment now being vets this semester ought to prove quite interesting for some. Reggie Davies is back and dating Sally Stebbins . . . and Harry Peigles and Ginger Walters are seen nearly every night together. Dugie Anderson is back home and with Ella Burkett most of the time.

Phi Delt Confusion.

Phi Delt buffet supper last Sunday saw Pat Warren and Bob Fox together . . . but we hear Gene Weiller was THE man who celebrated New Years in Grand Island with Pat. Grand Island New Year's was the last time Ellie Lykke saw pinmate Jack Caywood.

It is always a gay time when the fiance returns. Such are the plans being made by Phyl Johnson and B. Jo Packard when their respective men arrive this week-end.

Will any one miss the Kappa Sigs this week-end when they observe Saturday night as a stag night?

Between the Semesters.

Talking about journeys home with THE ONE . . . Rusty Gates took Nancy Garey out to G. I. for a rest (????) between semesters. . . . Ditto did Janie Johnson take Phil Munson back to the home town.

Couples we like to see as we did during this week are Pat Counley and Paul Highland, Nancy Hackman and Charlie Humpell, Helen Prince and Howard Bradley, and Jean Hickey and Bob Deitemeir.

Joan Crittendon is sporting a new Theta Xi pin on her sweaters these days.
