

Kansas State Added To Saturday's Meet

Nebraska Track Coach Ed Weir has announced that Kansas State has been added to the field in Saturday's track meet, which previously had been slated as an indoor duel between the Huskers and Kansas university.

Coach Ward Haylett will bring a goodly number of competitors from the Manhattan school, and their presence will serve to enliven the scramble for first place honors in the triangular meet.

Kansas will present a formidable aggregation to test Weir's thingclads, who will be prepping for the Big Six championships in Kansas City a week from Saturday.

Two Jayhawk performers will bear special watching. They are Tom Scofield, former Big Six high jump champion who has a leap of 6 feet 2 inches to his credit; and distance runner Harold Moore, who paced the Kansas two-mile squad last fall. Moore is a member of the navy unit at Kansas, and competed previously at Denison college in Ohio.

The addition of the Wildcats to the field will give the Huskers a chance to meet every Big Six team before the conference championships. Earlier this year Nebraska has posted victories over Oklahoma, Missouri and Iowa State.

Ginn Probable Starter.

Bobby Ginn, prewar Scarlet standout, should be ready to go Saturday, and according to Coach Weir, will probably compete in one of the distance events. The Madison harrier has been working out the past few weeks and it is hoped he will strengthen the UN title bid.

Husker shotputters will have to increase their distances this week, if they hope to pick off top honors in the weight events, for Leroy Robinson, Jayhawk husky, has a toss of 45 feet as his best effort.

After the victory over Iowa State last Saturday, the Huskers expect plenty of competition from the Jayhawks in the scrap for the Big Six diadem. The Cyclones were supposedly the chief threat in pre-season forecasts.

IM Swim Meet Open to Public; Prelims Tonite

Specators are welcome at the intramural swimming preliminaries tonight at the varsity pool at the coliseum, and are advised to enter the pool from the entrances on the stage, according to Husker swimming mentor Ed Higgenbotham, who is assisting Intramural Director Lou Means to stage the meet.

Twelve Teams Entered.

Twelve teams have entered competition thus far, and the fields in every event will be large. For instance, there are 30 men entered in the 50 yard free style.

All contestants are advised to wear trunks or swimming suits, and to be on hand ready to go promptly at 8:00 p. m. Preliminaries in the 50 yard free style, 100 yard breast stroke, 220 yard free style, 100 yard back stroke and the 100 yard free style will be run off.

Barry Leads UN Cagers In Scoring

Don Barry, lanky Norfolk pivot shot artist, leads the Nebraska basketball scoring race with 126 points in 17 games, followed by Joe Brown, NROTC ace from Akron, Ohio, who has 103.

With only two games left on the schedule, three other members of Pop Klein's 1945-46 cage squad may break the 100 mark. Bob Korte, Leo Schneider and Gayle Lebsack all are within reach of the century figure.
