

Ragged Edges

By Grace Smith and Barbie Turk.

Our winsome editor took one look at our column last week, stared into space like an Indian on Lookout mountain and murmured, "It looks as if you've been spreading your corn into an east-wind" . . . So place trust, with no hard feelings, and here we go again.

The main topics for this up and coming weekend are the numerous parties, picnics and formals being given by the local beavers. Hour dances are re-appearing after a leave of absence, and the dorm will be in the limelight tonight entertaining all campus fellas. House parties once again flourish, and big plans are in session by all. Shirley Lierk with Kenny Younger and Pepi Votave with Bob Heinke will attend KKG dinner and open house on Saturday night. Sister Ruth Korb will be seen elsewhere, however, with track star Ralph King.

And They Will Dance.

The Friday night affair is the open house and polka party being given by the Sig Eps. Doing honors to a Victory Polka will be Irish O'Connor with Marilyn Davis, Carson Doering with Joanne Jenkinson, and Ernie Luther with new pin mate Frances Longfellow.

IM Playoffs Unravel Ties In Leagues

Playoffs loom on the intramural scene, as Director Lou Means attempts to unravel the ties in the A and B leagues. As soon as the league winners have been determined, all fraternity and co-op

The Gamma Phis are pressing their evening garbs in preparation for their formal dance at the Cornhusker on Saturday night. Jacque Holmes will appear with number one flame, Scad Voss, while pledge sister, Jackie Och-sner, will be with Johnny Bell.

Dirty Work.

Trying a new formula Friday night is Del Roth with Leota Nispel, and back again Saturday night with Alice Christianson—Does it pay?

Candy and more candy. The AOPi outfit did all right this week with Jean Skinkle and Betty Graham passing the sweets in honor of new pin mates Hank Hitebrink and Roger Kebler—

Then, too, the valentine candy from the Betas was nice. Those Betas and their Valentines certainly get around . . .

So much going on as of lately that there won't be much time for those lonesome studies. One bit of advice might help—flunk now, and avoid the June rush.

teams will be thrown into a single elimination tournament. The winner of this tourney will battle the independent tournament winner and the NROTC team champion for the all-university championship.

In Wednesday's games, the ATOs edged Sigma Alpha Epsilon 26 to 24 in the playoff to determine the winner of League IV in A league competition. Jack Dedrick paced the winners with 14 points, while Gardner was outstanding for the SAE five with 10 counters.

In League III the 520 Club dropped the Sigma Chi team from the four-way first place tie by registering a 25 to 19 win. The Phi Deltos won the right to oppose the 520 Club in the struggle for first and second in this league, by winning from the Merry Makers 36 to 23.

Killers in Finals.

Kane's Killers entered the finals of the Navy tournament, by defeating the Navy Hotshots 22 to 18. Kane, Babcock and Halbakken each scored six points for the winners, while Hamilton had nine for the Hotshots.

UN Grapplers Face Cyclones In Return Bout

For the twenty-seventh time the Iowa State-Nebraska wrestlers will battle for inter-state supremacy when the two tangle at Ames Saturday.

Huskers Have One Win.

The series started in 1916 with a 22½ to 6½ win for Iowa State. That marked a string of 12 straight meets Cyclones were to take before bowing to Nebraska in 1930. The series shows 24 victories for the Cyclones, one loss and one draw.

Coach Jerry Adam's matmen are out for revenge Saturday night, for the Iowans dropped Nebraska earlier in the season to the tune of 21 to 9.

Harold Boker, the Huskers' new heavyweight find, will face a stiff test, when he meets captain Glen Brand of the Cyclone team. Brand is undefeated in his starts this season, and is rated as the best wrestler to represent Iowa State in the past 25 years.

The Husker squad: 121 pounds, Mickey Kelly; 128 pounds, Phil Sackbauer; 136 pounds, Jack Tamal; 145 pounds, Jack Maxwell; 155 pounds, Newt Copple; 165 pounds, Ed Copple; 175 pounds, Jack Adams; heavyweight, Harold Boker.
