minority, special or pressure groups. We will stand with any group who is right but will part with those that are wrong.

ARTICLE III. Organization.

The Veterans Organization of the University of Nebraska shall be organized with a body of duly elected officers as stated in ARTICLE V and shall have no authorized subsidiaries.

ARTICLE IV. Membership.

SECTION 1. Any male or female shall be eligible for membership in the Veterans organization of the University of Nebraska who was regularly enlisted, inducted, or commissioned and who was accepted for duty in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard or Merchant Marine of the United States or of our allies on or after September 4, 1940, and who served between this date and the date of the cessation of hostilities as established by the Government of the United States or a date to be determined by the government of the United States, when at such time no discharged person shall be eligible for a veteran's status under the provisions of Public Law 346 or Public Law 16 (GI Bill), and afore described persons shall not have been discharged other than honorably be and duly and legally registered with the University and whose status shall be student, part or full time, and or member of the University faculty or those of equal status.

SECTION 2. There shall be but one for membership and that shall be an active, regular membership.

ARTICLE V. Officers and Duties.

SECTION 1. Chairman will be executive head of Veterans Organization of the University of Nebraska with full power to enforce the provisions of the Constitution, bylaws, and the will of the group. He shall also serve as head of the executive committee. He shall appoint all necessary committees when not otherwise provided and shall perform all other duties as are usually incident to this office.

SECTION 2. Vice Chairman—Shall act as representative of Chairman in all matters referred to him by Chairman and shall upon his request preside over the meetings and perform such other duties as are incident to office.

SECTION 3. Secretary—Shall be charged with the administration of the policies and mandates of the Veterans Organization of the University of Nebraska, the executive committee and the Chairman. He shall perform such other duties as are incident to office.

SECTION 4. Treasurer—Shall be custodian of funds of the organization. He shall sign all checks, make disbursement of funds of the organization and shall make reports upon the condition of the treasury when such reports are called for. He shall perform such other duties as are incident to office.

SECTION 5. Public Relations Secretary—Shall keep public informed relative to activities of the organization, in order to build and maintain good will toward the organization. He shall also compile all records of historical value and interest to the group. He shall also perform such other duties as are incident to office.

SECTION 6. The heads of the following committees shall be elected:

1. Social committee.
2. Athletic committee.
3. Housing committee.
4. And such other committees as are deemed necessary.

ARTICLE VI. Terms of Office.

Terms of officers—Election of officers shall take place prior to the closing of one semester of the school term and the newly elected officers shall assume responsibilities of their respective offices at the beginning of the next term. In case of existing vacancy of any executive committee men the successor shall be selected by vote of group.

ARTICLE VIII. Voting and Elections.

Section 1. All voting shall be done under direction of the chairman or acting chairman and a motion shall be considered passed by plurality vote of the members present in the meeting at the time of voting. This shall hold whether in committee or group elections. Notice shall be given to all interested members prior to voting upon such matters as elections or other important issues. Upon minor, regular business issues no notice need be given, for it is to be assumed such business shall be conducted at regularly scheduled meetings.

Section 2. All officers shall be elected to their respective offices as follows: Nominations shall be taken at the regularly conducted business meeting. Following an interval of a reasonable time between regular meetings, or at the next called meeting, those nominated for the respective offices shall be voted upon by the group present and shall be elected by plurality vote.

ARTICLE VIII. Moneys and Collections.

All money and collections shall be handled in an approved system and shall be strictly and accurately accounted for, and a public report shall be made when required showing the source of all such income and the expenditure thereof. Such accounts shall be audited as prescribed by the University or at the discretion of the Veterans Organization of the University of Nebraska.

ARTICLE IX. Discipline.

Members will be suspended or expelled from the Veterans Organization of the University of Nebraska upon proper showing of cause. Charges shall be based on disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty and conduct unbecoming a member of the Veterans Organization of the University of Nebraska. Any member so suspended or expelled has the right of appeal to the executive committee of the vets and thru regularly established University channels.

ARTICLE X.

The Veterans Organization of the University of Nebraska or any component part thereof, shall not be used to promote the interests of any individual or group of individuals within the organization whose interests are not those of the plurality of the group.

ARTICLE XI. Meetings.

All meetings shall be conducted under Roberts Rules of Order and at the discrimination of the individual in legal charge of the meeting.
