

Ragged Edges

BY PAT GILLIGAN.

Friday night the Fiji house comes forth with their "Winter" party—a little late for this it seems, but maybe there is some hidden significance here. Warren Eisenhart will be with Ann Miles—What happened to sister, Beth, in this league ??? Marge Farrell will be in formal attire with Jim Jensen while "Atlas" Korte will be with red-headed Nancy Mines. Alpha Chis Pat O'Grady and Marilyn Meyer are anticipating big times with Ty Vanderkolk and Hermie Hansen.

Saturday Night.

Saturday night will find the AOP's in formal gowns taking over the Cornhusker. Darlene "Dimples" Tracy has chosen Phi Psi pledge Paul Evans—while Darlene Furois prefers the older men—specifically, graduate Hal Moyer. Med student Lee Gardner is taking time out from the books to get down from Omaha to accept the invitation of Jo Srb.

Hear that Dean Neil really made a haul at last Friday night's Theta hour dance by getting three dates—Pretty good average !!!

Speaking of hour dances, Ed Cople really pulled the boner at the Phi Gam-Triple Delta get together—in introducing his old flame and regular date, Midge Holtzschler, to a brother, he confused her with present big moment Midge Sinclair. Confusing, isn't it ???

Steady?

Pat Warren and Gene Weiler announced that they are now going steady— - - - ?

New twosomes: Blonde Johnny Blumer seen lately with Meredith Bowhay—Hoyt Yowell also confining his attentions of late to Ruth O'Hanlon. Watch this !!!

"Razz" Barry makes the statement that if some of the other boys don't date Mary Armour, he'll be forced to do so. Is this a threat or wishful thinking. Don't rush, boys, give him a chance.

Lily Latham threw her neck out of joint—she claims by stretching. This sounds dubious.

Jo Guenzel does not have a date with Chick Story Friday night. He seems to be looking over Gamma Phi way more and more of late. Marilyn Duffack is responsible for this straying of attention.

Comments on Metamorphosis Reveal Students' Hidden Desires

BY JEANNE KERRIGAN.

"What would you do if, suddenly, you were changed into a member of the opposite sex?"

Everytime I asked some unsuspecting victim that pertinent question, he would give me a bewildered stare as if I had just escaped from the "Oskosh Home for the Mentally Deficient," scream wildly and dash frantically in the opposite direction.

However, after scheming, conniving, and even going so far as to employ bloodhounds (88 cents an hour) I managed to trap a few unwilling martyrs and work an answer out of them.

T-wannng!

Little Jody Wolcott's only comment was a quivering, "T-wannng-ing."

Ann Randolph replied quite hesitating that she would go right out and pledge DU. Can't say as I blame her, either. Speaking of DU's, Dick Finnell stared at me with his very blankest look and then said he would break his date for next weekend.

I absolutely refused to ask Ajax O'Meara's opinion on this subject because, as he has told everyone so often, women nauseate him. Poor boy, he doesn't know what he's missing. Or maybe he does. Well, that's quite beside the point.

Phenomena?

Marilyn Duffack promised that if such a phenomena occurred, she would pledge ATO without even considering any others. Barb Cypreansen announced gleefully that she would love to go the show on a week night without worrying about getting in at 9:00.

At first, Dick Freethy just grunted his most intelligent remark, namely, "Huh?" Then after not very much persuasion, he coyly admitted that he would do his best to get a date with that "glamour boy" Jim Pettis. Just watch Freethy pour on that fatal charm of his.

Jack McNeely howled, beat his head against the wall and shouted that he'd "see a doctor." I could make a big fat remark here, but fearful of the consequences, I won't.

Reluctant Boy.

Don Grube was a little reluctant about it all but finally muttered something about buying some dresses, and, without wasting further time, moving into the women's dormitory.

Thinking along the same lines were Jo Sidel and Rita Fitzmorris. Jo would rush to the nearest men's clothing store and buy a new suit, that is if they had her size, while Rita would look into the accommodations offered at Navy hall.

Bob Baum answered my query with another question, "Would I still be a member of Phi Psi's?" I'll investigate that little item now.

I firmly intended to ask Morrie Delahante this question; but after trying desperately to battle my way through the hordes of women surrounding him and not being able to get with 50 yards of the boy, I gave it up as a lost cause.

Now, thoroughly exhausted, cross-eyed and knock-kneed after my efforts, all I have to say about this nonsense is "Duhhhhhh."

Collins Attends Science Meet, Reads Paper

Prof. O. C. Collins of the department of astronomy will attend a meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science March 27 to 30 in St. Louis, Missouri.

He will present a paper at the convention entitled "A Simple Method of Celestial Navigation," which deals with a method of computation of position on the globe which he has perfected.

According to Professor Collins, a certain amount of calculation is necessary in order to determine position, and his new method reduces the necessary computation to a minimum. Full details have not as yet been released, but this method is expected to simplify certain phases of celestial navigation.

Retraction

Due to a typographical error, Russia was erroneously referred to as "the enemy" in the Feb. 26 "News in a Nutshell" column of the Daily Nebraskan. The sentence referred to should have read, "The employees are thought to have revealed secrets of the atomic bomb to the Russian government."
